*Scottish Home Department,
St. Andrew's House, Edinburgh, 1.*

THE Secretary of State for Scotland, the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in pursuance of section 2 of the Herring Industry Act, 1938, have appointed Mr James More Cormack to be a Member of the Herring Industry Advisory Council until the 31st March, 1958 in place of Mr C. F. Mayo who has resigned.

15th October, 1957.

Treasury Chambers, S.W.1.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that They have made Regulations under the War Loan (Supplemental Provisions) Act, 1915, as amended, entitled The Post Office Register (Amendment) Regulations, 1957.

These Regulations amend the Post Office Register Regulations, 1925, by substituting a new paragraph for paragraph (3) of Regulation 26, which applied Section 82 of the Bills of Exchange Act, 1882, to warrants issued by the Postmaster-General under the Regulations. That section, which provides for the protection of collecting bankers, is repealed by the Cheques Act, 1957, with effect from the 17th October, 1957, and replaced by the provisions of section 4 of that Act. The new paragraph accordingly applies the latter provisions.

The Regulations come into operation on 17th October, 1957 and have been published as Statutory Instruments 1957, No. 1764.

Copies may be purchased (price 3d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the following addresses:— York House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 423 Oxford Street, London, W.1; 13a Castle Street, Edinburgh, 2; 109 St. Mary Street, Cardiff; 39 King Street, Manchester, 2; Tower Lane, Bristol, 1; 2 Edmund Street, Birmingham, 3; 80 Chichester Street, Belfast; or through any bookseller.

Treasury Chambers, S.W.1.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that They have made an Order under Sections 1 and 19 of the Import Duties Act 1932, Section 10 of the Finance Act, 1934, and Section 1 of the Import Duties (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1939, viz.:—

The Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 13) Order, 1957, which exempts pearl essence containing not less than 5 per cent by weight of guanine from the duty of 20 per cent ad valorem chargeable under the Import Duties Act, 1932.

The Order comes into operation on 17th October, 1957 and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1957, No. 1766.

Copies may be purchased (price 3d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the following addresses: York House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 423 Oxford Street, London, W.1; 13a Castle Street, Edinburgh, 2; 109 St. Mary Street, Cardiff; 39 King Street, Manchester, 2; Tower Lane, Bristol, 1; 2 Edmund Street, Birmingham, 3; 80 Chichester Street, Belfast; or through any bookseller.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 18th October, 1957, at 1 p.m. for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the National Loans Act, 1939, to the amount of £270,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000, £10,000, £25,000, £50,000 or £100,000. They will be dated at the option of the tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 21st October, 1957, to Saturday, the 26th October, 1957, inclusive, and will be due 91 days after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000 and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. Notification will be sent by post on the same day as Tenders are received, to the persons whose Tenders are accepted in whole or in part, and payment in full of the amounts due in respect of such accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 1.30 p.m. (Saturday, 11.30 a.m.) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

Civil Service Commission,

11th October, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT TO GRADE 6 POSTS IN BRANCH B OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE.

1. The competition is open to boys and girls. Married women are not eligible, and the approval of the Secretary of State is required before a married man takes up appointment.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 16 and under 18 years of age on 1st March, 1958.

BUT candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service before 1st March, 1958.

3. Nationality.

A candidate will not be eligible for appointment unless at all times since his birth he has been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and was born of parents each of whom is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times since birth:

Provided that, notwithstanding that the aforesaid conditions are not satisfied, he may, by special permission of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, be admitted to appointment if

(i) he has at all times since his birth been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic, and

(ii) his father is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times from birth, and

(iii) he satisfies the Secretary of State that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

4. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners on their health and character.

5. Examination.

The subjects of examination and the marks they will carry are as follows:—

Compulsory Subjects.

(1) English	...	...	...	...	200
(2) Arithmetic	...	...	...	...	100

Optional Subjects.

(3) Mathematics	...	...	...	200
(4) Science	...	...	...	200
(5) One of the following languages:—
French, German, Spanish, Latin,
Greek, Welsh	...	...	...	200
(6) A second language chosen from the
list given under head (5)	...	...	...	200
(7) History	...	...	...	200
(8) Geography	...	...	...	200

Candidates must take one of the languages in the list given under head (5); they may also take two other optional subjects. Not more than two languages in all may be chosen from the list under head (5).

Candidates will be arranged in order of merit on their total marks in the examination, but before any candidate can be appointed he or she will be required to establish, in a Foreign Office interview, that he or she is in other respects suitable for appointment to the Foreign Service. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not reach a standard which satisfies the Civil Service Commissioners. The Commissioners' decision will be final.

6. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

7. Fee.

No fee is required.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations commencing on 21st January, 1958.

Applications on the prescribed form for admission to the Competition should be received by the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission on or before 21st November, 1957. Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission,

11th October, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR RECRUITMENT TO THE CLERICAL CLASS OF THE HOME CIVIL SERVICE.

1. Both boys and girls are eligible.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 16 and under 18 years of age on 1st March, 1958.

BUT candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service before 1st March, 1958.

3. Nationality.

To be eligible for appointment a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

4. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners on their health and character.

5. Examination.

The subjects of examination and the marks they will carry are as follows:—

Compulsory Subjects

(1) English	...	...	...	200
(2) Arithmetic	...	...	...	100

Optional Subjects

(3) Mathematics	...	...	...	200
(4) Science	...	...	...	200
(5) One of the following languages:—
French, German, Spanish, Latin,
Greek, Welsh	...	...	...	200
(6) A second language chosen from the
list given under head (5)	...	...	...	200
(7) History	...	...	...	200
(8) Geography	...	...	...	200

Candidates may take three optional subjects. Not more than two languages may be chosen from the list given under head (5).

Candidates will be arranged in order of merit on their total marks in the examination. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not reach a standard which satisfies the Civil Service Commissioners. The Commissioners' decision will be final.

6. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

7. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account.

8. Fee.

No fee is required.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations, commencing on 21st January, 1958.

Applications on the prescribed form for admission to the Competition should be received by the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission on or before 21st November, 1957. Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission,

11th October, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF ARCHITECTURAL AND ENGINEERING DRAUGHTSMEN.

1. Both men and women may compete under these Regulations.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 20 on 1st June, 1957. There is no upper age limit, but in appointing persons in a permanent capacity Departments expect regular and effective service for a reasonable period, and the Commissioners will take this requirement into account.

3. Nationality.

(1) To be eligible for appointment (other than to a situation in the Admiralty, War Office, Air Ministry, Ministry of Supply or Government Communications Headquarters

(Foreign Office)) a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment.

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

(2) A candidate will not be eligible for appointment to a situation in the Admiralty, War Office, Air Ministry or Ministry of Supply unless (i) at all times since his birth he has been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and (ii) he was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and (iii) each of his parents was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times from birth:

Provided that, notwithstanding that the aforesaid conditions are not satisfied, he may, if the conditions specified in paragraph (1) of this Regulation are satisfied, be admitted to appointment by special permission of the First Lord of the Admiralty, the Secretary of State for War, the Secretary of State for Air, or the Minister of Supply as the case may be.

(3) A candidate will not be eligible for appointment to a situation in Government Communications Headquarters (Foreign Office) unless at all times since his birth he has been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and was born of parents each of whom is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times since birth:

Provided that, notwithstanding that the aforesaid conditions are not satisfied, he may, if the conditions specified in paragraph (1) of this Regulation are satisfied, be admitted to appointment by special permission of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

4. Qualifications.

(i) Technical Qualifications.

Every candidate must have obtained an Ordinary National Certificate or an equivalent or higher qualification in an appropriate subject.

Provided that exceptionally, candidates for posts of Architectural, Civil, Structural, Sanitary or Heating and Ventilating Draughtsmen will be admitted who in place of this qualification can show evidence of such technical education, training and experience as, in the opinion of the Commissioners, fits them for consideration for such posts.

(ii) Training.*

Every candidate must have satisfactorily completed a normal apprenticeship or pupilage, or have had equivalent training of not less than three years' duration (except as in (iv) below).

In the course of their training candidates for Mechanical Engineering posts must have had adequate workshop experience with a good class engineering concern; for Civil Engineering posts they must have had adequate practical experience on building construction or civil engineering site work; for Heating and Ventilating and Electrical Engineering posts they must have had adequate workshop experience or adequate experience on site or installation work with a good class engineering concern.

For Architectural posts candidates should have had good opportunities for assisting in the planning and design of buildings and the setting-out and inspection of site work; time spent in full-time study of Architecture at a recognised educational institution may be counted in full towards this training period.

(iii) Experience.

Every candidate must have had at least one year's experience in a Drawing Office; this period must be additional to the training period specified in paragraph (ii) except that candidates for posts in the Admiralty and the Ministry of Works will be allowed to count time spent in a Drawing Office during that training period. Time spent in drawing work connected with a course of study will not be accepted.

(iv) *Exceptionally, candidates who have not served an apprenticeship must have had for employment in the

(a) Admiralty

(i) for Mechanical and Electrical Engineering posts, five years equivalent training with a good class engineering concern which has included adequate workshop experience, and

(ii) for Architectural and Civil Engineering posts, not less than two and a half-years' experience in a Drawing Office, which has provided good opportunities for assisting in the planning, design, setting out and inspection of site work.

(b) Air Ministry

For Heating and Ventilating posts, five years' experience with good class Installation Contractors, Consulting Engineers or other engineering organisation affording adequate practical experience on site installation works and/or at works and including not less than two years in a Drawing Office.

(c) Ministry of Works

For Heating and Ventilating and Electrical Engineering posts, five years' experience with good class Installation Contractors, Consulting Engineers or other engineering organisation affording adequate practical experience on site installation works and/or at works and including not less than two years in a Drawing Office.

5. Application.

A candidate may make one, and only one, application under these Regulations during the year.

6. Competition.

The candidates who appear from the information available to have the best qualifications and experience will be invited to interview in London before a Selection Board which will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners those considered most suitable for appointment.

Candidates will be asked to bring examples of their work to the Board. The decision of the Civil Service Commissioners will be final.

7. Health and Character.

Every successful candidate must satisfy the Commissioners as to his or her health and character.

8. Assignment.

The Commissioners will determine the Department to which each successful candidate shall be assigned. In making the assignments the Commissioners will be guided by the requirements of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will be met as far as possible.

9. Refund of Marriage Gratuity.

Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October, 1946, or who are widowed or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

10. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Persons who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

11. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

12. Fee.

A successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £1 before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.
