Civil Service Commission,

27th December, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF ASSISTANT PREVENTIVE OFFICERS IN THE WATERGUARD SERVICE OF THE CUSTOMS AND EXCISE DEPARTMENT.

1. Men only are eligible.

2. No candidate may compete more than twice under these Regulations for the post of Assistant Preventive Officer.

3. Age.

Candidates must be at least 19 and under 21 years of age on the governing date.

But—

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving in H.M. Forces or in H.M. Overseas Civil Service may deduct from his actual age the period of such service rendered before the governing date.

(b) a candidate who has served in any established post to which he was admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners may deduct from his actual age any time not exceeding two years which he has spent in such service before the governing date.

For an examination held in the first six months of any year the governing date is 1st March in that year; for an examination held in the last six months of any year it is 1st September in that year.

4. Nationality.

To be eligible for appointment a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

5. Education.

No precise educational qualifications are prescribed, but candidates will be expected to have attained the standard of education of persons who have had whole-time systematic education up to the age of at least 16 years.

6. Examination.

A. Written examination.

The subjects of the examination will be as follows:—

	Maximum marks.
(1) English	200
(2) Arithmetic	100
(3) General Paper 1	100
(4) General Paper 2	100

B. Exemption from the written examination.

Candidates who possess, by the 16th January, 1958, one of the educational qualifications set out below will be exempted from the written examination.

(i) A General Certificate of Education with passes at either Ordinary or Advanced level, obtained in not more than two examinations, in English Language, Mathematics and three other distinct subjects.

(ii) The Scottish Leaving Certificate with passes at either the lower or the higher grade, obtained in not more than two examinations, in English, Mathematics and three other distinct subjects. (Passes in the Scottish Universities Preliminary Examination will be accepted).

(iii) The Grammar School Senior Certificate of the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland, with passes in the appropriate subjects obtained at not more than two sittings.

(iv) The subjects that will be accepted are those included under the following headings: English, classical and modern languages, history, politics, economics, geography, religious knowledge, mathematics, science, engineering and technical drawing; the same subjects may not be counted at both Ordinary and Advanced level.

(v) A School Certificate, a Higher School Certificate, a Senior Leaving Certificate of the Scottish Education Department, or a Senior Leaving Certificate or Grammar School Senior Certificate of Northern Ireland taken before 1952 will be accepted as an exemption qualification.

C. Of the candidates who obtain the highest number of marks in the written examination a certain number, to be determined by the Civil Service Commissioners, together with those exempted from the written examination, will be invited to appear before a Selection Board. The Selection Board will recommend to the Commissioners for appointment those candidates who appear to them to be most suitable. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not reach a standard which satisfies the Commissioners.

D. Of the vacancies to be filled, not less than one-tenth will be reserved for candidates who reach a standard satisfactory to the Commissioners and who

(i) have completed by 1st March or 1st September, as the case may be, of the year in which the examination is held (see Regulation 3), a period of not less than three years' continuous full-time service in H.M. Forces of which not less than one year must have been whole-time voluntary service entered into for a fixed period (including in the case of officers a permanent commission); or

(ii) have contracted to complete a fixed period of whole-time voluntary service (including in the case of officers a permanent commission) which would have qualified under (i) and have before completing that period been invalided out or prematurely released from service on other grounds.

No candidate will be eligible for inclusion in this reservation if his whole-time service ceased more than two years before 1st March or 1st September, as the case may be, of the year in which the examination is held (see Regulation 3).

7. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners on their health and character.

8. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers in Northern Ireland and in the Irish Republic, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Commissioners.

9. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

10. Fee.

An application fee of 7s. 6d. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the application form and is not returnable in any circumstances. A further fee of 12s. 6d., being the balance of the fee of £1, must be paid by each candidate on admission to the examination. (Candidates exempted from the written examination must pay the further fee of 12s. 6d. when called upon to do so).

11. The Commissioners' decision will be final in all matters concerning this competition.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations, the written examination commencing on 11th March.

Applications on the prescribed form for admission to the Competition should be received by the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission on or before 16th January, 1958. Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
