PRIVATE LEGISLATION PROCEDURE (SCOTLAND)
 ACT 1936

BRITISH TRANSPORT DOCKS

NOTICE is hereby given in terms of section 1(4) of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1936, that the Secretary of State, the Chairman of Committees of the House of Lords and the Chairman of Ways and Means in the House of Commons having considered representations by the British Transport Docks Board that it is expedient that the under-mentioned Parliamentary Powers to be operative in Scotland and elsewhere which the British Transport Docks Board desire to obtain should be conferred by one enactment have decided that the said powers would more properly be obtained by the promotion of a Private Bill than by the promotion of a Private Bill and of a Provisional Order under the said Act:

1. To authorise the Board (a) to demand and take rates in respect of hover vehicles and hydrofoil vessels entering, using or leaving any of the Board's harbours and in respect of goods and passengers thereon and (b) to agree with owners of hover vehicles, hydrofoil vessels and seaplanes for the composition of the rates payable in respect thereof.

2. To provide that notwithstanding anything in any Act or Order relating to any of the Board's harbours sections 83 and 84 of the Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act, 1847 shall apply to each of such harbours.

3. To empower the Board to make byelaws for the management, control and regulation of their harbours, the goods, wares, merchandise and vehicles using such harbours, the control and regulation of vessels within the limits of their harbours, the conduct of persons therein, the control or prohibition of smoking and as to the safety precautions to be observed by persons on vessels in their harbours; to apply to all or any of the Board's harbours any byelaws made by the Board under any enactment, to provide the procedure for the confirmation of all byelaws made by the Board and as to fines for offences against the byelaws.

4. To empower the Board to make byelaws as to the loading and discharging by vessels of certain dangerous goods and as to the bringing, handling, transport or storage of such goods within the Board's harbours, to require the owner or master of a vessel carrying dangerous goods to give notice to the harbourmaster when the vessel enters any of the Board's harbours and to provide that persons failing to do so shall be liable to a fine.

5. To vary in their application to the Board the powers conferred by sections 530 and 532 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 with respect to any vessel sunk, stranded or abandoned in such manner as to be an obstruction or danger to navigation in any of the Board's harbours or in or near any approach thereto and to empower the Board to recover expenses incurred by them in the exercise of such powers from the owner of the vessel.

6. To continue in force in their application to the Board until 1st August 1969 the provisions of section 54 (Powers of police as to search and arrest) of the British Transport Commission Act, 1949 as amended by section 77 of the British Transport Commission Act, 1959.

7. To increase from 20 to 30 miles per hour the speed limit imposed by paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of section 26 (Traffic offences on dock roads) of the British Transport

Commission Act, 1961 in its application to dock roads at the Board's harbours.
