BY THE QUEEN

A PROCLAMATION

Declaring that the first Monday in August in the year 1966 shall not be a Bank Holiday or a Public Holiday in the Inland Revenue Offices or a Holiday in the Customs and Excise, in England and Wales or in Scotland, and appointing the last Monday in August in that year in its stead.

ELIZABETH R.

Whereas it has been made to appear to Us in Council that in the year 1966 it is inexpedient that the first Monday in August should be a bank holiday or a public holiday in the inland revenue offices or a holiday in the customs and excise, in England and Wales or in Scotland:

Now, therefore, We, in pursuance of section 5 of the Bank Holidays Act 1871, section 3 of the Holidays Extension Act 1875, section 1 of the Revenue Offices (Scotland) Holidays Act 1880, and section 3(3) of the Customs and Excise Act 1952, do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, and in exercise of the powers conferred by the enactments aforesaid, declare that the first Monday in August shall not in the year 1966 be a bank holiday or a public holiday in the inland revenue offices or a holiday in the customs and excise, in England and Wales or in Scotland, and We do hereby, by and with the advice and in exercise of the powers aforesaid, appoint the last Monday in August in the year 1966 to be observed as a bank holiday and a public holiday in the inland revenue offices and a holiday in the customs and excise, in England and Wales and in Scotland, under and in accordance with the said Acts, instead of the first Monday in August, and We do by this Our Royal Proclamation command the said day to be so observed and all Our loving subjects to order themselves accordingly. —

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five, and in the fourteenth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN

POST OFFICE TELEPHONES

London Radiophone Service

HER Majesty's Postmaster General hereby gives notice that a public VHF radiophone service, primarily intended for use in vehicles, will shortly be opened in Greater London. Persons licensed under the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1949 to use radiotelephones (whether in a vehicle or elsewhere, as provided in their licences) will be able, when in possession of approved equipment, to make and receive certain calls through the Postmaster General's system. In accordance with Regulations 20 and 25 (3) of the Telephone Regulations 1965 Her Majesty's Postmaster General hereby gives notice that until further notice the charges for telephone calls from and to radiotelephones (whether in vehicles or elsewhere) in the London Radiophone Service and for services and facilities provided in relation to such calls shall be as follows:

1. Definitions. In this Notice:

"the London radio charging group" means all the telephone exchanges which are classified (in accordance with regulation 18 (1) of the Telephone Regulations 1965) into the following telephone groups:

Bishops Stortford	Great Dunmow	Merstham

(b) exceeds 35 miles, but does not exceed 50 miles ...	3 0	1 0
(c) exceeds 50 miles, but does not exceed 75 miles ...	4 0	1 4
(d) exceeds 75 miles, but does not exceed 125 miles ...	4 6	1 6
(e) exceeds 125 miles	5 0	1 8

3. Calls to Radiotelephones.

(1) Call from an installation, other than a coin box line	The same as the charge specified in paragraph 2 above for a call from the radiotelephone to the installation or telephone concerned
(2) Charge to the subscriber for a call from a coin box line	For the first three minutes or part of three minutes	For each three minutes or part of three minutes after the first three minutes
	s. d.	s. d.
(a) Where the exchange serving the coin box line is in the London radio charging group	1 5	1 3
(b) Where that exchange is not in the London radio charging group: where the distance between the group centres concerned:
(i) does not exceed 35 miles	2 2	2 0
(ii) exceeds 35 miles but does not exceed 50 miles ...	3 2	3 0
(iii) exceeds 50 miles but does not exceed 75 miles ...	4 2	4 0

(v) exceeds 125 miles	5 3	5 0

(4) Call from an installation or telephone on the Hull telephone system	Call made otherwise than from a call office or coin box line		Call made from a call office or coin box line
	For the first three minutes or part of three minutes	For each minute after the first three minutes	For each three minutes or part of three minutes
	5s. 0d.	1s. 8d.	5s. 0d.

(Note.—In paragraphs 3(2) and 3(3) the charges shown for the first three minutes or part of three minutes include an additional charge on account of the calls being made from a coin box line or a call office. In paragraph 3(4) the charge shown in the last column does not include any additional fee on account of the calls being made from a coin box line or a call office which may be charged by the Hull Corporation).

4. Services and facilities (when provided)

- (1) Fixed time calls—British Islands. The booking charge for a single call booked in advance for connection at a specified time or a series of such calls to be made from a radiotelephone shall be:
- (a) in the case of an application for a single fixed time call—6d.
 - (b) in the case of an application for a series of fixed time calls at the same time of day on not fewer than five consecutive days commencing on any day of the week (either including or excluding Saturdays, Sundays, Christmas Day, Good Friday and Public Holidays)—5d. for each call.

The Postmaster General may refuse to accept a booking if in his opinion notice of insufficient length has been given: at least two days' notice is required for a series of fixed time calls.

- (2) Personal calls to or from radiotelephones—British Islands. If a call is booked to a specified number for the specified purpose of communication with a particular person identified by name or by such description as the Postmaster General may consider sufficient the charge shall be 1s. 6d. (whether or not the call is connected) in addition to any other charges for or in respect of the call or the application therefor. No personal charge shall be payable if the telephone exchange operator is unable to establish communication with the specified telephone number or (as the case may be) is able to establish communication with none of the specified telephone numbers.
- (3) Transferred charge calls—British Islands. Where the service referred to in regulation 30 of the Telephone Regulations 1965 is given in respect of calls made from or to a radiotelephone the transfer fee payable in addition to the charge for the call shall be 3d.
- (4) Advice of duration and charge. When particulars of the duration of or the charge for a call from a radiotelephone or of both such duration and charge are supplied on request the charge shall be 6d. for each call of which particulars are supplied. When particulars are given in relation to calls to a radiotelephone the charge shall be 3d. for each call of which particulars are supplied.
- (5) Telegraph facilities. Where a message is sent by radiotelephone to the appropriate Post Office operator for further transmission to the addressee as a written telegram, the charge shall be 1s. 3d. for the telephone call involved (whatever its duration), in addition to the charge for the transmission of the telegram.

5. Reduced rate calls.

The charges referred to in paragraphs 2(2), 3(2), 3(3), 3(4) and 4(2) may be reduced at such times or during such periods as the Postmaster General may from time to time direct.
