At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of May 1966

PRESENT

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Secretary of State for Scotland has, in pursuance of the powers competent to him under the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act 1855, made a Representation that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor dated 28th October 1965, pronounced by the Sheriff of Roxburgh, Berwick and Selkirk at Jedburgh, finding that the Burial Ground in the Parish of Kelso surrounding the Old Parish Church and bounded by Abbey Row, The Butts and The Knowes, in the County of Roxburgh, is in a condition which is offensive or contrary to decency:

And Whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that in terms of section 5 of the said Act burials be forthwith discontinued in the said Burial Ground except for the burial of:

- (1) any person whose husband or wife has been buried in the said Burial Ground;
- (2) any person whose child has been buried in the said Burial Ground;
- (3) any unmarried person who, at the date of the closure of the said Burial Ground, was over forty years of age and had at that date a parent buried in the said Burial Ground; and
- (4) cremated remains of any person who, but for the closure of the said Burial Ground, would be entitled to burial in a lair given off prior to the date of closure:

Provided always that such burials can be carried out without being dangerous to public health or offensive or contrary to decency and without interference with the remains of a previous burial, that proper and sufficient ground is available in the respective family burial grounds, that no such burial except the burial of cremated human remains shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of not less than four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper surface of the coffin, and that intimation be given to the Burial Grounds Officer of the County of Roxburgh not later than the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to give Notice of the said Representation and to order that the same be taken into consideration on the 25th day of July next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order, or notice thereof, be published in the Edinburgh Gazette and that copies of this Order, or notice thereof, be fixed as required by the said Act on the doors of the Old Parish Church at Kelso, or on some other conspicuous places within the Parish of Kelso in the County of Roxburgh one month before such Representation is so considered.
