BURGH OF WHITBURN

Extension of the Burgh Boundaries

NOTICE Is Hereby Given that the following Deliverance was given by the Sheriff of the Lothians and Peebles at Linlithgow on 8th June 1967.

"Linlithgow, 8th June 1967. The Sheriff having resumed consideration of the foregoing Petition and relative productions and having heard the evidence adduced and visited and inspected the proposed boundaries, in respect that after due intimation no party has appeared to object and being satisfied that the additional areas proposed to be included within the Burgh of Whitburn ought to form part of the said Burgh and that the proposed extension is reasonable and ought to be granted, therefore Finds and Declares that from and after 16th May 1967, the following shall be the new boundaries of the Burgh of Whitburn—namely: The existing boundary on the west shall continue only so far as the said existing boundary on the west meets the Public Highway known as A.8 from where the North boundary shall follow the line of the south side of the said A.8 in a north easterly direction until the point where the said A.8 meets the existing North boundary of the said Burgh at the River Almond from where the boundary line shall follow the existing boundary along the said River Almond in an easterly direction past the point where the said River Almond touches the existing East boundary of said Burgh, following the line of the said River Almond and then shall follow a westerly direction and then a southerly direction to cross the Public Highway known as A.705 and to continue in a southerly direction and then to follow a South-eastern direction as far as the White Burn from where the boundary line shall follow in a westerly direction the line of the said White Burn up to the point where said White Burn joins a stream leading from the area around the Old Quarries from which point the boundary shall follow a south-south easterly and then South-westerly direction and thereafter a Southerly south-easterly and easterly direction round past the said Old Quarries after which the boundary shall follow a south-easterly direction and then shall follow a curve in the same direction down to a drain draining the lands of the Farm of Blaeberryhill, where the boundary shall follow the line of the said drain in a westerly direction and then southwards until it reaches the Bickerton Burn, where the boundary shall follow the line of the said Bickerton Burn in a South westerly and then westerly direction up to the area around Bickerton Hall where the boundary shall follow a north westerly and then south westerly direction until it reaches the Public Highway known as A.706 where it shall follow the curve of the east side of said A.706 in a northerly direction to the point where the said A.706 joins the access road leading past Reveston House, where the boundary shall follow the line of the North side of said access Road in a South westerly direction past Reeves Farm buildings to take a North westerly direction up to Cultrig Burn from where the boundary shall follow the line of the said Cultrig Burn in a westerly and then southerly direction and then a north westerly direction in a straight line past the railway sidings adjacent to Polkemmet Colliery after which it shall follow a westerly, North westerly and then northerly direction until it reaches the existing south boundary of said Burgh where it follows the line of the said existing south boundary in a south westerly, North westerly then northerly direction until it reaches the said A.705 along the Northside of which it follows an easterly direction for a short distance to take up a northerly direction to the point where said existing boundary reaches the south side of said A.8 all as said boundary is delineated and shown on the plan produced, docquetted and signed as relative hereto Grants Warrant to record the Petition and this deliverance in the Books of Court."

"S. SHAW."

A certified copy of the Deliverance along with the relative map, may be seen in the office of the Town Clerk, Burgh Chambers, Whitburn, during ordinary office hours.

ROBERT MICKEL, Town Clerk.
