GENERAL POST OFFICE

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY ACT 1949

THE Postmaster General hereby gives notice to all holders of "Broadcast Receiving Licences (Including Television)—General Form" (under paragraph 7 of the Schedule thereto), to all holders of "Broadcast Receiving Licences (Including Television)—Multiple form" (under paragraph 7 of the First Schedule thereto) and to all holders of "Broadcast Receiving Licences (including Television)—Hotels Comprehensive form" (under paragraph 7 of the First Schedule thereto) that on and from the 8th February 1968 the terms of the said Licences are hereby varied as follows:

(1) Clause 1(b) thereof shall be varied so as to read as follows:

"to use the said apparatus for the purposes of receiving

(i) visual images sent by television which can be exhibited by the said apparatus in monochrome only and messages sent by telephony from authorised Broadcasting Stations for general reception, and

(ii) visual images sent by television which can be exhibited by the said apparatus in monochrome only and messages sent by telephony or telegraphy from licensed amateur stations."

(2) The following clause shall be added at the end thereof:
"This licence does not authorise the use of any apparatus for the purpose of receiving visual images sent by television which can be exhibited by the apparatus otherwise than in monochrome."

Note.—A fresh licence is required authorising the reception of television in colour.
