

direction and South-Westerly direction to the high water mark at a point thereon being the South-Westmost point of the property known as RubhaMor, thence along the said high water mark Southwards past Roinn an Fhaing and Aird a' Mhorair to a point West of 14 Bank Street, Plockton, thence in a North-Westerly direction across the road to Plockton Station and along the fence of an enclosed piece of land, thence in North-Westerly and South-Easterly direction along the boundaries of the said enclosed piece of land to the point of commencement.

No. 5: ULLAPOOL:

The area of some 38 acres or 15.4 hectares comprises over half the village of Ullapool. Commencing at a point on the shore opposite the boundary between the old graveyard and the Royal Hotel, thence along the said boundary, thence in a North-Westerly direction up the A 835 road, thence in a Westerly direction along the rear of properties forming the North side of Custom House Street, thence in a Southerly direction along Ladysmith Street, thence in a Westerly direction along the rear of properties on the North side of Market Street to the North-Westmost point of the property known as Latheron Buildings, thence in a Southerly direction along the rear boundary of the said Latheron Buildings land, thence in an Easterly direction till it meets the boundary of a church, thence in a Southerly direction till it meets the rear boundary line between the properties in Seaforth Road and West Argyle Street, and thence along the said rear boundary line in a Westerly direction till it meets West Terrace, thence in a Southerly direction till it meets West Argyle Street, thence along West Argyle Street in an Easterly direction till it meets West Lane, thence along West Lane in a Southerly direction, thence in a Westerly direction along the rear boundaries of properties in West Shore Street until it meets the line of the mean high water ordinary spring tides on the shore, thence in a Southerly direction and generally Eastern direction along the said lines, including the pier until it meets the point of commencement.

No. 6: PORTMAHOMACK:

The area of some 15.5 acres or 6.3 hectares comprises almost the whole of the village of Portmahomack, including the Harbour area, commencing at a point on the high water mark of ordinary spring tides situated opposite the centre point of the lane at Gaza, the said lane being on the south west side of the Post Office, Portmahomack, and running in a south easterly direction from the Main Street, Portmahomack to the land known as Gaza, thence from the said point on the said high water mark up the middle line of the said lane three hundred and seventy three feet or thereby, thence in a north easterly direction along the back garden boundaries of the properties known as Sunnyvale, Gowanbank and Woodbine Cottage (now derelict) for a distance of one hundred and eighty feet or thereby, thence in a north westerly direction along a line parallel to the gable end of Morven Cottage a distance of two hundred and eighty feet or thereby, thence in an easterly direction to the south west corner of Brae Cottage, Castle Street, Portmahomack a distance of two hundred and forty feet or thereby, thence in a north easterly direction to the most easterly point in the rear garden of the said Brae Cottage a distance of one hundred feet or thereby, thence in a north westerly direction along the rear boundaries of properties in Castle Street, to the most easterly point of the derelict property in Castle Street owned by Mrs Mackie Scott and Mr James Adamson, three hundred and twenty eight feet or thereby, thence in a north easterly direction a distance of one hundred feet or thereby to the most easterly point of the property in Chapelhill belonging to David Mackay, thence in a northerly direction along the rear boundaries of properties in Chapel Street six hundred and fifty feet or thereby to the north easterly point of the property known as Newton House, thence in a westerly direction to the southmost boundary of the property Tighbhan a distance of two hundred and fifty feet or thereby, thence in a northerly direction to a point being the gable end of a caravan store one hundred and seventy eight feet or thereby, thence in a westerly direction until a point on the high water mark of ordinary spring tides is reached a distance of one hundred and ninety feet or thereby, thence generally in a southerly direction along the said high water mark and including the harbour until the point on the said high water mark first mentioned is reached.

No. 7: MILTON:

The area of some 14.5 acres or 5.87 hectares comprises the whole of the built-up area of Milton, together with the belt of trees some 50 metres wide and 600 metres long running from the road junction East of Kildary Station via the eastern side of the village to the Eastern boundary of the local authority housing; the area also includes the two blocks of council houses nearest to the village green at its South-Western end.

No. 8: FORTROSE:

The area of some 33.1 acres or 13.3 hectares comprises the Cathedral Square and stretches Southwards to take in the area around the harbour. Commencing at the South-East point of the harbour, thence in a Northerly direction until it reaches the high water mark on the shore, thence in an Easterly direction following the line of the high water mark to a point below St. Andrew's Church, thence in an Easterly direction along the Eastern boundary of the Churchyard and along the rear of properties in Rose Street to the boundary of the last house in Rose Street, thence in a North-Westerly direction along the boundary of the said house to Rose Street, thence in a North-Easterly direction along Rose Street, thence in a North-Westerly direction along the rear boundaries of the properties on the North side of Castle Street until it meets High Street, thence in a South-Westerly direction along High Street for approximately 30 metres, thence in a Westerly direction along the rear boundaries of properties in Rotten Row for approximately 40 metres, thence in a South-Westerly direction following the rear of certain properties in High Street and going up and crossing Station Road and crossing Precincts Road to a point 150 metres West of Precincts Road, thence in a South-Easterly direction to Canonbury Terrace, thence in a Westerly direction from Canonbury Terrace to where it meets the parliamentary burgh boundary, thence in a South-Westerly direction to the high water mark on the shore and along it in an Easterly direction including the harbour to the point of commencement.

No. 9: ROSEMARKIE:

The area of some 23.8 acres or 9.6 hectares comprises the historic High Street, Rosemarkie, with peripheral areas including the sea front below the Royal Marine Hotel. Commencing at the high water mark of ordinary spring tides at the point opposite Hawkhill Road, Rosemarkie, thence in a Northerly direction along the said high water mark to where the Rosemarkie burn joins the sea, thence in a Westerly direction up the Rosemarkie burn to a point 50 metres East of the roadbridge, thence generally in a Southerly direction to the South-Westmost point of the old school at the head of Gowanbrae thence in an Easterly direction along Gowanbrae to the Rosemarkie/Fortrose road, thence Southwards along the said road for a distance of 30 metres, thence Eastwards along the rear boundaries of properties fronting Gowanbrae, thence Northwards to the junction of the High Street with Hawkhill Road, thence Eastwards along Hawkhill Road to the point of commencement.

THE ROADS (SCOTLAND) ACT 1970

NOTICE is hereby given that The County Council of the County of Selkirk, the highway authority under the Roads (Scotland) Act 1970, proposes to make an order under section 12 of the said Act stopping up the road described in the Schedule hereto. The title of the order is the County of Selkirk (Galashiels-Peebles Road A.72) (Stopping Up) Order 1973.

A copy of the order and of the plan referred to therein showing the road may be inspected at the office of The County Clerk, Bank of Scotland Buildings, Market Place, Selkirk without payment of fee, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Mondays to Fridays.

Any person may, within 28 days from the date of first publication of this notice, object to the making of the order by notice in writing to the Secretary, Scottish Development Department, 43 Jeffrey Street, Edinburgh, EH1 1DL stating the grounds of objection. A copy of any objection lodged should be sent to the highway authority at P.O. Box 6, Selkirk, TD7 4BU.

Section 12(4)(b) of the Act provides that if no objection to the order is made to the Secretary of State within the aforesaid period of 28 days the local highway authority may confirm the order.

Dated 22nd December 1972.

W. T. DUNDAS, County Clerk.

SCHEDULE

That section of the Galashiels-Peebles Road A.72 in the County of Selkirk commencing at a point immediately south-west of the entrance to Caddon Mill, Clovenfords, and terminating at the junction of the said road with the Selkirk-Peebles Road A.707, at The Nest by Clovenfords.