—(2) The Interpretation Act 1889 applies for the interpretation of this Scheme as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament, and as if this Scheme and the Regulations and Schemes hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.

Application for and issue of money orders

4.—The following rules shall apply to applications for and the issue of ordinary money orders:—

(1) Application for the order shall be made on the prescribed form.

(2) The remitter shall give all such information as to his own name and address, the name and address of the payee, and the office at which the order is to be made payable, as the Post Office may direct.

(3) No inland money order will be issued as an ordinary money order.

(4) No overseas money order for an amount exceeding £50 or such lesser sum as may be specified in the relative money order arrangement may be applied for.

(5) No money order for an amount including a fractional part of a penny may be applied for.

(6) The amount for which a money order is to be issued, and the fee payable in respect of the order shall be prepaid.

(7) When an overseas money order is applied for, there shall be issued to the remitter a certificate showing the amount received for remittance and that the fee has been paid in respect of the order.

(8) Every person requiring an overseas money order payable in any country or place outside the Scheduled Territories shall make and sign on the prescribed form a declaration stating the purpose for which such overseas money order is required; and the amount shall not be advised abroad for payment unless the Post Office Money Order Office of Exchange confirm that it may be remitted.

5.—The rules in paragraph 4 (except rules (3) and (7)) and the following rules shall apply to applications for telegraph money orders:—

(1) No telegraph money order for an amount exceeding £50 may be applied for.

(2) The remitter shall write across the face of the form of application the words “by telegraph”.

(3) The remitter shall indicate on the said form whether the money order is to be delivered to the payee at the payee's address, or is to be called for at the office of payment.

(4) Except in the case of a letter telegram authorising the payment of an overseas money order, the money order telegram authorising payment at the office of payment shall, if the remitter so requires and at his expense, be repeated from office to office to ensure accuracy.

(5) There may be added to the money order telegram authorising payment a private communication from the remitter, the charges for which shall be prepaid by the remitter. The remitter may also prepay the charges for a telegraphic reply to such communication.

(6) In addition to the money order fee, the remitter shall prepay the charges for the money order telegram authorising payment at the office of payment.

(7) A certificate shall be issued to the remitter showing the amount received from him for remittance, and the fee and charges paid in respect thereof.

(8) The charges referred to in rules (5) and (6) of this paragraph shall be those payable under the relevant scheme or schemes made with respect to telegram service under section 28 of the Post Office Act 1969.

Correction or alteration of money orders

6.—(1) After the issue of a certificate pursuant to sub-paragraph (7) of paragraph 4 or sub-paragraph (7) of paragraph 5, the remitter may ask for any correction in his own name and address, and any alteration in the name and address of the payee, that he thinks fit.

—(2) Any such request by the remitter shall be made by notice in writing to the postmaster of the office at which application for the order was made and if the Post Office considers it practicable so to do, it will make such correction or alteration.

Crossing of money orders

7.—(1) An inland money order may be crossed generally by the addition on its face of the words “and Company” or any abbreviation thereof, between two parallel transverse lines, or of two parallel transverse lines simply, or it may be crossed specially by the addition on its face of the name of a banker, in which case the order shall be deemed to be crossed to that banker.

—(2) An inland money order which is crossed generally may be crossed specially.

—(3) A banker to whom an inland money order is crossed may again cross it specially to another banker as his agent for collection.

—(4) Where a money order is crossed generally, it shall not be paid except to a banker.

—(5) Where a money order is crossed specially it shall not be paid except to the banker to whom it is crossed or to his agent for collection.

—(6) Where a money order is crossed specially to more than one banker, except when crossed to an agent for the purpose of collection, payment thereof shall be refused.

—(7) The remitter of an overseas money order may require the order to be crossed for payment to a banker if the relative money order arrangement so provides.

Payment of money orders otherwise than to bankers

8.—The following rules shall apply to the payment of a money order otherwise than to a banker to whom it has been delivered for collection:—

(1) The order shall not be paid unless the receipt thereon is signed, or purports to be signed, by the payee or on his behalf.

(2) The paying officer may (if he thinks fit) before making payment require the person presenting the order to state the name of the remitter and to produce evidence to the satisfaction of that officer that the receipt is signed by or with the authority of the payee, and if the receipt is not signed in that officer's presence, that the person presenting the order is either the payee or his agent authorised in that behalf.

(3) If a money order presented for payment has any erasure or alteration, or is cut, defaced or mutilated, the postmaster may refuse payment.

(4) Payment of a money order will in all cases be subject to the possession by the postmaster at the office of payment of sufficient funds for the payment thereof.

(5) A postmaster may refuse or delay payment of a money order when it appears to him necessary to do so in cases other than those mentioned in these rules.

Payment of money orders to bankers

9.—The following rules shall apply to the payment of money orders to bankers:—

(1) Money order payable at a money order office in the United Kingdom may be presented for payment by a banker at the office of payment or at any other office at which the payment of money orders may from time to time be authorised by the Post Office.

(2) A money order presented by a banker to whom it has been delivered for collection may be paid notwithstanding that the receipt thereon has not been signed, if it has the name of the banker written or stamped upon the face thereof (whether by way of crossing or otherwise) or bears a code or device of that banker, being a code or device in terms and of a type, design and size, and in a position approved by the Post Office.

Transfer of payment

10.—(1) The Post Office may direct that any money order shall be payable at any post office other than the original office of payment.

—(2) The remitter or (in the case of an order not crossed for payment through a bank) the payee of an inland money order, or the remitter of an overseas money order, may request that the order shall be payable at any money order office other than the original office of payment.

—(3) In such cases as are mentioned in the preceding subparagraph, the remitter or the payee (as the case may be) shall give notice in the prescribed form to such office as the Post Office may direct, and shall send with the notice the certificate issued pursuant to subparagraph (7) of paragraph 4 or subparagraph (7) of paragraph 5, or the order (as the case may be).

—(4) Upon receipt of the notice and the certificate or order, the Post Office shall arrange for payment to be made if practicable at the office indicated in the notice, the sum payable being the original amount of the order less an amount equal to the fee thereon.

Stopping payment

11.—The remitter or payee of an inland money order or the remitter of an overseas money order may apply for stoppage of payment of that order and the Post Office will stop payment pursuant to such an application if it considers this practicable. The fee for stopping payment specified in Schedule 2 shall be paid on making the application which shall be made in writing to such officer as the Post Office may direct.

13.—(1) The Post Office may, if it thinks fit, at the request of the remitter of a money order made in accordance with the next following subparagraph, repay the amount of the order to the remitter.

Loss, destruction or mutilation of money order

14.—(1) Where the Post Office is satisfied that a money order has been lost, destroyed, cut, defaced or mutilated before payment, it may if it thinks fit, on the application of the remitter or of the payee, and subject to payment of the fee therefor specified in Schedule 2, stop the payment of such order and cause the amount of the order to be remitted and paid to the payee by such form of remittance as it thinks fit.

—(2) This supplemental service may be provided in respect of (a) inland money orders (b) overseas money orders (except where under the relative money order arrangement the instrument by which payment is effected to the payee is prepared by the government or postal administration of some place outside the United Kingdom.)

—(3) The said fee for this supplemental service may be paid by the remitter or the payee (as the case may be) on making the application; if not so paid the Post Office may deduct the amount of the said fee from the remittance to the payee.

Renewal of money orders

15.—(1) After the expiration of a period of 6 months after the last day of the month in which any money order payable in the United Kingdom was issued, the money order shall cease to be payable except on renewal in accordance with subparagraph (2).

—(2) On the application of the remitter or of the payee, and subject to payment of the renewal fee specified in Schedule 2, the Post Office will either pay the amount of the order to the payee or repay the amount thereof to the remitter, by such form of remittance as it considers suitable. The said renewal fee may be paid by the remitter or the payee (as the case may be) on making the application; if not so paid the Post Office may deduct the amount of the said fee from the said remittance.

—(3) A money order payable elsewhere than in the United Kingdom shall be subject, in respect of the period during which the order shall be payable, to the regulations governing payment of money orders in the country of payment.
