PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

BY THE QUEEN

A PROCLAMATION

ELIZABETH R.

Whereas by Section 1 of the Emergency Powers Act 1920, as amended by the Emergency Powers Act 1964, it is enacted that if it appears to us that there have occurred or are about to occur events of such a nature as to be calculated, by interfering with the supply and distribution of food, water, fuel or light, or with the means of locomotion, to deprive the community, or any substantial portion of the community, of the essentials of life, we may, by Proclamation, declare that a state of emergency exists:

And, whereas, on the 13th day of November 1973, we made, in pursuance of the said Act of 1920, as so amended, a Proclamation declaring that the present Industrial disputes affecting persons employed in the coal mines and in the electricity supply industry did, in our opinion, constitute a state of emergency within the meaning of that Act:

And whereas, by virtue of Section 1 of the said Act of 1920, a Proclamation issued in pursuance thereof does not remain in force for more than one month:

And whereas the continuance of the said Industrial disputes, the present Industrial dispute affecting persons employed on the railways and the reduction in oil supplies reaching Great Britain do, in our opinion, constitute a state of emergency within the meaning of the said Act of 1920:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of 1920, we do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby declare that a state of emergency exists.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace this twelfth day of December in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three, and in the twenty-second year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN

The definition of waste food is extended to comprise:—

- (a) meat, or any other part of the carcase of any livestock or poultry, or any product derived therefrom or hatchery waste, eggs or egg shells, or
- (b) broken or waste foodstuffs which contain or have been in contact with meat or any other part of the carcase of any livestock or poultry.

Meal manufactured from protein originating from livestock or poultry is, however, excluded from the definition of waste food.

The principal requirements of the order are:—

(1) A prohibition on the possession of waste food which has not been processed as required by the order on any premises for the purpose of feeding to livestock or poultry on those premises, unless a licence granted under article 7 of the order is held, or the feeding to livestock or poultry of waste food, or any feedingstuffs which have been in contact with waste food, unless such waste food or such feedingstuffs have first been processed by means of plant and equipment operated under a licence granted under article 7. (Article 3).

(These prohibitions do not, however, apply to the possession by any person of waste food originating from his own household, or to the use of such waste food provided it has first been processed as required by the order.)

(2) A complete prohibition is imposed upon the feeding to any animal, poultry or other birds of any waste food brought into Great Britain as part of the stores on a ship, aircraft etc. or of any other waste food which has been in contact with such imported stores. (Article 4).

(3) Restrictions are placed upon the movement of unprocessed waste food intended for livestock or poultry except onto premises in respect of which a licence is held under article 7 or article 8 (except in the case of waste food intended for manufacture into meal) and upon access to or contact with unprocessed waste food. (Articles 5 and 6).

Restrictions are also imposed in respect of movement of waste food by road, and as to the distribution of processed waste food. (Articles 9 and 10).

The Schedules to the order set out specifications for premises on which processing of waste food is licensed or on which unprocessed waste food may be collected for further distribution, and also operating conditions required at premises of both types.

Copies of the above-mentioned Order may be obtained from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 13a Castle Street, Edinburgh, EH2 3AZ, price 10½p.
