6th December 1974.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS

1. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England on Friday, the 13th December 1974, at 1 p.m. for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act 1877, and the National Loans Act 1968, to the amount of £250,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000, £10,000, £25,000, £50,000, £100,000 or £250,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 16th December 1974, to Friday the 20th December 1974, inclusive, and will be due 91 days after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being a multiple of one new half-penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. Notification will be sent on the same day as Tenders are received, to the persons whose Tenders are accepted in whole or in part. Payment in full of the amounts due in respect of such accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of cash or by draft or cheque drawn on the Bank of England not later than 1.30 p.m. on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

RATES OF INTEREST ON LOANS BY THE PUBLIC WORKS LOAN COMMISSIONERS TO LOCAL AUTHORITIES

NOTICE

THE Treasury hereby give notice that in accordance with the powers conferred upon them by the National Loans Act 1968 the following rates of interest shall be charged on loans made by the Public Works Loan Commissioners on and after 14th December 1974.

Loans to local authorities as defined in paragraph 1 of Schedule 4 to the said Act.

Period of Loan (years)	Lower Loans Repayable:		Percent per annum Higher Loans Repayable:
	By Instalments	At Maturity	By Instalments	At Maturity
Up to 5 years	13	13½	14½	14½
Over 5 but not over 10 years	13½	16½	15½	16½
Over 10 but not over 15 years	15½	17	16	17½
Over 15 but not over 25 years	16½	17½	16½	17½
Over 25 years	17½	17½	17½	17½

The amount which an authority borrows within its annual quota as determined by the said Commissioners will bear interest at the appropriate rate in the lower set of rates. Where authorities borrow further sums these will attract interest in the higher set of rates, unless the said Commissioners agree that they should be offset against the following year's quota. Different rates of interest apply according to whether the principal of a loan is repaid by instalments or at maturity.

THE HEALTH AND SAFETY LICENSING APPEALS
(HEARINGS PROCEDURE) RULES 1974

NOTICE is hereby given that the Lord Chancellor (on 3rd December 1974) made the Health and Safety Licensing Appeals (Hearings Procedure) Rules 1974, coming into operation 1st January 1975, under powers contained in the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974.

Section 44 of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 gives a right of appeal to the Secretary of State to persons aggrieved by decisions of an authority having power to issue licences (other than agricultural licences and nuclear site licences) under Part I of that Act or under the Acts specified in Schedule 1 to that Act. That section also provides that before the determination of an appeal the Secretary of State shall, if either the appellant or the licensing authority expresses a wish to appear and be heard, afford to both of them an opportunity of so doing.

These Rules prescribe the procedure to be followed in connection with hearings held in England and Wales on such appeals.

THE HEALTH AND SAFETY LICENSING APPEALS
(HEARINGS PROCEDURE) (SCOTLAND) RULES 1974

NOTICE is hereby given that the Lord Advocate on 6th December 1974 made the Health and Safety Licensing Appeals (Hearings Procedure) (Scotland) Rules 1974, coming into operation 1st January 1975, under powers contained in the Health and Safety at Work etc. 1974.

Section 44 of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 gives a right of appeal to the Secretary of State to persons aggrieved by decisions of an authority having power to issue licences (other than agricultural licences and nuclear site licences) under Part I of that Act or under the Acts specified in Schedule 1 to that Act. That section also provides that before the determination of an appeal the Secretary of State shall, if either the appellant or the licensing authority expresses a wish to appear and be heard, afford to both of them an opportunity of so doing.

These Rules prescribe the procedure to be followed in connection with hearings held in Scotland on such appeals.

POST OFFICE
SCHEME P9/1974

NOTE: The Scheme which follows this note has been made under Section 28 of the Post Office Act 1969 and amends the Post Office Inland Post Scheme 1972. The Scheme, which will come into operation on 30th December 1974, makes amendments to the provisions relating to undeliverable postal packets except parcels. (This note is not part of the Scheme)

THE POST OFFICE INLAND POST AMENDMENT (No. 6)
SCHEME 1974

Made 12th November 1974
Coming into Operation 30th December 1974

The Post Office, by virtue of the powers conferred upon it by section 28 of the Post Office Act 1969, and all other powers enabling it in this behalf, hereby makes the following Scheme:

Commencement, citation and interpretation

1.—(1) This Scheme shall come into operation on 30th December 1974 and may be cited as the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 6) Scheme 1974.

(2) This Scheme shall be read as one with the Post Office Inland Post Scheme 1972 (Post Office Scheme P7/1972) (hereinafter called "the Scheme") as amended by the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 1) Scheme 1973 (Post Office Scheme P1/1973), the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 2) Scheme 1973 (Post Office Scheme P10/1973), the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 3) Scheme 1973 (Post Office Scheme P11/1973), the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 4) Scheme 1973 (Post Office Scheme P12/1973) and the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 5A) Scheme 1974 (Post Office Scheme P5A/1974).

(3) The Interpretation Act 1889 applies for the interpretation of this Scheme as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if this Scheme were an Act of Parliament.

Undeliverable postal packets (except parcels)

2.—(1) For paragraph 16 of the Scheme there shall be substituted the following:

"16.—(1) In the case of any postal packet (other than (i) a parcel, (ii) a letter accepted for transmission as a second class letter under paragraph 35 of the Scheme or (iii) a current registered newspaper) which for any reason cannot be delivered, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) where the name and address of the sender appear legibly on the outside of the packet, the packet shall be returned to the sender unopened, but subject to payment of any charges to which it has become liable;
- (b) where the name and address of the sender do not appear on the outside of the packet or are illegible, the packet shall be opened by any officer of the Post Office duly authorised in that behalf and if the packet is found to contain or consist wholly or partly of anything other than commercial advertising matter, newspapers or magazines, then if the name and address of the sender can be ascertained, the packet shall be returned to the sender, subject to payment of any charges to which it has become liable;
- (c) if the packet has been opened by an officer of the Post Office in pursuance of sub-paragraph (1)(b) of this paragraph and the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained, or it is found to contain or consist of nothing except commercial advertising matter, newspapers or magazines, it may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Post Office may think fit.

(2) In the case of (i) a letter accepted for transmission as a second class letter under paragraph 35 of the Scheme or (ii) a postal packet which is a current registered newspaper, being in either case a packet which for any reason cannot be delivered, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) where the name and address of the sender appear legibly on the outside of the packet, the packet shall be returned to the sender unopened, subject to payment of any charges to which it has become liable.
- (b) where the name and address of the sender do not appear on the outside of the packet or are illegible, the packet may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Post Office may think fit.

(3) If a packet shall be tendered to the sender under the provisions of this paragraph and he refuses or fails to pay any charges to which the packet has become liable, the packet may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Post Office may think fit."

(2) The following shall be added to paragraph 22 of the Scheme as substituted by the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 4) Scheme 1973:

"(5) The name and address of the sender shall appear legibly on the outside of all current registered newspapers (or if enclosed in a cover or envelope on the outside of such cover or envelope) intended for transmission by post under this paragraph where the sender wishes the current registered newspaper to be returned to him as provided in paragraph 16(2) of the Scheme as substituted by this Scheme".

(3) The following shall be inserted immediately after paragraph 35(2) of the Scheme:

"(2A) The name and address of the sender shall appear legibly on the outside of all letters intended for transmission by post under this paragraph where the sender wishes the letter to be returned to him as provided in paragraph 16(2) of the Scheme as substituted by this Scheme".

Dated 12th November 1974.

Signed on behalf of the Post Office by V. A. Huckerby (a person authorised by the Post Office to act in that behalf).

CONSERVATION AREAS

No. 2 — TAIN

The area of some 22.8 acres; 9.2 hectares comprises the historic town centre of Tain and some of the adjoining residential areas. Commencing at the Southern corner of the area, the boundary extends in a north westerly direction along Stafford Street to Cadboll Place, thence in a westerly direction along the rear of properties on the south side of Queen Street to Scotsburn Road. From Scotsburn Road the boundary continues along Manse Street and thence turns in a north easterly direction down Quarry Lane, across Tower Street to Chapel Street. Thence along Chapel Street to Castle Brae, Castle Street and Cramond Brae, continuing in a south easterly direction along Kirksheaf Road to a point (NH 783581196) whence it turns in a south westerly direction and crosses Ankerville Street to run along the rear of properties on the south east side of Knockbreck Street to Stafford Street.

No. 10 — DINGWALL CENTRAL AREA

The area extending to some 16 acres or 6.5 hectares comprises most of the High Street area of Dingwall together with Church Street and the Parish Church, commencing at a point being the Northmost point of the graveyard of the Parish Church, thence in a Southerly direction along the wall bordering Tulloch Street and around the Eastern boundary of the Tulloch Street car park and across to the North-Eastmost corner of the building known as the church meeting hall, thence in a Southerly direction to a point at the rear end of the boundary between 2 and 3 George Street, thence in an Easterly direction to Harpers Court and around the rear of the offices of the 'North Star', thence along the North East boundary of the grounds of the Castle Street Church of Scotland to Castle Street, thence in a Northerly direction along the centre of the said Street for some fifty feet, thence in an Easterly direction along the South-East boundary of the grounds of the properties Hedgefield, Brantswood and Morven to Achany Road, thence in a Southerly direction along the west edge of the said road to a point opposite the boundary between the grounds of the properties known as Causeway and Carnaby, thence along the said boundary and around the rear of the grounds of the property Carnaby to Ferry Road, thence Westwards along the said road to the junction with Station Road, thence in a Southerly direction along the said road to the South boundary of the grounds of the Free Church of Scotland, thence in a generally Westerly direction along this said boundary, across Park Street and alongside the North boundary of the grounds of the property known as Mossford to the rear boundary of the grounds of the property known as Glencathra, thence Northwards along this boundary and the boundary of the grounds of the property 20 Hill Street, thence along the North boundary of the said property to Hill Street, thence in a Southerly direction for some one hundred and ten feet along the East side of the said Street to a point opposite the boundary between 2 and 3 Hill Street, thence generally Westwards for five hundred and twenty feet or thereby to the South-Westmost corner of the building 17 High Street, thence around the Southern end of Inchvannie Court and Northwards along the West side of the buildings in Inchvannie Court for some one hundred feet, thence in a Westerly direction to the South-Eastmost point of the building 30 High Street, thence Southwards for some fifty feet to a point in line with the boundary between 7 and 8 Nicols Court, thence in a Westerly direction for some one hundred and forty feet, thence in a Northerly direction for thirty feet or thereby thence Westwards to the South Westmost corner of the building known as Donati's Restaurant, thence along the West side of the said building, thence in an Easterly direction to a point opposite the boundary of the buildings used by Woolworths and the Central Fish Bar, thence Northwards along this said boundary, round the rear of the cinema and in a Westerly direction to Church Street at the North-Eastmost point of the building 12 Church Street, thence in a generally Northerly direction along the West side of the said Street to the wall of the graveyard of the Parish Church, thence along the boundary wall of the Churchyard to the point of commencement.

No. 11 — SHIELDAIG

The area extending to some 15 acres (6 hectares) includes practically the whole of Shildaig Village. The western boundary follows the High Water Mark for the whole length of the village before turning in an easterly direction to include the Primary School and the adjacent house. The boundary then follows the school boundary to the southern corner where it branches off in a southerly direction and follows the road to the boundary of the Church of Scotland property. It then follows the boundary to the rear of the Church until it joins a track which it then follows to a point just past the property known as Tigh na Eilean and then runs in a south-easterly direction behind the group of properties at the south of the village and rejoins the shore at the field boundary almost midway between the two jetties.

ACTS 1947/72

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (DEVELOPMENT PLAN) (SCOTLAND) REGULATIONS 1966

AMENDMENT TO THE COUNTY OF STIRLING
DEVELOPMENT PLAN

MILTON MILL, WHINS OF MILTON

NOTICE is hereby given that proposals for amendment to the above Development Plan (hereinafter referred to as "the proposals") were submitted to the Secretary of State for Scotland on Friday, 29th day of November 1974.

The proposals relate to the allocation of land at Milton Mill, Whins of Milton, for residential development and public open space and rezoning a small area presently allocated for public open space to residential zoning.

A certified copy of the proposals as submitted has been deposited for inspection by the public at the County Offices, Viewforth, Stirling, (Room 15).

A certified copy of the proposals has also been deposited for inspection at the District Council Offices in Bannockburn.

Each copy of the proposals so deposited is available for inspection by the public, free of charge, at the places mentioned above between the hours of 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. from Monday to Friday inclusive each week for 6 weeks from date hereon.

Any objections or representation with reference to the proposals must be made in writing to the Secretary of State before 24th January 1975.

The objection or representation must state the grounds on which it is made and should be addressed to The Secretary, Scottish Development Department, St. Andrew's House, Regent Road, Edinburgh EH1 3DE. Any person making such an objection or representation may, by sending to the County Clerk, County Offices, Viewforth, Stirling, a request in writing specifying therein an address for service, require the County Clerk to serve him with a notice of the eventual amendment to the Development Plan.

Dated this 29th day of November 1974.

JAMES D. KENNEDY,
Clerk to the Local Planning Authority.

THE CITY OF DUNDEE (WEST BELL STREET MULTI-STOREY CAR PARK) ORDER 1975,
(AMENDED NOTICE)

1. NOTICE is hereby given that the Corporation of the City of Dundee proposed to make an Order under Section 31(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1967 as amended by Part IX of the Transport Act 1968.

2. The purpose of the proposed Order is to regulate and control the use of the car park building erected upon ground lying on the north side of West Bell Street in the City of Dundee and known as "the West Bell Street Multi-Storey Car Park".

3. When this Order comes into effect any vehicle which complies with the description set out in the Schedule appended hereto may be left in the said Car Park at any time on payment at entry of a charge of 10p (Sundays free); but subject to alteration of such operating times and charges by the Corporation at any time without prior intimation to the public.

4. Exceptions will permit waiting in the Car Park without charge:—

- for Police, Fire Brigade, Ambulance and certain local authority purposes;
- for purposes of the supply of gas, electricity, water or telephone services;
- by Disabled Person's Vehicles which comply with the description set out in the Schedule appended hereto, provided that such vehicles are at all times left wholly within a marked stall.

5. Full details of these proposals are in the draft Order which, together with the relevant map and a statement of the Corporation's reasons for proposing to make the Order, may be examined at the office of the undersigned at City Chambers, City Square, Dundee, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Mondays to Fridays inclusive.

6. Any person wishing to object to the proposed Order should send details of the grounds for objections in writing to the undersigned by Friday, 3rd January 1975.

COUNTY COUNCIL OF THE COUNTY OF ROXBURGH
CIVIC AMENITIES ACT 1967

JEDBURGH TOWN CENTRE CONSERVATION AREA

NOTICE is hereby given, that the County Council of the County of Roxburgh as Local Planning Authority have designated part of Jedburgh Town Centre, in the County of Roxburgh, a Conservation Area. Copies of the designation Order and of the relative map showing the Conservation Area may be seen at the County Clerk's Office.

The County Council have determined that the planning policy with regard to Jedburgh Town Centre Conservation Area will be as follows:—

- (a) The demolition of all buildings other than listed buildings, excepted buildings within the meaning of Section 56(2) of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1972 and those buildings excepted by the direction of the Secretary of State, will now be under the direct control of the Local Planning Authority. Anyone wishing to demolish a building or part of a building within the Conservation Area must first apply to the Planning Authority for listed building consent. This application may be made separately or as part of the application for planning permission to redevelop the site. Demolition consent will be granted as part of planning permission only where the permission specifically states that it is included and such consent will only be given where acceptable and detailed redevelopment plans are submitted. Additional buildings or addition to existing buildings will only be permitted where they will make an appropriate contribution to the character and appearance of the Town Centre.
- (b) Planning permission in outline form will not normally be given for building development within the Conservation Area and detailed plans including elevations of the new development its setting and particulars of colour, materials and preservation of existing trees where applicable will be required.
- (c) Planning consent for the display of advertisements will not generally be granted. Advertisements of the classes specified in the Town and Country Planning Control of Advertisements (Scotland) Regulations 1960 dealing with "advertisements the display of which may be undertaken without express consent" will be considered by the Local Planning Authority against the background of its "right to challenge" such advertisements contained in these Regulations.
