COUNTY COUNCIL OF THE COUNTY OF LANARK
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (SCOTLAND)
ACTS 1947-1972

CENTRAL INDUSTRIAL AREA PART DEVELOPMENT PLAN

AMENDMENT ORDER (No. 6) 1974
AMENDMENT AT BELLSHILL

NOTICE is hereby given that, on the 2nd day of December 1974, the Secretary of State amended the above Development Plan. A certified copy of the Development Plan as amended by the Secretary of State, has been deposited at the County Planning Department, County Buildings, Hamilton, and at the Area Office, Bellshill.

Each copy of the amended Development Plan so deposited is available for inspection by the public, free of charge, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Mondays to Thursdays inclusive and 9 a.m. and 4.30 p.m. on Fridays.

The amendment of the Development Plan becomes operative as from the 13th day of December 1974, but if any person aggrieved by the amendment desires to question the validity thereof, or of any provision contained therein, on the ground that it is not within the powers of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Acts 1947-1972, or on the ground that any requirements of those Acts or any regulation made thereunder has not been complied with in relation to the making of the amendment, he may, within six weeks from the 13th day of December 1974, make application to the Court of Session.

Dated this 5th day of December 1974.

JOHN FRASER,
Clerk to the Local Planning Authority.
County Buildings, Hamilton.

CONSERVATION AREAS

No. 2 — TAIN

The area of some 22.8 acres; 9.2 hectares comprises the historic town centre of Tain and some of the adjoining residential areas. Commencing at the Southern corner of the area, the boundary extends in a north westerly direction along Stafford Street to Cadboll Place, thence in a westerly direction along the rear of properties on the south side of Queen Street to Scotsburn Road. From Scotsburn Road the boundary continues along Manse Street and thence turns in a north easterly direction down Quarry Lane, across Tower Street to Chapel Street. Thence along Chapel Street to Castle Brae, Castle Street and Cramond Brae, continuing in a south easterly direction along Kirksheaf Road to a point (NH 783581196) whence it turns in a south westerly direction and crosses Ankerville Street to run along the rear of properties on the south east side of Knockbreck Street to Stafford Street.

No. 10 — DINGWALL CENTRAL AREA

The area extending to some 16 acres or 6.5 hectares comprises most of the High Street area of Dingwall together with Church Street and the Parish Church, commencing at a point being the Northmost point of the graveyard of the Parish Church, thence in a Southerly direction along the wall bordering Tulloch Street and around the Eastern boundary of the Tulloch Street car park and across to the North-Eastmost corner of the building known as the church meeting hall, thence in a Southerly direction to a point at the rear end of the boundary between 2 and 3 George Street, thence in an Easterly direction to Harpers Court and around the rear of the offices of the 'North Star', thence along the North East boundary of the grounds of the Castle Street Church of Scotland to Castle Street, thence in a Northerly direction along the centre of the said Street for some fifty feet, thence in an Easterly direction along the South-East boundary of the grounds of the properties Hedgefield, Brantswood and Morven to Achany Road, thence in a Southerly direction along the west edge of the said road to a point opposite the boundary between the grounds of the properties known as Causeway and Carnaby, thence along the said boundary and around the rear of the grounds of the property Carnaby to Ferry Road, thence Westwards along the said road to the junction with Station Road, thence in a Southerly direction along the said road to the South boundary of the grounds of the Free Church of Scotland, thence in a generally Westerly direction along this said boundary, across Park Street and alongside the North boundary of the grounds of the property known as Mossford to the rear boundary of the grounds of the property known as Glencathra, thence Northwards along this boundary and the boundary of the grounds of the property 20 Hill Street, thence along the North boundary of the said property to Hill Street, thence in a Southerly direction for some one hundred and ten feet along the East side of the said Street to a point opposite the boundary between 2 and 3 Hill Street, thence generally Westwards for five hundred and twenty feet or thereby to the South-Westmost corner of the building 17 High Street, thence around the Southern end of Inchvannie Court and Northwards along the West side of the buildings in Inchvannie Court for some one hundred feet, thence in a Westerly direction to the South-Eastmost point of the building 30 High Street, thence Southwards for some fifty feet to a point in line with the boundary between 7 and 8 Nicols Court, thence in a Westerly direction for some one hundred and forty feet, thence in a Northerly direction for thirty feet or thereby thence Westwards to the South Westmost corner of the building known as Donati's Restaurant, thence along the West side of the said building, thence in an Easterly direction to a point opposite the boundary of the buildings used by Woolworths and the Central Fish Bar, thence Northwards along this said boundary, round the rear of the cinema and in a Westerly direction to Church Street at the North-Eastmost point of the building 12 Church Street, thence in a generally Northerly direction along the West side of the said Street to the wall of the graveyard of the Parish Church, thence along the boundary wall of the Churchyard to the point of commencement.

No. 11 — SHIELDAIG

The area extending to some 15 acres (6 hectares) includes practically the whole of Shildaig Village. The western boundary follows the High Water Mark for the whole length of the village before turning in an easterly direction to include the Primary School and the adjacent house. The boundary then follows the school boundary to the southern corner where it branches off in a southerly direction and follows the road to the boundary of the Church of Scotland property. It then follows the boundary to the rear of the Church until it joins a track which it then follows to a point just past the property known as Tigh na Eilean and then runs in a south-easterly direction behind the group of properties at the south of the village and rejoins the shore at the field boundary almost midway between the two jetties.
