SALE BY EXECUTION. SECOND PROCLAMATION.

BY authority obtained from his Excellency ROBERT GORDON, Esquire, Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the colony Berbice and its dependencies, Vice-Admiral and President in all courts and colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c. granted upon two petitions, the one presented by DOUGLAS, REID, & Co., inhabitants of this colony, versus PLANTATION BLOOMFIELD, and the other by J. T. and A. DOUGLAS of Glasgow, versus JOHN MACC. MACDONALD, both under date of 21st October 1811;

I, the under-signed First Marshal of the courts of this colony, shall expose and sell at public execution sale, in presence of two councillors commissaries, and their secretary, in the month of March 1813, (the precise day hereafter to be fixed and notified through the Gazette of this colony)

The above-mentioned cotton estate called Bloomfield, the property of said John MacC. MacDONALD, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, appurtenances, and dependencies thereto belonging; all conformable to an inventory formed thereof, and now lying at the Marshal's Office, for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Whoever should think to have any right, interest, or claim on the afore-mentioned estate or cotton plantation called Bloomfield, cum annexis, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such person or persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this colony, declaring his reason for such opposition, in due time and form; as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every one thereunto qualified, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the court, and further act therein according to style and law.

This second proclamation made known to the public, by beat of drum, from the court-house of this colony.

(Signed) K. FRANCKEN,
First Marshal.

Edinburgh, June 17, 1812.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN JAMIESON, Wright in Stirling.

UPON the 15th day of June last, William Cowan, junior, Spirit-Dealer in Stirling, was elected Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John Jamieson, and his election has been confirmed by the Court of Session. In terms of the statute, he hereby intimates to the Creditors, that the Sheriff of Stirlingshire has fixed Thursday the 16th, and Thursday the 30th days of July current, within the Town-house of Stirling, at 12 o'clock mid-day, for the public examination of the bankrupt, his family, and others acquainted with his business. The Trustee farther intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held, on Friday the 31st day of same month, at 12 o'clock mid-day, within the Coffeehouse of Stirling, for the purposes mentioned in the statute; and he hereby requires the Creditors to produce and lodge in his hands their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with their oaths on the verity thereof, at or previous to the said meeting; hereby certifying, that unless such productions are made betwixt and the 11th day of March next, being ten months from the date of the first delivrance on the petition for sequestration, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the bankrupt's estate.

Stirling, July 4, 1812.
