Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, JULY 7, TO FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1812.

WESTMINSTER—JULY 1, 1812.

This day the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, &c. &c. name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for declaring His Majesty's assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers, to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An act for raising the sum of twenty-two millions five hundred thousand pounds by way of annuities.

An act for granting an additional drawback on flint, phial, and crown glass; for charging an additional countervailing duty on flint and crown glass imported from Ireland; and for the better preventing of frauds in the exportation of glass on drawback.

An act for making allowances, in certain cases, to subaltern officers of the militia in Great Britain while disembodied.

An act to allow British plantation sugar and coffee, imported into Bermuda in British ships, to be exported to the territories of the United States of America in foreign ships or vessels, and to permit articles, the production of the said United States, to be imported into the said island in foreign ships or vessels.

An act for extending the period in which deeds were directed to be enrolled by an act of the fiftieth year of his present Majesty, for amending several acts for the redemption and sale of the land-tax.

An act to amend an act, made in the forty-ninth year of his Majesty, for providing a durable allowance of superannuation to the officers of Excise, under certain restrictions.

An act for transferring the Scotch Excise charity and superannuation funds to the consolidated fund, and paying all future allowances from the latter fund; and for making provision for certain superannuated officers of excise in England and Scotland.

And to several English acts and one private act.

THE following Address has been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.—

Unto his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Stipply of the County of Cromarty, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness to express our sorrow at the prolonged indisposition of your Royal Father, our most gracious Sovereign; but while we have thus, in the course of Providence, to deplore the suspension of regal authority in the person of his Majesty, we have to rejoice, that, since your Royal Highness has assumed the government; every act thereof has marked that firmness of conduct, and that discrimination of character, which assure us that the safety and prosperity of the empire are your primary concern, and that in your hands our invaluable rights and privileges, civil and sacred, will continue to be maintained.

We feel impelled in a particular manner to offer our sincere and sympathetic condolence to your Royal Highness on the late horrible assassination committed within the precincts of Parliament, on that upright and truly estimable person the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, whose public and private virtues seemed to vie with each other, and whose loss to the nation as a statesman, in the present important crisis, must be severely felt. Assured that your Royal Highness will, during your temporary government, follow the manly and consistent example of your Royal Father, we earnestly pray that after, in the course of Providence, you assume the full exercise thereof, you may long reign over a free and happy people, and transmit unimpaired to your family our enviable constitution, both in church and state.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Cromarty, this 10th day of June 1812 years, by DONALD MACKENZIE, Preses.

CROWN-OFFICE—JULY 3, 1812.

Member returned to serve in this present Parliament. Borough of Colchester—Hart Davis, Esq. in the room of Richard Hart Davis, Esq. who has accepted the office of Steward of his Majesty's manor of East Hended.
