STIRLING DISTRICT COUNCIL
ASHFIELD CONSERVATION AREA

ON 15th December 1976 Stirling District Council designated as a conservation area the Village of Ashfield. The conservation area consists of all those properties and associated land lying between the strip of woodland along the western bank of the Allan Water and the Stirling/Perth railway line with the addition of the block of housing known as The Clachan on the eastern side of the said railway and the footbridge and rough ground at the southern end of the village. A plan of the conservation area can be inspected at the office of the Director of Planning, Municipal Buildings, Stirling or at the Municipal Buildings, Dunblane.

The effects of designation are:—

- (1) No building in the conservation area may be demolished without the consent of the planning authority (apart from a few excepted cases, details of which can be obtained from the undersigned), and
- (2) All trees in the conservation area are to be regarded as though they were protected by a tree preservation order and may not be lopped, topped, felled or removed without the consent of the planning authority (apart from a few excepted cases).

DONALD M. BOWIE,
Chief Executive Officer.

Municipal Buildings,
Stirling.

10th January 1977.

STIRLING DISTRICT COUNCIL
DEANSTON CONSERVATION AREA

ON 15th December 1976 Stirling District Council designated as a conservation area the Village of Deanston. The conservation area consists of the Deanston Distillery and most of the associated housing and land which lies between the River Teith on the north and the B.8032 road on the south. The local authority housing at Leny Road and Keltie Place is not included within the conservation area. A plan of the conservation area can be inspected at the office of the Director of Planning, Municipal Buildings, Stirling or at the Municipal Buildings, Dunblane.

The effects of designation are:—

- (1) No building in the conservation area may be demolished without the consent of the planning authority (apart from a few excepted cases, details of which can be obtained from the undersigned), and
- (2) All trees in the conservation area are to be regarded as though they were protected by a tree preservation order and may not be lopped, topped, felled or removed without the consent of the planning authority (apart from a few excepted cases).

DONALD M. BOWIE,
Chief Executive Officer.

Municipal Buildings,
Stirling.
