NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

The NEW BALGONIE IRON COMPANY in Fife. NOTICE is hereby given, that at a very full meeting of the Creditors of the said Company, held at Plasterers Inn on the 28th of December, called by repeated advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette, and other papers, for the purpose of taking into consideration an offer of payment made by Thomas Lewis, one of the partners of the company, at a meeting of the Creditors held upon the 27th November last, the meeting unanimously agreed to accept of the offer of payment on the terms proposed by Mr Lewis, with this alteration, that instead of the bills being drawn upon and accepted by London bankers, they should be drawn by Mr Lewis upon and accepted by a gentleman in London of most undoubted credit; and the meeting appointed the Trustee to intimate their resolution in the Edinburgh Gazette, for the information of any Creditors who may not have attended said meeting, or who may not yet have lodged their claims.

It is particularly requested, that any persons, Creditors of the said Company, will immediately lodge their claims with Mr Joseph Outram, merchant in Leith, the Trustee, or with Mr Walter Cook, W. S. Edinburgh; notifying at same their concurrence with the other Creditors to accept of payment on the terms proposed by Mr Lewis.
