

- (3) There shall not be posted in, with, or in the same cover or envelope as, a current registered newspaper anything which would not be transmissible separately as such other than:
- (a) a supplement which is part of that newspaper;
 - (b) not more than three advertising inserts each comprising a single sheet of paper or card of advertising matter and consisting wholly or in part of a card which is a preferred letter or a preferred envelope (but not a folder unless it is made to be sealed down along all edges), intended to be used to order or enquire by post about the goods or services advertised. The card or envelope must bear the correct postal address, including the post-code of the advertiser:
- Provided that:
- (i) the supplement and advertising inserts must be the same in each copy of an issue of a current registered newspaper despatched to addresses in the United Kingdom;
 - (ii) the total area of the supplement and advertising inserts together must not exceed the total area of the pages of a copy of the issue of the newspaper with which they are despatched.
- (4) No current registered newspaper, and no cover or envelope in which it is enclosed, shall bear anything (not being part of the newspaper) except:
- (a) the names, addresses and descriptions of the sender and addressee with index or reference numbers and letters;
 - (b) the words "With compliments", "Specimen copy" or "Voucher copy";
 - (c) the title of the newspaper, and a reference to its registration for transmission by post; and
 - (d) a reference to any page of or place in the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed.
- (5) The name and address of the sender shall appear legibly on the outside of all current registered newspapers (or if enclosed in a cover or envelope on the outside of such cover or envelope) intended for transmission by post under this paragraph where the sender wishes the current registered newspaper to be returned to him as provided in paragraph 16(2).

Parcels

- 23.—(1) All parcels intended to be transmitted by post shall be posted: (a) by being handed in at a post office to an officer of the Post Office on duty at the counter, on the days and within the hours during which such office shall be open to the public for the posting of parcels, or (b) (in circumstances in which the Post Office permits that mode of posting) by being handed to an officer of the Post Office for the time being authorised to receive parcels for the post otherwise than at a post office.
- (2) Every parcel shall be packed in such a manner as in the opinion of the Post Office is calculated to preserve the contents from loss or damage in the post and to prevent any tampering with its contents.

Articles for the blind

- 24.—(1) In this Scheme the expression "articles for the blind" means:
- (i) Books and papers (including letters to or from blind persons) impressed or otherwise prepared for use of the blind;
 - (ii) Paper posted to any person for the purpose of being so impressed or prepared;
- and the following articles specially adapted for the use of the blind:

 - (iv) Machines, frames and attachments for making impressions for the use of the blind;
 - (v) Pencil writing frames and attachments;
 - (vi) Braille boards and metal pegs therefor;
 - (vii) De Braille instructional devices;
 - (viii) Games (including card games);
 - (ix) Mathematical appliances and attachments;
 - (x) Voice records on discs, film, tape or wire of readings from books, journals, newspapers, periodicals or other similar printed publications, and apparatus designed to play such records;
 - (xi) Metal plates impressed, or posted for the purpose of being impressed, for the use of the blind;
 - (xii) Wrappers and labels for use on postal packets for the blind—bulk supplies;
 - (xiii) Braille watches, clocks, and timers;
 - (xiv) Tools, aids and precision instruments;
 - (xv) Rules and measures;
 - (xvi) Sectional or collapsible walking sticks;
 - (xvii) Harness for guide dogs.
- (2) The following provisions shall apply to postal packets consisting of articles for the blind:
- (a) Every packet shall bear on the outside thereof the inscription "Articles for the blind" and the written or printed name and address of the sender;
 - (b) Every packet shall be subject to examination in the post.
 - (c) Every packet shall be posted either without a cover or in a cover which can be easily removed for the purposes of examination.
 - (d) No packet shall contain any article which is not an article for the blind (except a label which may bear the name and address of the person to whom the packet is to be returned).
 - (e) No packet shall contain any communication or inscription either in writing or printing (except the title, date of publication or manufacture, serial number, names and addresses of printer, publisher or manufacturer, price and table of contents of the book or paper, and any key to or instructions for the use of the special type or of any enclosed article).
 - (f) Articles (viii) to (xvii) (inclusive) mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) may be sent only to blind persons by such institutions as have entered into special arrangements to the satisfaction of the Post Office with regard to the transmission of such articles, or to such institutions by blind persons.

Unaddressed packets

- 25.—(1) Subject to the following sub-paragraphs, unaddressed packets may be sent in a consignment for general delivery within an area in respect of which the unaddressed packet delivery service is available.
- (2) The number of unaddressed packets in each consignment shall be such as the Post Office shall require, having regard to the number of delivery points in the delivery area.
