MONOPOLY REFERENCE: CAR PARTS

THE Director General of Fair Trading, in exercise of his powers under Sections 10(3) and (4), 47(1) and (2), 49(1) and 50(1) of the Fair Trading Act 1973 hereby refers to the Monopolies and Mergers Commission the matter of the existence or the possible existence of a complex monopoly situation in relation to the wholesale supply of motor car parts in the United Kingdom.

The Commission shall investigate and report on the questions whether a monopoly situation exists by virtue of Section 6(1)(c) of the said Act in relation to such supply, and, if so:—

- (a) in favour of what person or persons that monopoly situation exists;
- (b) whether any steps (by way of uncompetitive practices or otherwise) are being taken by that person or those persons for the purpose of exploiting or maintaining the monopoly situation and, if so, by what uncompetitive practices or in what other way; and
- (c) whether any action or omission on the part of that person or those persons is attributable to the existence of the monopoly situation and, if so, what action or omission and in what way it is so attributable; and
- (d) whether any facts found by the Commission in pursuance of their investigations under the preceding provisions of this paragraph operate or may be expected to operate against the public interest.

The Commission shall, in investigating and reporting upon the question whether a monopoly situation exists by virtue of Section 6(1)(c) of the said Act limit their consideration to the practice whereby suppliers of reference goods require persons to whom they supply reference goods to acquire those goods exclusively from them or from sources approved by them, and shall include consideration of that practice whether the requirement of exclusivity relates to:—

- (a) all car parts
- (b) any particular type or types of car part, or
- (c) car parts for any particular brand or brands of motor car.

The Commission shall report upon this reference within a period of 12 months from the date hereof.

SANDRA BOWRIE,
Director General of Fair Trading.
