SALE OF LANDS.

ELPHINSTONE, IN EAST-LOTHIAN.

To be Sold, by Public Roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse in Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 1st day of September next, at two o'clock afternoon.

THE following parts of the Estate of ELPHINSTONE, lying in the parish of Tranent and county of Haddington.

Lot 1st, Those parts thereof now called ELPHINSTONE TOWER FARM, possessed by Mr. Arnot, being the western portion of the estate, bounded on the east by the road leading from Musselburgh by Harviesburn, Pantrygate, and the west end of Elphinstone village, to Belllyford, containing about 314 acres, Scots measure, under a 19 years lease, current from Martinmas 1808, at the rent of 1031l. 17s. sterling.

Lot 2d, Those parts of the farm of BUXLEY possessed by Mr. Guild, lying on the east side of the road leading from Tranent to Ormiston, being the eastern extremity of the estate, and containing about 131 Scots acres, the lease of which expires at Martinmas first 1813.

These lands are very desirably situated at short distances from the towns of Dalkeith, Musselburgh, Tranent, and Ormiston. Each lot lies compactly together. The lands are all subdivided and inclosed, and the soil adapted for modern husbandry. They are in the vicinity of Cousland and Spinnelsford lime-works. There is a going coal on the adjoining part of Elphinstone estate; and valuable seams of coal are understood to lie under both lots, but which, and the right of working it, is to be reserved during the currency of an existing lease of the coal under the whole estate. The former mansion-house of the estate stands on Lot 1st, with a substantial court of farm-offices, great part of which is newly erected; and adjacent is the ancient Tower of Elphinstone, from which there is a delightful and one of the most extensive prospects in Scotland. On Lot 2d there is also a very substantial farm-steading.

Lot 1st is held blench of the Crown, and affords a freehold qualification, being separately valued in the cess-books at 657l. 14s. 5d.

Lot 2d is held of a subject superior for payment of 1s. 6d. of feu-duty, to which sum also the entry of singular successors will be taxed.

The public burdens attached to each lot are moderate, and the lands will be warranted from any farther augmentation of minister's stipend. The parish-church was built within these few years, and the manse, school-houses, &c. lately repaired.

Messrs Arnot and Guild, the tenants, will point out the boundaries of the lots respectively possessed by them; and for farther particulars apply to Alexander Dallas, W. S. Edinburgh, with whom are the articles of roup and plan of the estate, &c.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

The deceased ALEXANDER MACGHEE of Airds. THE Estate of Airds and Airdie, in the stewarty of Kirkcudbright, which belonged to the said Alexander MacGhie, having been brought to judicial sale by his Creditors, it was purchased in 1784 by John Livingston of Grobdale, and an interim division among the Creditors was soon afterwards authorized by the Court; but certain capitals having been retained in order to pay annuities, no final scheme of division of the price was made till July 1796; by which time Mr Livingston, the purchaser, had died, leaving his only son, Andrew Livingston, in minority. It is understood that the late Mr Livingston, or the guardians of his son, paid to all the Creditors their dividends both in the first and final division, except those due to the following persons, viz.

First and Second Dividends.

Gilbert Livingston at Gatehouse.

Second Dividends.

Captain George Mackie at Carletown.

Andrew Livingston at Chapleyarn, Crossmichael. Alexander MacMillan, sometime in Drumpail, afterwards at Quarter.

James Gordon of Glassock.

Mary Kerr, relict of Gilbert Gordon, at Glenhapple; and James MacNae in Creetown.

Mr Livingston has taken some pains to discover these persons, or their representatives, but without effect. Being desirous of getting his father's bond of caution for the price delivered up, and the estate exonerated, he sometime ago presented a petition to the Court of Session for authority to consign in the Bank of Scotland the dividends due to the persons above mentioned. That petition was remitted to Lord BALGONY, Ordinary; and his Lordship has prepared an interlocutor, which will be reported to the Court in November next; and his Lordship has approved of intimation of these proceedings being given to all concerned by advertisements in the newspapers. In the meantime, so as an opportunity may be afforded to the persons above mentioned, or their representatives, and to any of the other Creditors who were ranked on the said Alexander MacGhie's estate, and have not received payment of their dividends, if any such there be, to appear and receive the dividends due to them; for which purpose they may apply to Thomas Darling, solicitor, Supreme Courts, Edinburgh, the agent in the proceedings for the exoneration.
