

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, AUGUST 24, TO FRIDAY, AUGUST 27, 1813.

The following Address has been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To his Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT,

The Humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Greenock.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Greenock, in Common Council assembled, beg to offer ourselves, with all possible respect, to your Royal Highness's consideration.

Yet, in presuming to do so, we humbly conceive we shall best denote that regard which we entertain for your Royal Highness, as well as discharge our own duty, by expressing our deep concern at the continued indisposition of our excellent Sovereign.

None of his Majesty's faithful subjects can more ardently wish his Majesty's recovery than we do, and our fervent prayers ascend to the Almighty, that his grace may bestow every alleviation to suffering which excites such genuine regret.

Since we last had an opportunity of addressing your Royal Highness, events of the most acknowledged importance to the welfare of our country, and the glory of its character, have, under the Divine favour, followed in close succession.

We had scarcely contemplated the trophies which were won in conjunction with our Allies in Portugal and Spain, when we beheld the providential and memorable discomfiture of our bitterest enemy on the plains of Russia; displaying to the world the successful energy of a brave and spirited people, against the aggression of a powerful invader.

Amidst circumstances so greatly entitled to cherish the happiness, and to call for the gratitude and applause of the nation, we must hasten to present to your Royal Highness our warmest congratulations on the splendid achievement of the battle of Vittoria;—not more remarkable for the signal defeat of the French, than the valour of his Majesty's arms, and the consummate ability of his illustrious commander, the Field-Marshal the Marquess of Wellington.

The result presages an issue of the most beneficial effects to the British empire.

So much good your Royal Highness's mind can well and justly appreciate; and we trust the period is not remote, when, after a contest of unexampled bearings, this country shall safely enjoy the solid blessings of peace and repose.

We cannot be insensible to the wisdom of Parliament, so conspicuous in the recent session, in having adopted a system of finance which, while it is formed to meet the greatest exigencies, judiciously and considerably lightens the pressure of present taxation.

The enlightened arrangements so rationally brought forward, and independently supported by his Majesty's ministers, for the future management of the affairs of India, which have happily received the sanction of the legislature, are alike calculated to improve the moral, political, and commercial state of that immense portion of the British empire, and to promote our home interests and resources.

They eminently mark, in our apprehension, the sound policy and superior discernment of the age in which we live.

We rejoice at every occasion which permits us to testify our unceasing veneration for our constitution, our strongest attachment to our government, and our sincere loyalty to the royal family.

Signed in our name, and in our presence, by our appointment, by the Chief Magistrate, and sealed with the Corporation Seal, at Greenock, this 13th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1813.

HUGH CRAUFURD.

[Transmitted by Hugh Craufurd, Esq. and presented by Lord Sidmouth.]
