DEPARTMENT FOR NATIONAL SAVINGS

SAVE AS YOU EARN; EXTENSION TERMS FOR THE THIRD ISSUE (SERIES 1 AND 2)

THE Treasury hereby given notice in accordance with paragraph 13 of the Save As You Earn Third Issue prospectuses issued by the Department for National Savings and dated 1st July 1975 and 1st April 1981 (hereinafter together called "the prospectus") that the following terms shall apply in respect of any contract issued under the prospectus which is repaid after the seventh anniversary of its starting date (hereinafter called "the seventh anniversary"). In this notice "index" and "month" and any reference to the index figure applicable to any month shall be construed in accordance with the prospectus.

1. The value of the contract on the seventh anniversary shall be calculated in accordance with the prospectus as if repayment had been made on that date and the total shall be rounded to the nearest penny. The value so calculated is hereinafter referred to as the capitalised value.
2. The total sum repayable in respect of the contract after the seventh anniversary shall never be less than the capitalised value.
3. If repayment is made in respect of the contract within the three months following the seventh anniversary the sum repayable shall be the capitalised value; if repayment is made at any time thereafter the capitalised value shall be index-linked for three months or the longest period for which the contract has been held since the seventh anniversary which is a multiple of three months. The index-linked capitalised value shall be calculated by multiplying the index figure applicable to the first month following the index-linked period by the capitalised value and dividing the product by the index figure applicable to the month in which the seventh anniversary fell.
4. If the index is revised to a new base on or after the seventh anniversary the last two sentences of paragraph 11 of the prospectus shall apply to the calculation under paragraph 3 of this notice mutatis mutandis.
5. Where a person has failed to pay a contribution under the prospectus on or before the due date and, as a consequence, the starting date and the seventh anniversary have been deemed to have been postponed under the prospectus the postponed dates shall have effect for the purposes of these extension terms.
6. The Treasury may revoke this notice or vary all or any of the terms contained herein by giving three months' notice in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes. Such revocation or variation may apply to all contracts started under the prospectuses or to such contracts as are specified in the notice but shall not in any event prejudice the right of a person holding a contract to have repaid to him the amount which was payable to him in respect of that contract immediately before the said revocation or variation.
