COMPETITION ACT 1980

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 3(2)(b)

BRITISH RAILWAYS BOARD

UNDER Section 3 of the Competition Act 1980 the Director General of Fair Trading is to investigate whether British Railways Board ("the Board") has been or is pursuing a course of conduct which may amount to an anti-competitive practice.

The matters to be investigated are the principles and practices applied by the Board for allocating facilities on Motorail, and the terms on which those facilities are made available.

The services concerned in the investigation are the services of carrying parcels for reward and transporting vehicles by rail, within the United Kingdom.

If you have any information which you consider would help the Director General please write to: Office of Fair Trading, Branch CP4, Chancery House, 53 Chancery Lane, London WC2A 1SP. Your letter should arrive as soon as possible if it is to be taken into account in the inquiry.

FORESTRY COMMISSION

THE Forestry Commissioners hereby give notice that they have made an Order under the Plant Health Act 1967 entitled The Restriction on Movement of Spruce Wood Order 1982.

This controls the movement of spruce wood with a diameter of 75 millimetres or more grown within the counties of Clwyd, Gloucestershire, Gwent, Hereford and Worcester, Mid Glamorgan, Powys, Shropshire and South Glamorgan and the Districts of Meirionnydd and South Staffordshire (article 3 and Schedule) by prohibiting its movement from and restricting its movement within those areas unless:—

a. The bark has been removed, or

b. a licence allowing such movement has been issued by an inspector authorised by the Forestry Commissioners subject to terms considered expedient for preventing the spread of the beetle Dendroctonus micans.

The beetle Dendroctonus micans is a non-indigenous pest which attacks spruce trees and its spread is controlled additionally by the Tree Pests (Great Britain) Order 1980. Articles 3(2) and 7 provide that movement of spruce wood specifically authorised by the 1980 Order shall not be prohibited under this Order, and vice versa.

This Order also empowers an inspector to serve notice requiring anyone reasonably suspected of being involved in the movement of any spruce wood in contravention of this Order to provide records and information relating to it (article 4(1)), to serve notice requiring treatment or destruction of any spruce wood so moved (article 4(2)), and to carry out treatment or destruction in default of compliance with a notice issued in accordance with article 4(2), costs of doing so being recoverable from the person on whom the notice was served (article 4(3)).

An inspector may enter and remain on premises at reasonable times in order to exercise his powers under the Order in company with such persons acting under his instructions and such equipment as he reasonably thinks necessary (article 4(4)).

First offences under this Order are punishable by fines of up to £100 and second and subsequent offences by fines of up to £200.

The Order will come into operation on 20th October 1982 and has been published as Statutory Instrument No. 1457.

Copies may be purchased at £1.25 net direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 13A Castle Street, Edinburgh, or from any bookseller.

- (a) Policy IND 4 to be added and Policy ENV 6 amended as follows:—

IND 4 The Chapel Farm site will continue in agricultural use until required for development as a site for a single industrial user.

ENV 6 Apart from the area covered by Policy IND 4, planning permission will be refused for development in rural areas unless specifically required in the interests of agriculture or forestry or some other essential rural activity.

- (b) Page 17 has been rewritten to emphasise the flexibility in the provision of private housing land should it be required during the time-scale of the Plan.

- (c) To accommodate proposed commercial development, the area defined as the Central Area on the Kirkcaldy Town Centre map has been amended to include the land located between the former Burleigh Street and the newly constructed extension of Nicol Street to the Esplanade.

Copies of the finalised Local Plan and of the proposed modifications are available for examination at Public Libraries and at the Town House, Kirkcaldy. Any objections to the proposed modifications should be made in writing and should indicate the matters to which the objection relates and the grounds on which it is made. Objections should be forwarded to the undermentioned in writing by 15th November 1982.
