KINCARDINE AND DEESIDE DISTRICT
TREE PRESERVATION ORDER NO. 2

NOTICE is hereby given that The Kincardine and Deeside District Council have made a Tree Preservation Order under the provisions of S.58 and S.59 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1972 as amended, with respect to individual trees growing in the area of land lying to the south of Bridge Street, bounded by the former railway to the south, and No. 24 Bridge Street to the west, in the former burgh of Banchory and County of Kincardine, specified in the Order and shown coloured on the map signed as relative thereto. The grounds on which the Order has been made are as follows:—

The trees which are the subjects of the Tree Preservation

Order are considered to have a high amenity value, since they form an important natural enclave in the centre of Banchory, in a built-up area where there is little opportunity for further tree planting. They include nine specimen trees, visible from prominent points in and around Banchory. The Order is accordingly necessary to prohibit the cutting down, topping, lopping or wilful destruction of said trees, without consent.

Certified copies of the Order including the said plan and grounds for making of the Order have been deposited for inspection by members of the public at:
