PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, TO FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1814.

WHITEHALL—FEBRUARY 1, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, having, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, in consideration of the distinguished zeal, courage, and intrepidity of Philip Bowes Vere Broke, Esq. Post Captain in the Royal Navy, and Commander of his Majesty's ship the Shannon, (particularly displayed by him in his recent brilliant engagement with the United States frigate Chesapeake, of superior force, off Boston, on the 1st day of June last, when, after a most severe, arduous, and decisive conflict, the enemy were compelled in the short space of fifteen minutes to surrender to his Majesty's ship), been pleased to advance the said Philip Bowes Vere Broke to the dignity of a Baronet of the United Kingdom, by letters patent under the great seal, bearing date the 2d day of November last; and his Royal Highness being desirous of conferring upon the said Sir Philip Bowes Vere Broke such a further mark of his Majesty's royal favour, as may, in an especial manner, evince the sense which he entertains of his able conduct and signal intrepidity, in personally boarding the enemy's ship at the head of his men, (on which occasion he was severely wounded), hath given and granted to him his Majesty's royal license and authority, that he and his descendants may, as a memorial of his highly distinguished conduct and gallantry, bear the crest of honourable augmentation following; that is to say, issuant from a naval crown, a dexter arm embowed, encircled by a wreath of laurel, the hand grasping a trident erect, together with the motto "Seuungue tridentis servamus;" provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and especial mark of his Majesty's favour, be registered in his College of Arms.

WILLIAM ATTWELL, Brush-Manufacturer in Glasgow, Trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said Paul and Muir, hereby intimates, that he has made up a state of the affairs of the bankrupts, which has been examined and audited by the Commissioners on the estate, and that he has also made up a scheme of division of the funds realized; which state and scheme will lie for the inspection of the Creditors, at the Trustee's shop, No. 27, King Street, until the 6th day of March next, when a first and final dividend will be paid to those Creditors of the bankrupts who have lodged their claims and proved their debts, in terms of the statute.

Glasgow, February 8, 1814.

ADJOURNED SALE OF BUXLEY.

UPSET PRICE REDUCED.

To be sold, by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse in Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 23d day of February 1814, at two o'clock after-noon.

THOSE parts of the farm of BUXLEY, part of Elphinstone, in the parish of Tranent and county of Haddington, lying on the east side of the road leading from Tranent to Ormiston, being the eastern extremity of the estate, and containing about 131 Scots acres, which will be out of lease at Martinmas first 1814.

These lands lie compactly together, are subdivided and inclosed, and the soil adapted for modern husbandry. They are at short distances from Dalkeith, Musselburgh, Tranent, and Ormiston, and in the vicinity of Spinnelsford and Cousland lime-works. There is a going coal in the adjoining part of Elphinstone estate, and valuable seams of coal are understood to lie under the lands themselves, but which, and the right of working it, is to be reserved during the currency of an existing lease of the coal under the whole estate. There is a substantial farm steading on the premises.

The lands are held of, subject superior, for payment of 1s. 6d. of feu-duty, to which sum also the entry of singular successors will be taxed. The public burdens are moderate, and the lands will be warranted from any farther augmentation of minister's stipend. The parish church was built within these few years, and the manse, schoolhouse, &c., lately repaired.

Mr Reddie, the tenant, will point out the boundaries, and for further particulars apply to John Innes and Alexander Dallas, W. S. Edinburgh, with whom are the articles of roup, and plan of the estate, &c.

January 20, 1814.
