THIRD NOTICE—SECOND TERM.

TO THE CREDITORS OF SIR WILLIAM JOHNSTON.

THAT in the process of Ranking and Sale raised and pursued before the Court of Session at the instance of JOHN BACON, Esquire, of Friernhouse, in the county of Middlesex, and JOHN FERRIER, writer to the signet, his attorney, against SIR WILLIAM JOHNSTON of Hilton, Baronet, and his Creditors, LORD PITMILLY, by an interlocutor of this date, assigned the 22d day of February next to the whole Creditors of the bankrupt to produce all their claims, rights, and diligences competent to them respectively against the bankrupt or his estate, and whole vouchers and instructions thereof, and that for the second term; with certification, that what writs shall not be produced shall be held as false and forged, as far as they may affect the bankrupt's estate, and the interests of the Creditors thereon, who have produced, or who shall produce, their rights and diligences affecting the same; and ordained intimation or notice thereof to be made to all parties concerned, by inserting the same in the Edinburgh Gazette once every week for three weeks successively after the date of said interlocutor: as also, assigned the said 22d day of February next to depone upon the verity of their respective debts; and for that end granted commission to the Sheriff-Deputes or Substitutes of the shires, or any of his Majesty's Justices of Peace in the bounds where the said Creditors reside or may be for the time, to take their oaths and depositions, any lawful day or days betwixt and the said 22d day of February next; and assigned said day for reporting to the Lord Ordinary; with certification, as set forth in the act of sederunt made thereanent.—In obedience to which interlocutor this notice is given, that the Creditors may lodge their grounds of debt in the hands of Mr Walter Lockhart, deputy-clerk of Session, and clerk to the said process.

Edinburgh, January 29, 1814.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES DUNLOP, late of Garnkirk.

ARCHIBALD WALLACE, Merchant in Glasgow, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of James Dunlop, late of Garnkirk, hereby intimates, that he has made up a state of the bankrupt's affairs to 23d December last, which lies open for the inspection of the Creditors, or their agents, at his counting-house, until Wednesday the 23d March, when a general meeting of the Creditors is to be held, at the Trustee's office, at 12 o'clock, to give such directions as they may judge proper, and when a dividend will be paid.

Queen Street, Glasgow, February 1814.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, London, January 26, 1814.

NOTICE is hereby given, for the information of the Masters and Pilots of his Majesty's Ships, and for the benefit of Navigation in general, that a Notification has been received at this office from the Corporation for Preserving and Improving the Port of Dublin, as follows.—"That on Thursday the 17th of March 1814, the LIGHT which has hitherto been exhibited on the elevated part of the Hill of Howth, in Dublin Bay, will be discontinued, and that, on the same day, it will be replaced by a LIGHT to be shewn in the New Light-House lately erected on the LITTLE BAILLY."

N. B. "The Little Bailly of Howth bears S. S. W. three quarters of a mile from the Old Light-House. The elevation of the Light from the sea 110 feet, and its bearings from the Headlands and Kish Light nearly the same as the Old Light-House."

J. W. CROKER.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

PETER M'ALESTER, Hardware-Merchant in Dumbarton.

UPON application of the Trustee, the Sheriff of Dumbartonshire has fixed Monday the 28th day of February current and Monday the 14th of March next, at one o'clock afternoon each day, for the examination of the bankrupt and those connected with his affairs, within the Sheriff-court house here; and the Trustee requests a meeting of the Creditors on Tuesday the 15th of March, at one o'clock afternoon, within the Elephant Inn, Dumbarton, to choose Commissioners and give him instructions; and the Creditors are required to lodge with him their claims and affidavits; with certification, that if this is not done against the 24th of October next, the Creditors so neglecting shall have no share of the first dividend of the funds.

Dumbarton, February 11, 1814.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ALLAN, KERR, & COMPANY, Manufacturers in Glasgow, and William Allan and Archibald Kerr, individual partners thereof.

A general meeting of the Creditors of Allan, Kerr, and Company, and William Allan and Archibald Kerr, individual partners, held at Glasgow on the 3d current, being the first lawful day after the public examination of the bankrupts, they made offer of a composition, which having been considered reasonable, the meeting entertained the same; and appointed another general meeting of the Creditors to be held on Thursday the 24th current, at one o'clock afternoon, within the writing office of Mr George Sinclair, writer in Glasgow, for the purpose of deciding on said offer.—Of all which notice is hereby given.

February 5, 1814.
