

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM FRIDAY, MAY 6, TO TUESDAY, MAY 10, 1814.

THE following Address has been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To his Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Greenock.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Greenock, in Common-Council assembled, participating in those feelings which must, at the present moment, be common to every loyal subject in Europe, beg to present ourselves to your Royal Highness.

Led, as we were, to place the greatest confidence in the wisdom of the councils of your Royal Highness, and the valour of his Majesty's arms, and appreciating, as we ought, the concurrence of the Allied Sovereigns of Europe, we looked forward with confidence to a favourable issue to the most important contest in which Europe was ever engaged; and we beg to present to your Royal Highness our sincere congratulations on the events which, under an all-ruling Providence, have delivered Europe from a tyranny equally baneful and unexampled in the annals of the civilized world; and we hail it as the harbinger of that peace and repose of which Europe stands in so great need. We prized it also, as a foundation not to be shaken, upon which the future liberties of Europe will stand secure.

Relying implicitly on the regard of your Royal Highness for the best interests of the British empire, and the wisdom of those councils in which your Royal Highness confides, we look forward to such arrangements as will place our commercial relations upon a footing at once to promote the prosperity and happiness of the empire.

We have borne, without murmur, the unprecedented burdens and privations which the contest we were engaged in called for; and from the issue of that contest we hope for relief.

Amidst our rejoicings in the prospect the present state of affairs presents, we cannot forbear expressing to your Royal Highness the deep regret we feel from the continued indisposition of our beloved Sovereign, for the alleviation of whose sufferings we cease not to offer our prayers:

Signed in name and on behalf of the said magistrates and council, by Allan Ker, Esq. Chief Magistrate of Greenock, and sealed with the Corporation Seal, at Greenock, the 19th day of April, in the year 1814, and of his Majesty's reign the 54th year.

ALAN KER.

[Transmitted by A. Ker, Esq. and presented by Lord Sidmouth.]
