

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, JUNE 21, TO FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 1814.

FOREIGN-OFFICE—JUNE 17, 1814.

This day Lord Viscount Castlereagh, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, exchanged with the Comte de la Chatre, duly authorized for that purpose by his Most Christian Majesty, his Royal Highness the Prince Regent's act of ratification on the part of his Majesty, of the Treaty of Peace, and of the additional articles thereunto annexed, concluded between his Majesty and his Most Christian Majesty, at Paris, on the 30th ultimo, against copies of the same duly ratified by his Most Christian Majesty Louis XVIII.

By his Royal Highness the PRINCE OF WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

Whereas a Definitive Treaty of Peace and Friendship between his Majesty and his Most Christian Majesty hath been concluded at Paris on the 30th day of May last; in conformity thereunto, we have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, hereby to command, that the same be published throughout all his Majesty's dominions; and we do declare to all his Majesty's loving subjects our will and pleasure, that the said Treaty of Peace and Friendship be observed inviolably, as well by sea as land, and in all places whatsoever; strictly charging and commanding all his Majesty's loving subjects to take notice hereof, and to conform themselves thereunto accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th day of June 1814, and in the 54th year of his Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

JUNE 18, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, to appoint Henry Unwin Addington, Esq. to be Secretary to his Majesty's Legation to the Confederated Swiss Cantons.

Price Sixpence Halfpenny.

By his Royal Highness the PRINCE OF WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For a Public Thanksgiving.

GEORGE, P. R.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God, in his great goodness, to put an end to the long, extended, and bloody warfare in which we were engaged against France and her Allies; we, therefore, adoring the Divine goodness, and duly considering, that the great and public blessings of peace do call for public and solemn acknowledgments, have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, and by and with the advice of his Majesty's privy council, to issue this proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, that a general thanksgiving to Almighty God for these his mercies, be observed throughout that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, upon Thursday the 7th day of July next; and we do strictly charge and command, that the said public thanksgiving be reverently and decently observed by all his Majesty's loving subjects in Scotland, on the said 7th day of July next, as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his wrath and indignation, and upon pain of such punishment as may be justly inflicted on all such as contemn or neglect the performance of so religious a duty: Our will and pleasure is, therefore, and we charge, that this our proclamation seen, ye pass to the market-cross of Edinburgh, and all other places needful, and there, in his Majesty's name and authority, make publication thereof, that none pretend ignorance: and our will and pleasure is, that his Majesty's solicitor do cause printed copies hereof to be sent to the sheriffs of the several shires, stewards of stewardries, and bailiffs of regalities, and their clerks, whom we ordain to see the same published; and we appoint them to send copies thereof to the several parish-churches within their bounds, that, upon the Lord's day immediately preceding the day above mentioned, the same may be published and read from the pulpits immediately after divine service.

Given at the Court at Carlton House, the 17th day of June 1814, in the 54th year of his Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE AVERAGE PRICE OF BROWN OR MUSCOVADO SUGAR.

Computed from the Returns made in the Week ending the 15th day of June 1814. Is Sixty-three Shillings and One Penny Farthing per Hundred Weight.

Exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon upon the importation thereof into Great Britain.

Day of Sale altered by authority of the Court, from Thursday the 7th inst. formerly advertised, to Friday the 8th of July next.

REDUCED, UPSET, PRICE. TO BE SOLD, IN CUMULO.

By public roup, within the Parliament or New Session-House, Edinburgh, in presence of the Lord Ordinary upon the Bills, on Friday the 8th July 1814, at six o'clock in the evening.

THE several LIFERENTS of the different locality lands belonging to the Right Honourable Isabella Countess Dowager of Glencairn, being part of the Lordship and Barony of Finlayston, lying in the parish of Kilmalcolm and county of Renfrew, on the banks of the Clyde, two miles distant from Port-Glasgow and five from Greenock, as formerly advertised, the yearly rents whereof is 806l. 16s. 9d. 2. 12ths. And by the calculus made up and deponed to by accountants, the total rise of rent expected upon the expiry of the several leases of certain of the farms of said lands is 183l. 13s. 2d. 10. 12ths. sterling; and that the calculated value of the current rents is in toto as at Martinmas last 6,935l. 6s. 8d., and the value of the said expected rise of rents on the expiry of certain of the said leases is 703l. 18s. 5d., so making the total value of the said liferents, present and reversionary, 7,639l. 5s. 1d.; which Liferents the Lords have appointed to be exposed at the very low reduced upset price of 3,500l., being little more than four years purchase of the present rental, at which rate the sum total of the liferents will yield upwards of 20 per cent., besides the expected rise of rents; an opportunity is thus given for competition, and a more advantageous investment seldom occurs.

The cess, minister's stipend, schoolmaster's salaries, and other public burdens, are payable by the tenants, except the farms of Blackstone and Broadfield, the tenants whereof are only bound to pay the whole cess, schoolmaster's salaries, and officers dues yearly.

The farms are all accommodated with farm steadings and good roads, and inclosed and subdivided with stone-dikes, and are generally of a dry gravelly soil, well fitted for green crops, and that most improved system of modern cultivation, viz. alternate aration and pasture.

The rental, title-deeds, and memorial and abstract of the prepared state, calculus of the different liferents of said farms, and articles of roup, are in the hands of Mr Elder, depute clerk of Session; and copies of these, and every information as to particulars, will be furnished by Thomas Peat, W. S. agent in the sale.
