NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF
GEORGE BIGGAR, Grocer at Crossmyloof.
DONALD M'INTYRE, Writer in Glasgow, Trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said George Biggar, requests a general meeting of the said Creditors in the office of Wilson and M'Intyre, writers in Glasgow, upon Wednesday the 3d day of May next, at two o'clock, in order to instruct him in matters of importance to the said estate.
Glasgow, April 12, 1815.

SETTLERS IN CANADA.

APPLICANTS in and about Glasgow, and in the West Country, will take notice, that the Commissioner in the Agency for Government will be at the George Inn, George's Square, on Wednesday morning the 19th day of April, and will remain but for a few days. He will there receive recommendations and certificates, which must be precisely in the terms mentioned in the conditions of the 22d February last, and the explanation of 24th March, which were published for some weeks, at these periods, in all the Newspapers in Scotland, and sent to every Clergyman. He will also receive the deposit money, viz. 16l. for persons above sixteen years of age, and two guineas for wives, &c. In the meantime, much trouble and correspondence will be saved if they will forward, without delay, to this office, their certificates and deposit, in cash, or bank or bankers bills indorsed; as all this must necessarily be arranged sometime before their embarkation, and to prevent disappointment in cases where applicants may be rejected.

Copies of the advertisements may be had at Mr Duncan's, printer to the University, Morrison's Court, Glasgow, or here.

The Requisites for Certificates are as follow:

- 1st, General Good Character.
- 2d, Occupation or Trade.
- 3d, Former Occupation, if changed.
- 4th, Whether Married, Unmarried, or Widowers.
- 5th, The number of Children, &c. who accompany them, distinguishing Male and Female.
- 6th, The Ages of all.

Recourse must be had to parish registers for proof of marriages and births; or where this cannot be obtained, other satisfactory evidence. Application may be made for this purpose to Magistrates, Clergymen, Dissenting Pastors, Elders of the Parish, Schoolmasters, or other respectable persons, with a reference to persons here or at Glasgow, when necessary.

Embarkation.

No notice to this date has yet been received from the transport board, who provide vessels, of their being ready in the Clyde. The time of embarkation, already published, is in April, and to proceed to Quebec as soon after as circumstances will permit. Notice will be given in the Newspapers whenever their arrival is known here, and that they are ready to receive the settlers. The ports of embarkation are Port-Glasgow or Greenock. Those who proceed from Glasgow or the eastward and neighbourhood, will be accommodated, free of expence, with small vessels, down the river.

The hours of attendance are from 9 to 11 in the morning, and from 6 to 9 in the evening. For those coming from the country, from 2 to 4 afternoon.

Edinburgh, April 7, 1815.

Abercromby Place.
