OFFICE OF FAIR TRADING
FAIR TRADING ACT 1973
REFERENCE TO THE MONOPOLIES AND MERGERS COMMISSION

Soluble Coffee

The Director General of Fair Trading in exercise of his powers under the sections 47(1), 49(1) and 50(1) of the Fair Trading Act 1973 hereby refers to the Monopolies and Mergers Commission the matter of the existence or the possible existence of a monopoly situation in relation to the supply of soluble coffee within the United Kingdom for retail sale.

The Commission shall investigate and report on the questions whether a monopoly situation exists in relation to such supply, and, if so:

- by virtue of which provisions of section 6 of the Act that monopoly situation is to be taken to exist;
- in favour of what person or persons that monopoly situation exists;
- whether any steps (by way of uncompetitive practices or otherwise) are being taken by that person or those persons for the purpose of exploiting or maintaining the monopoly situation and, if so, by what uncompetitive practices or in what other way;
- whether any action or omission on that part of that person or those persons is attributable to the existence of the monopoly situation, and if so, what action or omission and in what way it is so attributable; and
- whether any facts found by the Commission in pursuance of their investigations under the preceding provisions of this paragraph operate or may be expected to operate against the public interest.

The Commission shall report on this reference within a period of 9 months from the date hereof.

Gordon Borrie,
