THE Director General of Fair Trading in exercise of his powers under sections 47(1), 49(1) and 50(1) of the Fair Trading Act 1973 ("the Act") hereby refers to the Monopolies and Mergers Commission the matter of the existence or possible existence of a monopoly situation in relation to the supply within the United Kingdom of structural warranty services in relation to new homes.

The Commission shall investigate and report on the questions whether a monopoly situation exists in relation to such supply, and, if so:

- (a) by virtue of which provisions of section 6 to 8 of the Act that monopoly situation is to be taken to exist;

- (b) in favour of what person or persons that monopoly situation exists;
- (c) whether any steps (by way of uncompetitive practices or otherwise) are being taken by that person or those persons for the purpose of exploiting or maintaining the monopoly situation and, and if so, by what uncompetitive practices or in what other way;
- (d) whether any action or omission on the part of that person or those persons is attributable to the existence of the monopoly situation and, if so, what action or omission and in what way it is so attributable; and
- (e) whether any facts found by the Commission in pursuance of their investigations under the preceding provisions of this paragraph operate, or may be expected to operate, against the public interest.

In this reference:

"home" means any residential property but does not include any mobile dwellings; and

"structural warranty services" means services supplied by a person other than the builder or developer of property pursuant to a scheme under which the property is inspected and guaranteed against structural defects.

The Commission shall report on this reference by 14th December 1990.

Gordon Borrie,
Director General of Fair Trading.
