Conditions attaching to this Licence

CONDITIONS FOR THE IMPORTATION OF EQUIDAE
FROM THE REPUBLIC OF IRELAND -
LICENCE EAO/GEN/92/10

1. All landings of equidae must be in accordance with the provisions of the Importation of Equine Animals Order 1979, and with the following provisions of this licence.
2. Each animal must be identified either by
 - a. a properly completed silhouette contained in an identification document conforming to the model at Schedule 1 to this licence, or
 - b. a freeze brand or tattoo approved by a Breed Society or national organisation, or
 - c. an identification document issued by the breeding authority or any other competent authority which manages the studbook or register for that breed of animal, in the country where the animal originated or any international association or organisation which manages horses for competition or racing.
3. For non Registered horses only (see note 1) consignees must notify in writing, the local Divisional Veterinary Officer of The Scottish Office Agriculture and Fisheries Department, of their intention to import, and the anticipated date of arrival. Such notifications must arrive at least 24 hours in advance of the expected date of import.
4. The animal must be transported directly from the holding of origin or via an approved market (see note 2) to the holding of destination in a vehicle or container which has been regularly cleansed and disinfected, and constructed in such a way as to prevent the leakage of droppings, litter and fodder.
5. A veterinary inspector shall have the power to inspect an animal (and accompanying documentation) imported into Scotland from another Member State at the place of destination of the animal.
6. A veterinary inspector shall have the power to inspect an animal (and accompanying documentation) at any place and at any time if the Secretary of State has information leading him to suspect an infringement.
7. All consignees (other than those provided for in Conditions 8 and 9), before the consignment is unloaded and subsequently marketed, must:
 - check that the identification, as required under Community rules, is present;
 - notify the Divisional Veterinary Officer of any irregularity or anomaly;
8. Where an animal is consigned to an approved market or assembly centre the operator shall ensure that no animal is admitted unless it complies with Directive 90/426/EEC (as amended) (see note 2).
9. Where an animal is consigned to a slaughterhouse under the supervision of an official veterinarian, the latter shall ensure that no animal is slaughtered unless it complies with Directive 90/426/EEC as amended.

NOTES

1. Registered equidae are animals which in accordance with Commission Directive 90/427/EEC on the zootechnical and genealogical conditions governing intra-Community trade in equidae, are
 - a. entered or registered and eligible for entry in a studbook which has been approved by a competent authority of the Member State of origin of the animal, and
 - b. accompanied by an identification document (see condition 2 (c)).
2. An approved market must be approved by the competent authority of the Member State in which it is situated and in accordance with Article 7 (1) of Council Directive 90/426/EEC must be
 - a supervised by an official veterinarian;
 - b situated in the centre of an epizootic free area
 - c cleansed and disinfected after each use, and all equidae entering the market must fulfil the conditions laid down for intra-Community trade.

CAUTION

In the event of the conditions of this licence not being complied with, or there is suspicion of disease, the Secretary of State has power under the Importation of Equine Animals Order, 1979 to require the owner or representative to isolate, re-export or destroy the animal, at the expense of the owner or their representative.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO REVIEW STRUCTURE PLAN
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (SCOTLAND) ACT 1972

TAYSIDE STRUCTURE PLAN 1988

TAYSIDE REGIONAL COUNCIL intend to carry out a review of the above-named Structure Plan in respect of land in Tayside Region.

As a starting point the Regional Council has published a report entitled "Issues and Possibilities for the Review of the Tayside Structure Plan". The document considers recent trends, indicates the broad level of possible future change and presents options for accommodating and directing change.

Copies of the report are available for inspection at the Public Relations Office, Council Chambers (Ground Floor), Tayside House, Dundee, and at the branches of the public libraries throughout Tayside.

Copies of the report (£3.00 each) and a summary version (free of charge) may also be obtained on application to the Director of Planning, Tayside Regional Council, at the address given below.

Comments relating to the report or summary should be addressed to the Director of Planning at the address given below on or before Friday, 11th September 1992.

There will be further opportunities for consultation and comment as preparation of the Structure Plan Review progresses. Further information on the Structure Plan Review can be obtained from the Director of Planning.
