OFFICE OF FAIR TRADING
 FAIR TRADING ACT 1973

Variation of a reference to the Monopolies and Mergers Commission

The supply of private medical services

ON 8th September 1993 the Director General of Fair Trading ('the Director'), in exercise of his powers under sections 47(1) and (2), 49(1) and 50(1) of the Fair Trading Act 1973 ('the Act'), referred to the Monopolies and Mergers Commission the matter of the existence or possible existence of a monopoly situation in relation to the supply within the United Kingdom of private medical services.

In exercise of his power under section 52(1) of the Act, the Director hereby varies the said reference by substituting for the definition of 'medical services' in fourth paragraph of that reference the following.

'"medical services" means the provision by medical practitioners (within the meaning of subsection (1) of section 128 of the National Health Service Act 1977), who hold or have held appointments as consultants within the health service (within the meaning of that subsection), of medical or surgical advice or attendance and the performance of surgical operations.'
