

debts or expenses of the applicants in the event of a winding up.

Note 2

The description should enable the areas, location or premises concerned to be adequately and readily identified, by map if the applicant so desires or by any other convenient means. The following examples of descriptions that might be used are not exhaustive and are by way of illustration only: the area or premises might be identified by the name of the customer and/or postal address of the premises to be supplied; described by reference to a named street or road, town, city, village, parish, county or other accepted boundary, such as a Local Authority Area; or described by reference to certain other characteristics such as the type of premises of the maximum electrical demand to be met at those premises.

Note 3

(a) For premises already receiving electricity for a period in excess of 12 Months, whether from the applicant or anyone else, maximum demand shall be calculated as the average of the three highest monthly maximum demands in the preceeding 12 Months; or

(b) For premises not already receiving electricity, maximum demand shall be calculated as the average of the three highest monthly maximum demands which might reasonably be expected by the applicant to be supplied in the first 12 months of supply

In compliance with the Electricity (Applications for Licences and Extensions of Licences) Regulations 1990 map relevant to the above application are lodged with the regional offices of the office of Electricity Regulation and are available for inspection by the public between 10.00 and 16.00 on any working day.
