Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM FRIDAY, JUNE 14, TO TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 1816.

THE following Address has been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, humbly beg leave to approach the throne with dutiful congratulations upon the auspicious event of the marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales to his Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg. It is with the greatest satisfaction we anticipate the most happy national consequences from this connection, which we ardently hope may tend to insure to these realms a long succession of Monarchs of that illustrious line, under which so much individual happiness and national prosperity have been enjoyed by those whom Providence has placed under its favoured sway; and whilst we lament the severe indisposition of our beloved Sovereign, we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness of the dutiful attachment of, may it please your Royal Highness, his Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr.

Signed, in our name, and by our appointment, at Ayr, this 5th day of June 1816, by SIR HEW DALRYMPLE HAMILTON, Bart. Preses.
[Transmitted by Sir H. D. Hamilton, Bart. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth].

CARLTON-HOUSE—JUNE 8, 1816.

This day the Count de Beroldingen, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from his Majesty the King of Wurttemberg, had audience of his Royal Highness the Prince Regent to deliver his letter of recall; General De Neuffer, successor to the Count de Beroldingen in the same character, had also audience of his Royal Highness to deliver his credentials; to which they were respectively introduced by Lord Viscount Castlereagh, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

JUNE 9, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood on William Barton, Esq. Mayor of Liverpool, upon presenting an Address of congratulation on the marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte with his Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringuen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.
