OFFICE OF FAIR TRADING

THE SUPPLY OF UNDERWRITING SERVICES

Variation of monopoly reference by the Director General of Fair Trading

Whereas:

- (1) On 20th November 1997 the Director General of Fair Trading ("the Director General"), in exercise of his powers under sections 47(1), 49(1) and 50(1) of the Fair Trading Act 1973 ("the Act"), referred to the Monopolies and Mergers Commission the matter of the existence or possible existence of a monopoly situation in relation to the supply of underwriting services in the United Kingdom; and
- (2) in the reference "underwriting services" were defined as the undertaking and performance (whether by underwriters, sub-underwriters or brokers) of engagements, in respect of the offer of shares in a company on the Official List:-
 - (i) to take up shares comprised in the offer if the shares are not taken up by the persons to whom they are offered; or
 - (ii) to procure or arrange that another person undertakes such an engagement as is mention in (i) above;

Now therefore the Director General, in exercise of his power under section 52(1) of the Act, hereby varies the reference by substituting for the definition of "underwriting services" the following definition:

"underwriting services" means the undertaking and performance (whether by underwriters, sub-underwriters or brokers) of engagements, in respect of the offer of shares in the company which have been, or are the subject of an application to be, admitted to the Official List:-
