on A944 Lang Stracht, Aberdeen and in Surrounding Streets) Order 1998" under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

The effect of the order will be (1) to introduce bus lanes an certain parts of certain lengths of the A944 Lang Stracht, Aberdeen, (2) to introduce cycle tracks on certain parts of certain lengths of the A944 Lang Stracht, (sometimes, but not in all cases, a cycle track and a bus lane will exist side by side on the same length of road), (3) to introduce a prohibition of waiting at any time on certain lengths of the roads specified in the first schedule below, (4) to introduce a prohibition of waiting between 8.00am and 6.00pm on any day except Sundays an both sides of Springhill Road, Aberdeen, from 20 metres north of Lang Stracht northwards for 15 metres, (5) to introduce a one-way requirement on the length of road specified in Column 1 of the second schedule below, that no vehicle be driven on that length of road other than in the direction specified opposite in column 2 of that schedule, (6) to prohibit driving on any of the lengths of road defined in the third schedule below, except that, in the case of each length of road defined in that schedule, nothing shall prevent the driving of any vehicle of the category or type named by way of exemption in relation to that road in that schedule, (7) to prohibit U-turns on the A944, from 10 metres west of its junction with the C89C (Kingswells village perimeter road) westwards to a point 10 metres east of its junction with the B9119 and 131C, and (8) to prohibit any vehicle other than a bus from stopping on certain lengths of the A944 Lang Stracht, and also on part of Skye Road, at any time on any day.

The usual exemptions apply in relation to the waiting restrictions referred to in (3) and (4) above; ie exemptions for picking up and setting down passengers, loading or unloading, orange badge holders, and vehicles engaged in authorised roadworks being carried out on what would otherwise be a restricted kerbside. These exemptions do not apply in relation to other regulations mentioned above. Queries on any of these points should be directed to the numbers given below.

Full details of all the proposals are to be found in the draft order which, together with maps showing the intended measures and an accompanying statement of the Council's reasons for promoting them, may be examined during normal office hours on weekdays between Tuesday, 23rd June 1998 and Friday, 7th August 1998, in the offices of the Council's Roads Section at St. Nicholas House, Broad Street, Aberdeen.

Anyone wishing to discuss the order from a legal or procedural point of view should first of all call Mr David Wemyss in the Department of Legal and Corporate Services in the Town House - Tel 522523. Anyone wishing to discuss the strategic and traffic engineering aspects should call Miss Joanne Beveridge in the Roads section at 523475.

It is recommended that anyone visiting St. Nicholas House to view the documents should make an appointment to do so in order that a members of staff can be present to offer explanation where necessary. The order if finalised would contain plans which, in their preliminary form, allow for much easier comprehension than the verbal definitions given above. For this reason, members of the public with an interest in this matter are advised to make an appointment to view these plans.

Anyone wishing to object to the proposed order should send details of the grounds for objection in writing to the undersigned during the statutory objection period which also runs from 23rd June and 7th August, inclusive. Any objection should state (1) the name and address of the objector, (2) the matters to which it relates, and (a) the grounds on which it is being made.
