THE EUROPEAN UNION EXTRADITION REGULATIONS 2002

Notice is hereby given that the European Union Extradition Regulations 2002 (SI 2002 419) shall come into force on the 20th March 2002.

The United Kingdom

- (a) Declares that from that date the terms of the Convention on Simplified Extradition Procedure Between Member States of the European Union shall apply in its relations with Member States in respect of which that Convention is in force either generally or between the Member State in question and the United Kingdom subject to such reservations, declarations and statements as are set out in Schedules 2 and 4 to the above Regulations or are later notified in this Gazette; and

- (b) declares that from that date the terms of the Convention Relating to Extradition between Member States of the European Union shall apply in its relations with Member States in respect of which that Convention is in force either generally or between the Member State in question and the United Kingdom, subject to such reservations, declarations and statements as are set out in Schedules 6 and 8 to the above Regulations or are later notified in this Gazette.

Note

The 1995 Convention on Simplified Extradition Procedure comes into force 90 days after its ratification by the last Member State. Prior to that point, it can be applied between individual states, which have made the appropriate declaration under Article 16.3 of the convention. As at the 20th March 2002, the Convention has not come into force in its entirety but applies between the United Kingdom and the following states: Austria, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Greece, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Spain, Sweden and Portugal. The application of this Convention to the remaining states (Belgium, France and Italy) together with their respective reservations, declarations and statements will be notified in this Gazette.

The 1996 Convention Relating to Extradition between Member States of the European Union comes into force 90 days after notification by the last Member State that it has completed the constitutional procedures for the adoption of the Convention. Prior to that point, it can be applied between individual states which have made the appropriate declaration under Article 18.4 of the Convention. As at the 20th March 2002, the Convention has not come into force in its entirety but applies between the United Kingdom and the following states: Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Greece, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Spain, Sweden and Portugal. The application of this Convention to the remaining states (France and Italy) together with their respective reservations, declarations and statements will be notified in this Gazette.

Trust Deed for the Benefit of Creditors

Trust Deed for Creditors by

RICHARD DAVID AITKEN & JEAN MARIE AITKEN

A Trust Deed has been granted by Richard David Aitken and Jean Marie Aitken, residing at 103 Linnhe Crescent, Pather, Wishaw, ML2 0PH on 10th March 2002 conveying (to the extent specified in section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) their estate to me Graham Cameron Tough, CA MABRP, Martin Aitken & Co, 1 Royal Terrace, Glasgow G3 7NT as Trustee for the benefit of their creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected trust deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected trust deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected trust deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.
