Post and Telecom

Telecommunications

Notice Under Section 12(6a) of the Telecommunications Act 1984

MODIFICATIONS TO THE LICENCE OF

BRITISH TELECOMMUNICATIONS PLC

- On 22nd June 1984, the Secretary of State for Trade and Industry granted a licence (the "Licence") to British Telecommunications plc ("BT") under Section 7 of the Telecommunications Act 1984 (the "Act") for the running of telecommunications systems specified in Annex A to the Licence;
- On 29th July 2002, the Director General of Telecommunications (the "Director"), in exercise of the powers conferred on him by Sections 12 and 12A of the Act, with effect from the data set out in the instrument of modification, inserted a new condition 69B, modified condition 70 and deleted conditions 72 and 74 in the Licence;
- The effect of the above-mentioned modifications to BT's licence are therefore:
 - to set retail price controls (a control on a group of services - local, national and international calls, calls to mobiles, line rental, connection and operator assistance - focused on the bottom 80% of residential customers by expenditure set at the retail prices index less the retail prices index) for four years beginning on 1st August 2002 and ending on 31st July 2006;
 - to require BT to provide, or offer to provide, access to its public switched network so that service providers that wish to do so can offer basic telecommunications services to BT's retail customers;
 - to set starting charges and price control them thereafter for specified services that service providers will need to offer services to BT's retail customers;
 - to require BT to provide such services on non-discriminatory terms; and
 - to require BT to notify of proposed price changes to such services in advance of them actually taking place.
- In accordance with Section 12(6A) of the Act, the Director hereby give notice that his reasons for subjecting BT to price controls and requiring it to provide service providers with access to its public switched network is because BT has market power in the provision of basic services to retail customers and this is preventing full and effective competition to the detriment of retail competition.

TERMS OF REFERENCE - EXTENDED WARRANTIES FOR DOMESTIC ELECTRICAL GOODS

The Director General of Fair Trading in exercise of his powers under sections 47(1), 49(1) and 50(1) of the Fair Trading Act 1973 ('the Act') hereby refers to the Competition Commission the matter of the existence or possible existence of a monopoly situation in relation to the supply of extended warranties for domestic electrical goods within the United Kingdom.

The Commission shall investigate and report on the questions whether a monopoly situation exists and, if so:

- a) by virtue of which of the provisions of sections 6 to 8 of the said Act that monopoly situation is to be taken to exist;
- b) in favour of what person or persons that monopoly situation exists;
- c) whether any steps (by way of uncompetitive practices or otherwise) are being taken by that person or persons for the purpose of exploiting or maintaining the monopoly situation and, if so, by what uncompetitive practices or in what other way;
- d) whether any action or omission on the part of that person or persons is attributable to the existence of that monopoly situation and, if so, what action or omission and in what way it is so attributable; and,
- e) whether any facts found by the Commission in pursuance of their investigations under the preceding provisions of this paragraph operate or may be expected to operate against the public interest.

For the purposes of this reference:

'extended warranty' means a contract, whether backed by insurance or otherwise, which covers consumers within the meaning of section 137 of the Act for the cost of any repairs or replacements that may become necessary within a specified period beyond that covered by a manufacturer's, retailer's or importer's guarantee, and includes both contracts that provide cover during the period of the manufacturer's, retailer's or importer's guarantee, and contracts where cover commences after this period;

'domestic electrical goods' are products designed to be connected to an electricity supply or powered by batteries, and on which extended warranties are offered to consumers within the meaning of section 137 of the Act.

The Commission shall report on this reference within a period of 12 months from the date hereof.

Trust Deeds

Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985: Schedule 5, Paragraph 5(3)
Trust Deed for Creditors by

LORRAINE ADAMS

A Trust Deed has been granted by Lorraine Adams, residing at 54 Prestonfield Avenue, Kilwinning, Ayrshire KA13 6TT on 25th July 2002 conveying (to the extent specified in Section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her estate to me, Peter C Dean, PCD, Gresham Chambers, 45 West Nile Street, Glasgow G2 1PT, as Trustee for the benefit of her creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected trust deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985: Schedule 5, Paragraph 5(3)
Trust Deed for Creditors by

HELEN HAXTON

A Trust Deed has been granted by Helen Haxton, residing at 5 Margaret Avenue, Hags, Bonnybridge, FK4 1HT on 18th July 2002 conveying (to the extent specified in Section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her estate to me Blair Carnegie Nimmo, 24 Blythswood Square, Glasgow, G2 4QS as Trustee for the benefit of her creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected trust deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

Trust Deed for Creditors by

JANICE MURPHY

A Trust Deed has been granted by Janice Murphy, residing at 63 Fernhill Road, Rutherglen, Glasgow G73 4HP on 17th July 2002 conveying (to the extent specified in Section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her Estate to me, John Michael Hall, of BKR Haines Watts, Chartered Accountants, 65 Bath Street, Glasgow, G2 2DD as Trustee for the benefit of her creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected trust deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

A Trust Deed has been granted by Angela Walker, residing at 74 Ashton Road, Inverness IV2 3UX on 19th July 2002 conveying (to the extent specified in Section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her estate to me, Peter C Dean, PCD, Gresham Chambers, 45 West Nile Street, Glasgow G2 1PT, as Trustee for the benefit of her creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected trust deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

Trust Deeds for Creditors by

BRIAN YUILL & SHONA HELEN YUILL

Trust Deeds have been granted by Brian Yuill and Shona Helen Yuill, residing at 26 Carberry Court, Whitecraig, East Lothian, EH21 8PH on 17th July 2002 conveying (to the extent specified in Section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) their Estates to me, John Michael Hall, of BKR Haines Watts, Chartered Accountants, 9 Coates Crescent, Edinburgh, EH3 7AL, as Trustee for the benefit of their respective creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to either trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected trust deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: Each trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to each trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.
