

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM FRIDAY, MAY 29, TO TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 1818.

WESTMINSTER—MAY 23, 1818.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, for declaring his Majesty's Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers, to bear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An act to repeal the several bounties on the exportation of refined sugar from any part of the United Kingdom, and to allow other bounties in lieu thereof until the 5th day of July 1820, and for reducing the size of the packages in which refined sugar may be exported.

An act to alter the allowance for broken plate glass, and to exempt manufacturers of certain glass wares from penalties for not being licensed.

An act to permit the importation of certain articles into his Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or on the continent of South America, and also certain articles into certain ports in the West Indies.

An act to continue until the 5th day of July 1819, two acts made in the 54th and 56th years of his present Majesty's reign, for regulating the trade in spirits between Great Britain and Ireland reciprocally, and to amend the same.

An act for regulating the payment of fees for pardons under the great seal.

An act for preventing frivolous and vexatious actions of assault and battery and for slanderous words in courts.

An act to repeal an act made in the 56th year of his present Majesty's reign, for establishing the use of an hydrometer called Sikes's Hydrometer, in ascertaining the strength of spirits, instead of Clarke's Hydrometer, and for making other provisions in lieu thereof.

An act for better paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and improving the streets, lanes, and other public places and passages of the city of Aberdeen, and the roads and avenues within the freedom and royalty thereof, and for supplying the inhabitants of the said city with water.

An act for erecting and maintaining a harbour and works connected therewith in the bay of Portnessock, at Kirkmaiden, within the barony of Logan, in the county of Wigton.

An act for lighting the city and suburbs of Edinburgh and places adjacent with gas.

An act for more effectually converting into money the statute labour in the stewardry of Kirkcudbright, for repairing the highways, bridges, and ferries therein, and for making and maintaining certain turnpike roads within the said stewardry.

An act to alter and amend an act passed in the 43d year of his Majesty's reign, for raising a fund for making provision for the widows of the writers to his Majesty's signet in Scotland.

And to several English and Irish acts, and twelve private acts.
