of such other description as it considers appropriate; and the provisions of the relevant Scheme shall apply thereto accordingly.

14.2 Where any item is treated as a postal packet pursuant to section 14.1 and the amount of postage which was prepaid thereon is less than the amount which would have been prepayable thereon if it had been properly posted as a postal packet, there shall be payable by the addressee on the delivery of the postal packet (or if the postal packet is refused or cannot for any other reason be delivered, by the sender), the appropriate postage at the applicable rate and in addition such sum as Royal Mail may from time to time determine, less the amount of any postage prepaid.

14.3 Where the postage or any other sum chargeable for the transmission of an inland postal packet is required to be pre paid and it has not been, or insufficiently been prepaid by the sender, there shall be paid by the addressee on the delivery of the postal packet, or if the postal packet is refused or cannot for any other reason be delivered, by the sender such amount as Royal Mail may determine.

15.1.2 if the address to which the postal packet is to be delivered is not permanently occupied;

15.1.5 for any other reason, Royal Mail forms the opinion that it is impracticable or unreasonable to deliver the postal packet.

15.2 If an undeliverable postal packet has not been called for or re-delivery organised within the time limits advertised by Royal Mail then:

15.2.1 the postal packet shall be retained at, or forthwith forwarded to such place as Royal Mail may from time to time appoint and may if necessary, be there opened and examined.

15.4 Royal Mail will require proof to its satisfaction that a person claiming an undeliverable postal packet is entitled to receive it as (or as the duly appointed agent of) the sender or the addressee.

15.5 If a postal packet is retained under sub-section 15.2.3 and no claim is made within the period therein provided by any person who appears to Royal Mail to be entitled to receive it, or

15.5.1 the claimant refuses or fails to pay any such charge as is mentioned in sub-section 15.3, or

15.5.2 if a postal packet forwarded to the address of the sender pursuant to sub-section 15.2.2, is refused at that address or the sender or addressee (as the case may be) refuses or fails to pay any postage or additional postage payable thereon under this section, or any such charge as is mentioned in section 15, then the postal packet may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as Royal Mail may think fit.

15.6 Any postal packet in the possession of Royal Mail which becomes offensive or injurious to any officer of Royal Mail, or other person, or to other parcels, or which is likely from its character or condition to become offensive or injurious as aforesaid or to become valueless before it can be delivered or otherwise dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme, may forthwith be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as Royal Mail may think fit, notwithstanding that the provisions of this Scheme as to the return of such a postal packet have not been, or have only partially been, complied with.

25.1 Subject to the provisions of this Scheme a postal packet may be sent by the "Compensation Fee Parcel Service". This service may sometimes be advertised under the name "Standard Parcel with Enhanced Compensation".

25.2 The sender of the postal packet shall write on the prescribed form the name of the addressee and the address. When posting the postal packet, the person handing it over shall obtain evidence of posting on which the amount of the compensation fee paid is denoted in a manner provided in section 12.

25.3 In addition to the postage charged and payable thereon, there shall be charged and paid on any postal packet which the sender wishes to be dealt with under the Compensation Fee Parcel Service the Minimum Fee, or if the sender so elects one of the higher fees specified in Schedule 4.

25.4 The conditions set out in this Scheme for ordinary postal packets shall be complied with in addition to these conditions for the Compensation Fee Parcel Service.

25.5 The maximum amount of compensation that Royal Mail will pay if a Compensation Fee Parcel or its contents has been lost or damaged is the actual loss up to:

25.5.1 the cap of the market value of the postal packet at the date of posting, or

25.5.2 the amount of compensation purchased (see Schedule 4) whichever is the lesser sum.

25.6 The maximum amount of compensation which may be purchased and the fee payable for this service is set out in Schedule 4 of this Scheme.

25.7 Royal Mail may also refund postage under Schedule 8 of this Scheme.

25.8 If a postal packet has been redirected under Section 20 after delivery to the address no liability is accepted for loss or damage to the postal packet or its contents unless the postal packet has been redirected by being posted anew and full postage prepaid on such reposting together with a further compensation fee. In such a case liability will be accepted subject to the other provisions of the Act and Scheme having been complied with. The amount of compensation which may be paid for loss of or damage to the contents of the postal packet shall not exceed the amount of compensation purchased for either of the two journeys and may not be added together to increase the total amount of compensation as set out in Schedule 4.

25.9 Royal Mail may, if it thinks fit, refuse to accept a postal packet for transmission under the Compensation Fee Parcel Service.

25.10 All claims for compensation must be supported by evidence of posting, which must be provided to Royal Mail upon request, confirming that the Compensation Fee Parcel Service has been purchased and indicating the price paid and the amount of compensation purchased.

25.11 If the Standard Parcel service with enhanced compensation is used then the arrangements under Schedule 8 of this Scheme shall apply subject to all other relevant provision of this Scheme having been complied with.

26.3.1 the market value of the postal packet at the date of posting, or 26.3.2 one hundred times the value of a first class letter stamp at its first weight step, whichever is the lesser sum.

26.4. Royal Mail may also refund postage under Schedule 8 of the Scheme.

26.5 Royal Mail does not accept liability, and will not pay compensation, for a lost or damaged ordinary packet unless evidence of posting has been obtained at the time of posting and produced to Royal Mail upon request.

7 EVIDENCE REQUIRED IN SUPPORT OF A CLAIM FOR COMPENSATION.

7.1 All claims must include as a minimum the following "basic evidence":

- 7.1.1 the names and addresses of the sender, addressee and claimant,
- 7.1.2 the Royal Mail product used,
- 7.1.3 the postage paid and method of postage, e.g. stamps, franking impression, Smartstamp™,
- 7.1.4 the place of posting,
- 7.1.5 the date of posting,
- 7.1.6 a description of the contents,
- 7.1.7 the date of delivery (for damage and part loss claims only),
- 7.1.8 a description of the packaging and condition of the mail item itself (for damage and part loss claims only). and
- 7.1.9 the basis for asserting the posting details and product used, such as date of postmark, certificate of posting (if available) and for Recorded Signed for and Standard Parcels with enhanced compensation, the product documentation.

7.2 Claimants must retain all the packaging and contents of damaged items or items which are the subject of Part Loss claims as Royal Mail may need to inspect them. If they are not retained compensation payments will not be made.

7.3 Claims for items with an Intrinsic Value should be made on Royal Mail's then current loss and damage claim form. The claim form needs to be signed and dated by the claimant and supported by "additional evidence" (evidence of posting and evidence of value) to corroborate the amount claimed for Actual Loss. If additional evidence cannot be provided then only postage refund or stamps can be considered.

7.4 Evidence of the Actual Loss must be provided to enable Royal Mail to determine the value of the contents of a packet such as original receipts, details of age, pay pal record, invoices, manufacturing costs, auctioneer's valuation and repair costs in the case of damage claims, bank or credit card statement. This list is not exhaustive and is for illustrative purposes only.

7.5 Royal Mail reserves the right to inspect the item and packaging and/or to request additional documentation and/or information from the claimant, sender or recipient to protect against unwarranted or duplicate claims. This includes, but is not limited to, a declaration of non-receipt (or proof of non receipt in appropriate cases).

7.6 Evidence must be provided that the part loss or damage sustained by the item is consistent with the damage to the envelope, to the external packaging and to the internal wrappings.

8 WHO MAY CLAIM COMPENSATION?

8.1 The sender or the recipient may make a claim for loss of or damage to an item. However Royal Mail will only make a payment once in respect of any item.

8.2 If both the Sender and the recipient make a claim for the same item, then only the Sender will have a right to compensation, unless a compensation payment has already been made to the recipient, in which case the Sender will have no right to compensation.

CLAIRE ADAMS

A Trust Deed has been granted by Claire Adams, Flat 11, Dashwood Square, Newton Stewart DG8 6EQ, on 17 July 2008, conveying (to the extent specified in section 5(4A) in the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985)

her estate to me, Peter Christopher Dean, 135 Buchanan Street, Glasgow G1 2JA, as Trustee for the benefit of her Creditors generally. If a Creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a Protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of the publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed will become a Protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the Creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to it.

The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the Trust Deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding Creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the Debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the Debtor's estate.

Trust Deed for Creditors by

LEE COMISKEY

A Trust Deed has been granted by Lee Comiskey residing at 125 Ballingry Road, Dunfermline, Fife KY5 8PP, on 3 June 2008 conveying (to the extent specified in Section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) his Estate to me, Donald Iain McNaught, of Invocas, Level 5, City House, Overgate Centre, Dundee, as Trustee for the benefit of his creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it.

The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

PAUL HENRY HIGGINS

A Trust Deed has been granted by Paul Henry Higgins residing at 24 Symers Street, Dundee DD3 9EZ, on 18 June 2008 conveying (to the extent specified in Section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) his Estate to me, Donald Iain McNaught, of Invocas, Level 5, City House, Overgate Centre, Dundee, as Trustee for the benefit of his creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The

Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it.

The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

LESLEY NOLAN

A trust deed has been granted by Lesley Nolan, 36 Kingswell Avenue, Kilmarnock KA3 2EZ on 23 July 2008 conveying (to the extent specified in section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her estate to me, William White CA, W White & Co, 60 Bank Street, Kilmarnock KA1 1ER as trustee for the benefit of her creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected trust deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed may become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it.

Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

Protected Trust Deeds (Scotland) Regulations 2008, regulation 7
Notice of Trust Deed for the Benefit of Creditors by

BRYAN ALEXANDER WOOD

A Trust Deed has been granted by Bryan Alexander Wood, 25 Knock Avenue, Whitehills, Banff AB45 2NZ, on 9 July 2008, conveying (to the extent specified in section 5(4A) in the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) his estate to me, Peter Christopher Dean, 135 Buchanan Street, Glasgow G1 2JA, as Trustee for the benefit of his Creditors generally.

If a Creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a Protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of the publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed will become a Protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the Creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to it.

The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the Trust Deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding Creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the Debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the Debtor's estate.

Peter C Dean, Trustee

135 Buchanan Street, Glasgow G1 2JA.

If a creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a Protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of the publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the Trust Deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the Debtor and confers certain

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the Edinburgh Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazettesubmissions.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the Edinburgh Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

- 4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;
- 4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;
- 4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;
- 4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;
- 4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and
- 4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1 - 4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the Edinburgh Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the Edinburgh Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

- 11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;
- 11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;
- 11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the Edinburgh Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the Edinburgh Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the Edinburgh Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
