

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES JUSTICE, Ironmonger in Dundee.
JAMES MILN, Ironmonger in Dundee, and DAVID COBB, Writer in Dundee, Trustees for the Creditors of the said James Justice, hereby intimate, that a state of the trust-funds has been made up, and that a dividend will be struck at the expiration of three weeks from this date; and they request the Creditors who have not already lodged their claims and grounds of debt, to do so with either of the Trustees betwixt and that time; certifying those who fail to give in the same within that period, that they can have no share of the first dividend.

Dundee, December 29, 1818.

NOTICE.

THE Trustees on the estate of WILLIAM CAMPBELL, Grocer and Spirit-Dealer in Glasgow, having realized a considerable part of the trust-funds, will pay a dividend of 14s. or 15s. per pound upon Tuesday the 26th January next, at the counting-house of Archibald Warden & Sons, No. 29, Argyle Street, to such of the Creditors as may have lodged their claims in the hands of the Trustees, Messrs John Kirkland, No. 35, Antigua Buildings, or Archibald Warden, by the 20th day of that month.

Not to be repeated.

Glasgow, December 24, 1818.

NOTICE.

THE Subscriber, Susana Fairweather, of this date, ceased to have any concern in the Millinery and Dressmaking Business which has been carried on in Greenock since the month of May last by her and Miss Mary Stewart, under the firm of FAIRWEATHER & STEWART.
