WILDLIFE AND COUNTRYSIDE

THE WILDLIFE AND COUNTRYSIDE ACT 1981

THE WILDLIFE AND COUNTRYSIDE (REGISTRATION AND RINGING OF CERTAIN CAPTIVE BIRDS) (SCOTLAND) REGULATIONS 2009

Notice is hereby given under section 26 (5) of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 ("the 1981 Act"), that the Scottish Ministers make the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by section 7(1) and (2) of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 (a) and all other powers enabling them to do so.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Wildlife and Countryside (Registration and Ringing of Certain Captive Birds) (Scotland) Regulations. These Regulations extend to Scotland only.

Interpretation

2. -Any reference to a bird to which these Regulations apply is a reference to any bird included in Schedule 4 to the Act which any person keeps, possesses or controls.

Registration

3. -(1) The Scottish Ministers must, for the purposes of section 7(1) of the Act, maintain a register of birds to which these Regulations apply which are kept at addresses in Scotland.

(2) An application for registration must be made by either the keeper or the prospective keeper of the bird to which the application relates.

(3) The Scottish Ministers must not register any bird on the register unless it has been ringed or marked in accordance with regulation 6(1).

(4) The Scottish Ministers may decline to make an entry in the register if an application is not accompanied by any charge determined under section 7(2A) (a) of the Act.

CITES - Birds registered on the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora register

Where a bird of a species listed in the Schedule is registered on the CITES register, it is treated as being registered in accordance with these Regulations for the purposes of section 7(1) of the Act.

Regulation 5

Provides that, where a Peregrine Falcon or Merlin has been registered on the register of birds in respect of which a certificate referred to in Article 10 of Council Regulation (EC) No.338/97 on the protection of species of wild fauna and flora by protecting trade therein ("the Council Regulation") has been issued, it is treated as being registered for the purposes of these regulations.

Ringling

Every bird to which these Regulations apply must be ringed with a ring obtained from the Scottish Ministers unless it has been marked in accordance with the specimen marking requirements of Article 66 of Commission Regulation (EC) 865/2006 laying down detailed rules concerning the implementation of Council Regulation (EC) No.338/97 on the protection of species of wild fauna and flora by regulating trade therein.

Any person who rings a bird under paragraph (1) must notify the Scottish Ministers.

Revocations

The following instruments are revoked:

The Wildlife and Countryside (Registration and Ringing of Certain Captive Birds) Regulations 1982 (e);

The Wildlife and Countryside (Registration and Ringing of Certain Captive Birds) (Amendment) Regulations 1991 (f); and

The Wildlife and Countryside (Registration and Ringing of Certain Captive Birds) (Amendment) Regulations 1994 (g).

These Regulations come into force on 21st December 2009. The Regulations will be published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office and will be available on the website of the Office of Public Sector Information (<http://www.opsi.gov.uk>).

WILDLIFE AND COUNTRYSIDE

THE WILDLIFE AND COUNTRYSIDE ACT 1981 (THE SNARES (SCOTLAND)) ORDER 2010

Notice is hereby given under section 26 (5) of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 ("the 1981 Act") that the Scottish Ministers, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 11 (3E) and (4A) of the 1981 Act, have made the following Order: - The Snares (Scotland) Order 2010.

1. The Order ("The Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 (The Snares (Scotland) Order 2010)) makes provision about the use of snares as identified below:

Check that snares are free-running

2. -(1) Any person who sets a snare in position must, while it remains in position, check that it is free-running or cause it to be so checked at least once every day at intervals of no more than 24 hrs.

(2) Any person who, while carrying out such a check, finds that the snare is not free-running must remove the snare or restore it to a state in which it is free-running.

Snare stops and anchors

3. A snare is to be treated as having been used in a manner which constitutes an offence under section 11 (1)(aa)(b) of the Act if it is used otherwise than in accordance with articles 4 and 5.

Snare stops

4. -(1) A person who sets in position or otherwise uses a snare must ensure that the snare is fitted with a stop which complies with this article.

(2) The stop must be capable of preventing the noose of the snare closing beyond the stop.

(3) Where the person intends to use the snare to catch animals of the family leporidae, the stop must be fixed no less than 13 centimetres from the running end of the snare.

(4) Where the person intends to use the snare to catch foxes, the stop must be fixed no less than 23 centimetres from the running end of the snare.

Snare anchors

5. A person who sets a snare in position must—

(a) stake it to the ground, or

(b) attach it to an object

In a manner which will prevent the snare being dragged by an animal caught by it.

Location of snares

6. A snare is to be treated as having been set in a manner which constitutes an offence under section 11(1)(aa) of the Act if it is set in a place where an animal caught by the snare is likely to —

- (a) become fully or partially suspended, or
- (b) drown.

The Order comes into force on 11th March 2010. The Order will be published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office and will be available on the website of the Office of Public Sector Information (<http://www.opsi.gov.uk>).

Pursuant to Section 138(4) of the Insolvency Act 1986 and Rule 4.12 of the Insolvency (Scotland) Rules 1986, notice is hereby given that the First Meeting of Creditors of the Company will be held within Abercorn House, 79 Renfrew Road, Paisley PA3 4DA, on 8 March 2010, at 12.00 noon, for the purpose of choosing a Liquidator who may either be the Interim Liquidator or any other person qualified to act as Liquidator. The Meeting may also consider other Resolutions referred to in Rule 4.12(3).

To be entitled to vote at the Meeting, Creditors must have lodged their claims with me at the Meeting or at the undernoted address prior to the Meeting. Voting may either be in person by the Creditor, or by proxy. To be valid, the proxy must be lodged with me at the Meeting or at the undernoted address prior to the Meeting. A Resolution at the Meeting is passed if a majority in value of those voting have voted in favour of it.

For the purposes of formulating claims, Creditors should note that the date of Liquidation is 18 December 2009.

Your attention is also drawn to Rules 4.15-4.17 and 7 of the Insolvency (Scotland) Rules 1986.

Henry R Paton, Interim Liquidator

Trust Deeds

Protected Trust Deed (Scotland) Regulations 2008, regulation 7
Notice of Trust Deed for the Benefit of Creditors by

PEARL ABERNETHY

A Trust Deed has been granted by Pearl Abernethy, 56 Cedar Road, Cumbernauld, Glasgow G67 3BH, on 28 January 2010, conveying (to the extent specified in section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her estate to me, Alexander Gardner Taggart of AG Taggart & Co Ltd, Garscadden House, 3 Dalsetter Crescent, Glasgow G15 8TG, as Trustee for the benefit of her creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed may become a protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to it.

Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

CLAIRE MARGARET DURDLE

A Trust Deed has been granted by Claire Margaret Durdle residing at 119 Alltan Place, Culloden, Inverness IV2 7TA, on 18 January 2010, conveying (to the extent specified in Section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her estate to me, Kevin McLeod, of Invocas, James Miller House, 98 West George Street, Glasgow, as Trustee for the benefit of her creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed may become a protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to it.

Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

Notice of Trust Deed for the Benefit of Creditors by

AARON MOSELEY

A Trust Deed has been granted by Aaron Moseley, 2/8 East Pilton Farm Rigg, Edinburgh EH5 2GD, on 2 February 2010, conveying (to the extent specified in section 5(4A) in the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) his estate to me, Kenneth Wilson Pattullo, Begbies Traynor, Finlay House, 10-14 West Nile Street, Glasgow G1 2PP, as Trustee for the benefit of his Creditors generally.

If a Creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a Protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of the publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed may become a Protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the Creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to them.

Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding Creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the Debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the Debtor's estate.

Kenneth Wilson Pattullo, Trustee

CHRISTINE MUNDELL

A Trust Deed has been granted by Christine Mundell, 25 Main Street, Kilmaurs KA3 2RQ, on 3 February 2010, conveying (to the extent specified in section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her estate to me, Richard Gardiner, Thomson Cooper, 3 Castle Court, Carnegie Campus, Dunfermline, Fife KY11 8PB, as Trustee for the benefit of her creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed may become a protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to it.

Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The Edinburgh Gazette is an Official Newspaper of Record. The Edinburgh Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "Edinburgh Gazette" shall include supplements to the Edinburgh Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the Edinburgh Gazette as well as the paper version.

The Edinburgh Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and the Office of the Queen's Printer for Scotland.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the Edinburgh Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the Edinburgh Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the Edinburgh Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the Edinburgh Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1-4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the Edinburgh Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the Edinburgh Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the Edinburgh Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the Edinburgh Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the Edinburgh Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
