POST OFFICE LIMITED SCHEME P1/2013

(These notes are not part of the Scheme)

(1) This Scheme will come into operation on 29 July 2013, when it will replace the Royal Mail Holdings Plc (Postal Order) Scheme 2006 and the Consignia Holdings Plc (Postal Order) Scheme 2001.

(2) This Scheme makes provision for:

- (a) the issue, payment and treatment of Postal Orders by Post Office Limited in the United Kingdom;
- (b) the issue and payment of Postal Orders with the authority of Post Office Limited and on its behalf by Overseas Postal Authorities; and
- (c) the issue and payment of Postal Orders under the authority of Post Office Limited outside the United Kingdom in a Royal Navy ship or at a British Forces Postal Office.

POST OFFICE LIMITED (POSTAL ORDER) SCHEME 2013

Made.....24 July 2013

Coming into Operation.....29 July 2013

Post Office Limited, which is the company designated by the Secretary of State as a Post Office company¹ in accordance with section 6 of the Postal Services Act 2011², by virtue of the powers conferred upon it by section 112 of the Postal Services Act 2000³ and all other powers enabling it in this behalf, hereby makes the following Scheme:

1 Commencement and citation

This Scheme shall come into operation on 29 July 2013 and may be cited as the Post Office Limited (Postal Order) Scheme 2013.

2 Interpretation

2.1 In this Scheme:

2.1.1 “the Act” means the Postal Services Act 2000;

2.1.2 “Consignia Scheme” means the Consignia Holdings Plc (Postal Order) Scheme 2001 which came into operation on 26 March 2001;

2.1.3 “encashment” means the payment by a Post Office Representative of the issue value of a Postal Order to a Payee (or person purporting to be the Payee), an agent authorised to accept payment on the Payee's behalf (or person purporting to be such person), or a banker. To “encash” will be construed accordingly.

2.1.4 “Overseas Postal Authority” means a non UK postal authority which organises collection and delivery of post within its area of control;

2.1.5 “Payee” means the person entitled to receive the amount of a Postal Order;

2.1.6 “Post Office Representative” means a person engaged in the business of:

(i) Post Office Limited; or

(ii) any company appointed by Post Office Limited as its agent;

2.1.7 “Postal Order” means a postal order issued as a postal order by Post Office Limited or by an Overseas Postal Authority in pursuance of such an arrangement as mentioned in section 114(2) of the Act;

2.1.8 “Royal Mail Scheme” means the Royal Mail Holdings Plc (Postal Order) Scheme 2006 which came into operation on 10 April 2006; and

2.1.9 “subsidiary” has the meaning ascribed to it by section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006⁴.

3 The Royal Mail Scheme and the Consignia Scheme

3.1 Subject to the provisions of paragraph 3.2 below, the Royal Mail Scheme and the Consignia Scheme are hereby revoked.

3.2 If and to the extent that a postal order was issued under the Royal Mail Scheme or the Consignia Scheme prior to the date of commencement of this Scheme, the provisions of the Royal Mail Scheme or the Consignia Scheme (as applicable) (and not, for the avoidance of doubt, this Scheme) shall apply in relation to that postal order.

4 Issue and amounts of Postal Order

4.1 The minimum permitted issue value of a Postal Order is one pence sterling (£0.01) and the maximum permitted issue value of a Postal Order is two hundred and fifty pounds sterling (£250).

4.2 Post Office Limited will determine the minimum permitted issue value of Postal Orders available for purchase from Post Office Representatives from time to time.

4.3 The issue value of a Postal Order is the figure security printed or handwritten on the face of the Postal Order.

5 Circumstances in which payment may be refused

5.1 A Post Office Representative may refuse payment and impound a Postal Order when that order is presented for payment, and may refuse to make payment thereon if:

5.1.1 the Postal Order is:

- (i) cut, defaced or mutilated; or
- (ii) contains an erasure or alteration;

5.1.2 the Post Office Representative is unable to validate the validity of the Postal Order against Post Office Limited’s record of issued Postal Orders;

5.1.3 the Post Office Representative is not satisfied that the person presenting the Postal Order for payment is the Payee or an agent authorised to accept payment on the Payee’s behalf;

5.1.4 the Post Office Representative has reasonable grounds to believe that the personal identity document provided by the person presenting the Postal Order for payment is not genuine and correct;

5.1.5 the Post Office Representative has reasonable grounds to suspect that the Postal Order has not been properly issued, is fraudulent or stolen; and/or

5.1.6 the Postal Order is presented for payment after the expiration of a period of six calendar months, starting on the date it was issued (in these circumstances paragraph 12 below shall apply).

6 Fee on issue of a Postal Order

The fee payable for a Postal Order shall be such fee as Post Office Limited may from time to time determine.

7 Prepayment

The purchaser must pay the amount for which a Postal Order is to be issued, together with the fee for issuing the Postal Order, in full before the Postal Order is issued.

8 Name of Payee

8.1 The blank space in a Postal Order for the name of the Payee may be filled in before or after issue.

8.2 Where the Payee’s name is not inserted before the Postal Order is issued, the purchaser must insert the Payee’s name in the marked space on the face of the Postal Order (whether or not the Postal Order is crossed with a view to payment through a banker).

8.3 Notwithstanding paragraph 8.2 above, where a Postal Order is presented for payment without a Payee name stated on the face of the Postal Order, the Postal Order may be paid to the person or banker presenting it for payment.

8.4 No alteration shall be made to the name of the Payee appearing on a Postal Order, except by the direction of Post Office Limited.

9 Crossing of Postal Orders

9.1 A Postal Order may be crossed generally by the addition on its face of two parallel transverse lines.

9.2 A Postal Order may be crossed specially by the addition on its face of the name of a banker, in which case the Postal Order may only be presented for payment to Post Office Limited by that banker.

9.3 A Postal Order which is crossed generally may be crossed specially.

9.4 A banker to whom a Postal Order is crossed may cross it specially to another banker as his agent for collection.

9.5 Where a Postal Order is crossed generally, it shall not be paid except to:

9.5.1 a banker; or

9.5.2 Post Office Limited where the Postal Order is presented at a Post Office branch by the Payee in settlement, whether in full or in part, of a bill capable being paid through Post Office Limited.

9.6 Where a Postal Order is crossed specially, it shall not be paid except to the banker to whom it is crossed, or to his agent for collection.

9.7 Where a Postal Order is crossed specially to more than one banker, except when crossed to an agent for the purpose of collection, Post Office Limited may refuse payment of the Postal Order.

10 Payment of Postal Orders otherwise than to bankers

10.1 Paragraphs 10.2 to 10.6 below apply in relation to the payment of a Postal Order presented for payment otherwise than by a banker to whom it has been delivered for collection.

10.2 Where a Payee’s name appears on the face of the Postal Order in the correct space, the Postal Order shall not be paid unless the Payee (or a person purporting to be the Payee) or a person acting on behalf of the Payee (or a person purporting to act on behalf of the Payee) signs the Postal Order.

10.3 Where no Payee’s name has been inserted on the face of a Postal Order, the paying Post Office Representative may require the person presenting the order to sign the Postal Order before payment is made.

10.4 A Post Office Representative to whom a Postal Order is presented for payment may, before making payment, make reasonable enquiries to confirm that the person presenting the Postal Order is either the Payee or an agent authorised to accept payment on the Payee’s behalf.

10.5 A Post Office Representative may refuse payment of a Postal Order if:

10.5.1 unsatisfied that the person presenting the Postal Order for payment is the Payee or an agent authorised to accept payment on the Payee’s behalf;

10.5.2 the Postal Order is presented for payment more than six months after the issue date; and/or 10.5.3 the Postal Order is not signed in the Post Office Representative’s presence.

10.6 The paying Post Office Representative may refuse or delay the payment of a Postal Order when it appears to him reasonable to do so in cases other than those mentioned in this Scheme.

11 Payment of Postal Orders to bankers

11.1 All Postal Orders must be presented for payment by a banker who is a member of the Cheque and Credit Clearing Company Limited (“CCCL”) and shall be cleared in accordance with the rules, procedures and standards of CCCL.

11.2 Where a banker is not a member of the CCCL, the Postal Order must be presented for payment by the CCCL agent for that banker and shall be cleared by the banker’s CCCL agent in accordance with the rules, procedures and standards of CCCL.

11.3 A crossed Postal Order presented for payment by a banker to an Overseas Postal Authority may be paid at any office of that Overseas Postal Authority that is permitted to encash Postal Orders.

11.4 Where Post Office Limited has paid a banker the value of a Postal Order when it should not have done so including, but without limitation to, Postal Orders which:

11.4.1 have been presented for payment by the banker after a period of six calendar months, starting on the date of issue of the Postal Order, has expired;

11.4.2 have not been validly issued by Post Office Limited;

11.4.3 have been cut, defaced or mutilated; and/or

11.4.4 contain an erasure or alteration,

the amount shall be repayable to Post Office Limited on demand by the banker, or where relevant, the banker’s CCCL agent, in accordance with the rules, procedures and standards of CCCL.

12 Payment of Postal Orders after expiration of six months after the date of issue

12.1 If a Postal Order is presented for payment after the expiration of a period of six calendar months, starting on the date it was issued, but within nine calendar months of the date of issue, it shall not be encashed unless the Postal Order is sent to Post Office Limited and then only when Post Office Limited is satisfied, at its own discretion, that the Postal Order was validly issued and ought to be paid.

12.2 Where a Postal Order is presented for payment after the expiration of a period of nine months after the date it was issued, it shall not be encashed unless the Postal Order is sent to Post Office Limited with the required investigation fee as determined by Post Office Limited from time to time and Post Office Limited has conducted an investigation and is satisfied, at its own discretion, that the Postal Order was validly issued and ought to be paid.

13 Remission of fees

Post Office Limited may remit in whole or in part any fee payable under this Scheme in such cases or classes of case as it may determine.

14 Application of Scheme to Overseas Postal Authorities and other special cases

14.1 Except as provided by this paragraph, this Scheme shall apply only to the issue, payment and treatment of Postal Orders within the United Kingdom.

14.2 The provisions of this Scheme relating to the issue and payment of Postal Orders shall apply to the issue and payment of Postal Orders under the authority of Post Office Limited:

14.2.1 outside the United Kingdom in a ship of the Royal Navy (whether on the high seas or in any port or place) or at a British Forces' Post Office; and

14.2.2 by an Overseas Postal Authority authorised by the Post Office Limited to encash and/or issue Postal Orders on its behalf as they apply to the issue and encashment of Postal Orders by a Post Office Representative.

Protected Trust Deeds (Scotland) Regulations 2008, regulation 7

Notice of Trust Deed for the Benefit of Creditors by

LYNNE ADAMS

A Trust Deed has been granted by Lynne Adams, 55 Alder Road, Cumbernauld, Glasgow G67 3AD, on 22 July 2013, conveying (to the extent specified in section 5(4A) in the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her estate to me, Iain C Forsyth, Carrington Dean, 135 Buchanan Street, Glasgow G1 2JA, as Trustee for the benefit of her Creditors generally.

If a Creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a Protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of the publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed may become a Protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the Creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to them.

Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding Creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the Debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the Debtor's estate.

If a Creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a Protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of the publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed may become a Protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the Creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to them.

Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding Creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the Debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the Debtor's estate.

JAMES GALLAGHER

A Trust Deed has been granted by James Gallagher, 50 Greenhead Avenue, Stevenson, KA20 4DY, on 24 July 2013, conveying (to the extent specified in section 5(4A) in the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) his estate to me, S M Wriglesworth, 2nd Floor, 4 West Regent Street, Glasgow G2 1RW, as Trustee for the benefit of his Creditors generally.

If a Creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a Protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of the publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed may become a Protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the Creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to them.

Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding Creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the Debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the Debtor's estate.

LESLEY JADE MCDADE

Previously Drysdale

A Trust Deed has been granted by Lesley Jade McDade previously Drysdale, 15 Manuel Terrace, Dreghorn, Irvine KA11 4BY, on 19 July 2013, conveying (to the extent specified in section 5(4A) in the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her estate to me, Blair Carnegie Nimmo, KPMG, 191 West George Street, Glasgow G2 2LJ, as Trustee for the benefit of her Creditors generally.

If a Creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a Protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of the publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed may become a Protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the Creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to them.

Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding Creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the Debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the Debtor's estate.

If a Creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a Protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of the publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed may become a Protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the Creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to them.

Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding Creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the Debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the Debtor's estate.

FIROZ ZOHA

A Trust Deed has been granted by Firoz Zoha, residing at 108 Brighton Place, Aberdeen, AB10 6SU, UK, on 3 June 2013 previously residing at 5 Carters Park Road, Kirkwall, KW15 1ND, conveying (to the extent specified in section 5(4A) in the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) his estate to me, Donald Harper, Invocas Financial, James Miller House, 98 West George Street, Glasgow, G2 1PJ, Scotland as Trustee for the benefit of his Creditors generally.

If a Creditor wishes to object to the Trust Deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a Protected Trust Deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of the publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The Trust Deed may become a Protected Trust Deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the Creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the Trust Deed and do not wish to accede to them.

Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding Creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the Debtor and confers certain protection upon the Trust Deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the Debtor's estate.

Donald Harper, Trustee

Invocas Financial, James Miller House, 98 West George Street, Glasgow, G2 1PJ, Scotland

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The Edinburgh Gazette is an Official Newspaper of Record. The Edinburgh Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "Edinburgh Gazette" shall include supplements to the Edinburgh Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the Edinburgh Gazette as well as the paper version.

The Edinburgh Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and the Office of the Queen's Printer for Scotland.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the Edinburgh Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the Edinburgh Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the Edinburgh Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the Edinburgh Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

- 4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;
- 4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;
- 4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;
- 4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;
- 4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and
- 4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1–4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the Edinburgh Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the Edinburgh Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

- 11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;
- 11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;
- 11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the Edinburgh Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the Edinburgh Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the Edinburgh Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
