Any representations to the application should be made by email to The Scottish Government, Marine Scotland Licensing Operations Team mailbox at sprislay2@scotland.gsi.gov.uk

or by post to The Scottish Government, Marine Scotland Licensing Operations Team, Marine Laboratory, 375 Victoria Road, Aberdeen, AB11 9DB, identifying the proposal and specifying the grounds for representation, not later than 25th of July 2014.

Representations should be dated and should clearly state the name (in block capitals) and full return email or postal address of those making representations.

When initial comments from statutory consultees are received further public notices will give advice on how this information may be viewed by members of the public, and how representations may be made to Scottish Ministers. During the consideration of the proposal, Scottish Ministers may formally request further information to supplement the Environmental Statement and this will also be advertised in such a manner.

Where Scottish Ministers decide to exercise their discretion to do so, Scottish Ministers can also cause a Public Inquiry to be held.

Following receipt of all views and representations, Scottish Ministers will determine the application for consent in one of three ways:

- Consent the proposal as it stands; or
- Consent the proposal with conditions; or
- Reject the proposal.

Writing to The Scottish Government, Marine Scotland, Marine Laboratory, 375 Victoria Road, Aberdeen, AB11 9DB or emailing to ms.marinelicensing@scotland.gsi.gov.uk

OR

Writing to Argyll and Bute Council, Kilmory, Lochgilphead, Argyll, PA31 8RT

Any subsequent additional information received by the Scottish Ministers before determination of the application, if considered to be materially relevant, will be similarly forwarded to Argyll and Bute Council to be placed on the planning register and made available for public inspection. However, no further public notice will be issued.

Any representations should be made in writing to The Scottish Government, Marine Scotland, Marine Laboratory, 375 Victoria Road, Aberdeen, AB11 9DB or by emailing sprislav2@scotland.gsi.gov.uk identifying the proposal and specifying grounds for objection or support, not later than 25th of July 2014.

Representations must state the reasons for objecting or supporting a proposal, be dated and clearly state the name of the person, or persons, representing and include a full return email or postal address of those making the representation. Representations that do not include all of the above information will be considered invalid.

All previous representations received in relation to this development remain valid.

Fair Processing Notice

The Marine Scotland's Licensing Operations Team process applications under the Marine (Scotland) Act 2010 and the Electricity Act 1989. During the consultation process, letters of representation can be sent to Scottish Ministers in support of or objecting to these applications.

Should Scottish Ministers call a Public Local Inquiry (PLI), copies of these representations will be sent to the Directorate of Planning and Environmental Appeals for the Reporter to consider during the inquiry. These representations will be posted on their website with personal email address, signature and home telephone number redacted (blacked out).

Copies of representations will also be issued to the developer on request, again with email address, signature and home telephone number redacted.

You can choose to mark your representation as confidential, in which case it will only be considered by Scottish Ministers and will not be shared with the Planning Authority, the developer, the Reporter (should a PLI be called) or any other third party.

If you have any queries or concerns about how your personal data will be handled, please email the Licensing Operations Team at: ms.marinelicensing@scotland.gsi.gov.uk or in writing to The Scottish Government, Marine Scotland Licensing Operations Team, Marine Laboratory, 375 Victoria Road, Aberdeen, AB11 9DB. WIND ENERGY (EARLSHAUGH) LIMITED
ELECTRICITY ACT 1989
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (SCOTLAND) ACT 1997
THE ELECTRICITY WORKS (ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT)(SCOTLAND) REGULATIONS 2000

Notice is hereby given that Wind Energy (Earlshaugh) Limited, (company registration number 05444009 c/o Capita Registrars, 2nd Floor Ibox House, The Minories, London EC3N 1DX) has submitted Supplementary Environmental Information (SEI) to the Environmental Statement that accompanied its application dated 25th June 2008 to the Scottish Ministers for consent to construct and operate a wind farm at Earlshaugh, south of Tweedsmuir in Scottish Borders (Central Grid Reference 307767, 615009) and for a direction under Section 57(2) of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 that planning permission for the development be deemed to be granted. The installed capacity of the proposed generating station would be up to 57MW comprising 22 turbines (13 with a maximum ground to blade tip height of 125m and 9 with a maximum ground to blade tip height of 100m).

Wind Energy (Earlshaugh) Limited has now submitted to Scottish Ministers further information in the form of an addendum including Supplementary Environmental Information, an updated Non-Technical Summary, and updated Technical Appendices to the Earlshaugh Wind Farm Environmental Statement. The 2014 SEI provides an update on the SEI submitted 26th July 2013, rather than replacing the information in the original documents, with the exception of the Air and Climate Assessment.

Copies of the addendum supplementing the Environmental Statement have been provided explaining the Company's proposals in more detail and are available for inspection during normal office hours at:

6(2)(a)(vii) flammable liquids;

6(2)(a)(viii) flammable solids; self-reactive substances, solid desensitized explosives, substances liable to spontaneous combustion, substances which in contact with water, emit flammable gases;

6(2)(a)(ix) oxidising substances and organic peroxides;

6(2)(a)(x) toxic and infectious substances;

6(2)(a)(xi) radioactive material;

6(2)(a)(xii) corrosive substances;

6(2)(a)(xiii) miscellaneous dangerous substances and articles. Substances that present dangers not covered elsewhere;

6(2)(a)(xiv) all arms, their component parts classified as munitions of war and ammunition of any kind;

6(2)(a)(xv) tickets and related advertisements for illegal lotteries;

6(2)(a)(xvi) foul or disgusting material;

6(2)(a)(xvii) indecent, obscene or offensive communications, prints, photographs, books or other articles, and packets bearing grossly offensive, indecent or obscene works, marks or design. Those discovered in transit will be stopped and handed to Customs or the Police who may take legal action against the sender and/or the recipient;

6(2)(a)(xviii) goods made in foreign prisons, except those imported for a non-commercial purpose, of a kind not manufactured in the United Kingdom, or those in transit;

6(2)(a)(xix) alcoholic beverages where the content is greater than 70%;

6(2)(a)(xx) batteries - only dry batteries (for example AA or AAA) in good condition and in their original sealed retail packaging may be despatched. (Batteries from laptops, cameras, mobile phones and similar electronic goods must be removed from the main body of the item and packaged separately but form part of the same parcel/consignment) and crackers posted to addresses where the banger has not been removed;

6(2)(a)(xxi) Christmas crackers, where they are not in their made up form and posted in the retail packaging;

6(2)(a)(xxii) postage stamps unless franked or no longer usable for postage purposes and counterfeit currency;

6(2)(a)(xxiii) diagnostic specimens;

6(2)(a)(xxiv) infectious substances assigned to category A;

6(2)(a)(xxv) perishable items;

6(2)(a)(xxvi) prescription drugs where they are not from and to a medical practitioner or a hospital. In the case of emergencies however, prescription drugs may be sent to a private individual as long as they are in prescription quantities;

6(2)(a)(xxvii) sharp objects where they have not been packaged in a way that prevents them from presenting a risk to employees, other packages and the recipient;

6(2)(a)(xxviii) any financial documents (money, bankers drafts, cheques, dividends, bonds, securities etc) which can be exchanged themselves or with any other document for money, goods or services.

6(2)(a)(xxix) human and animal remains.

6(2)(b) containing or bearing any fictitious stamp (not being a fictitious stamp made with the approval of the Post Office ®) or any counterfeit of any impression authorised by or under this Scheme to be used to denote payment of postage or fees;

6(2)(c) containing or having thereon any letter, except so far as may be permitted by the relative postal arrangement;

6(2)(d) bearing words, marks or designs which are unauthorised and which may reasonably lead the recipient to believe that the packet has been sent on Her Majesty's Service;

6(2)(e) of such a form or colour or so made up for transmission by post as to be likely in the opinion of the Post Office ® to embarrass the officers of the Post Office ® in dealing with the parcel;

6(2)(f) having anything written, printed or otherwise impressed upon or attached to any part of the parcel which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address of the parcel or by inconvenient proximity to the stamp or stamps used to denote payment of postage or fees, or in any other way, is in itself, or in the manner in which it is written, printed, impressed or attached, likely in the opinion of the Post Office ® to embarrass the officers of the Post Office ® in dealing with the parcel;

6(2)(g) bearing any stamp or franking mark or other impression denoting payment of postage or fees which is imperfect or mutilated or defaced in any way, or across which anything is written or printed or otherwise impressed; but a stamp shall not be deemed to be imperfect or mutilated or defaced or to have anything written or printed or impressed across it within the meaning of this provision, by reason only that it is distinctly perforated with initials by means of a punch, if the perforating holes are not larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps;

6(2)(h) whereon the payment of any postage or fees purports to be denoted by any stamp or franking mark or other impression which has been previously used to denote payment of the postage or fees on any other postal packet;

6(2)(i) consisting of or containing two or more parcels or other postal packets (of the same or of different descriptions) addressed to different persons who are at different addresses;

6(2)(j) whereon the payment of any postage or fees is denoted by an adhesive stamp or stamps, and where the stamp or stamps have not been securely affixed in such manner as the Post Office ® may require;

6(2)(k) containing or bearing any franking mark which has been made by franking equipment used otherwise than in accordance with the terms of the Post Office Scheme for Franking Letters and Parcels 2000 as amended from time to time or any franking mark which does not in any other respect comply with that Scheme.

7. PACKING

7(1) Every parcel shall be made up and secured in such manner as in the opinion of the Post Office ® is calculated to preserve the contents from loss or damage in the post, to prevent any tampering with the contents, and to prevent injury to any other postal packet in course of conveyance, or to any receptacle in which the same is conveyed, or to any other postal equipment, or to an officer of the Post Office ® or other person who may deal with such packet.

7(2) Any article contained in a parcel shall be adequately packed as a protection against damage in course of transmission. In particular:

7(2)(a) an article which is of a fragile nature shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength and shall be surrounded in that container with sufficient and suitable material to protect the article against the effects of concussion, pressure and knocks to which parcels are ordinarily exposed in transmission and the parcel shall bear the words "FRAGILE WITH CARE" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address;

7(2)(b) an article which is liable to be damaged by bending shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength to prevent the article from being bent in transmission and the parcel shall bear the words "DO NOT BEND" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address;

7(2)(c) a parcel containing any perishable article shall bear the word "PERISHABLE" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address;

7(2)(d) guidelines on packaging can be found on www.parcelforce.com.

8. LIMITS OF WEIGHT AND SIZE

8(1) Save as the Post Office ® may either generally or in any particular case allow, no parcel shall be posted, conveyed, or delivered by post if:

8(1)(a) the weight thereof exceeds 30 kilogrammes; or

8(1)(b) the length thereof exceeds 1.5 metres, or (if that limit of length is not exceeded); or

8(1)(c) the combined length and girth thereof exceeds 3 metres (the girth to be measured round the thickest part).

8(2) Where the postal arrangement applicable in relation to the conveyance of a parcel stipulates a lower limit than is specified in any one or more of paragraphs 8(1)(a), 8(1)(b) or 8(1)(c) that limit or those limits shall apply, instead of the respective limit or limits so specified.

8(3) Save as aforesaid, no parcel shall be posted, conveyed, or delivered by post unless its size is within the following minimum limits:

8(3)(a) where the parcel is made up in form of a roll, its length and twice its diameter taken together shall not be less than 170 millimetres, and either its length or its diameter shall not be less than 100 millimetres;

8(3)(b) where the parcel is not so made up, it shall have at least one surface measuring not less than 140 millimetres in length and not less than 90 millimetres in breadth.

9. FEES FOR IMPORT CUSTOMS CLEARANCE

9(1) With respect to the clearance of incoming parcels through Customs procedures, Royal Mail Group Limited has two levels of fee. There is one charge for express and high value parcels, and a separate charge for all other parcels. These fees apply to all parcels liable to import duty/tax and are payable by the recipient before the parcel can be delivered. Our charges at date of printing are £13.50 and £8 respectively, but do change from time to time. For details of our current charges, please see "www.parcelforce.com".

12. TREATMENT OF IRREGULAR PARCELS

12(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Scheme, any parcel which is found when in the post not to comply with any prohibitions and restrictions outlined in this scheme, or with a provision of the law or customs requirements of the country or place in which the parcel was posted or to which it is addressed or of any country or place through which it may pass (including the Act, this Scheme and the provisions referred to in paragraph 32), or not to be accompanied by a document required by any such provision may be either detained or returned or given up to the sender, or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as the Post Office ® may think fit.

12(2) Any incoming parcel which is found in the post to be such that the conveyance or delivery thereof is prohibited by paragraph 6(2)(i) may, if the Post Office ® thinks fit, be delivered to the addressee subject to such charge as the Post Office ® may fix in the particular case, not exceeding the aggregate amount of the separate charges which would have been payable in respect of all the individual parcels or other postal packets contained therein if each of them had been posted separately without prepayment of postage in the British postal area addressed to the country or place of origin of the parcel.

13(1) (Deleted).

13(2) (Deleted).

14. CHARGES ON DELIVERY IN THE UK

14(1) There shall be charged on any incoming international parcel and paid by the addressee prior to its delivery, the amount of any postage deficiency, and any fees and charges payable in respect of the parcel under the law, regulations, or schemes in force in any part of the British postal area or any country or place from or through which the parcel has been transmitted which have not been paid.

14(2) In this paragraph "postage deficiency" means, if no part of the postage thereon has been prepaid, the full amount of the postage which ought to have been prepaid, and if part only of such postage has been prepaid, the difference between such full amount and the amount of such postage which has been prepaid.

15. (Deleted).

15(1) (Deleted).

15(1)(a) (Deleted);

15(1)(b) (Deleted).

16. WITHHOLDING OF PARCELS FROM DELIVERY

16(1) The Post Office ® may withhold any incoming parcel from delivery to the addressee until all sums due thereon have been paid.

16(2) Where the sums due in respect of any such parcel, or of parcels on hand for to the same person on any one occasion, the Post Office ® may give notice to that person accordingly and require that, before such delivery is effected, he should pay the amount due within such period and at such office as shall be specified in such notice.

17. UNDELIVERABLE PARCELS

17(1) Subject to the following paragraphs 17(2) and 17(3), an incoming parcel which cannot be delivered or in respect of which any sums due thereon under paragraph 14 have not been paid within such period as the Post Office ® may consider reasonable, may be dealt with or disposed of as the Post Office ® may think fit.

17(2) Where an incoming parcel cannot be delivered as originally addressed, delivery will be attempted to neighbouring addresses. In the event that delivery cannot be made to either the original address or a neighbour, and the parcel is within the relevant size and weight limits and the contents of the parcel are suitable, the parcel will be automatically taken to a local Post Office ® branch for collection by the addressee and a card will be left at the addressee's address informing them of the location of the collection point.

17(3) In the event that delivery cannot be effected by any of the above means, the parcel will be returned to the local depot and a card will be left at the addressee's address outlining the redelivery options and any associated charges that are available. For details of our current charges, please see "www.parcelforce.com". The card will also provide details of the location of the depot where the parcel is being held, the methods for booking a redelivery and appropriate contact details.

The current redelivery options are as follows:

17(3)(a) collection from holding depot;

17(3)(b) redelivery to original delivery address on a specified day (Monday to Friday excluding public holidays);

17(3)(c) redelivery to an alternative UK address on a specified day (Monday to Friday excluding public holidays);

17(3)(d) delivery to a nominated Post Office ® for collection by the addressee;

17(3)(e) redelivery on a Saturday (excluding public holidays);

An automatic redelivery attempt will be performed on the next working day after the original delivery attempt. In the event that this second delivery attempt is unsuccessful the parcel will be held for 16 calendar days from the date of the first attempt pending contact from the addressee. If no contact is received from the address within this time the parcel will be returned to sender.

PART 3

Postal Facilities

19. GENERAL

19(1) The postal facilities referred to in this Scheme may be provided by the Post Office ® at such times, during such periods, at such post offices, in such circumstances, and on such conditions (not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Scheme) as the Post Office ® may from time to time consider expedient.

20. (Deleted).

21. (Deleted).

22. (Deleted).

23. (Deleted).

24. COMPENSATION

24(1) Where the Post Office ® is satisfied that any article of pecuniary value enclosed in, or forming part of, a parcel (including an insured parcel) has been lost or damaged whilst in the course of transmission by post, it may (but subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph) pay such sum as it may think just by way of compensation for such loss or damage to any person who in its opinion establishes a reasonable claim thereto, whether as the sender or as the addressee of the parcel.

24(2) The total amount of compensation which the Post Office ® may pay under paragraph 24(1) in respect of:

24(2)(a) (Deleted);

24(2)(b) (Deleted);

24(2)(c) any one incoming insured parcel and its contents shall not in any case exceed £1400 having regard to the insurance fee paid in the country or place from which the parcel was transmitted and the terms of any relative postal arrangement with the Postal Administration of that country or place;

24(2)(d) any other parcel not covered by paragraph 24(2)(c) above shall be nil.

24.3 Subject to paragraph 24(2), the maximum amount of compensation which the Post Office ® may pay under paragraph 24(1) in respect of any article enclosed in or forming part of a parcel shall be such sum as, in its opinion, represents:

24(3)(a) if the item is lost or damaged beyond repair, an independent agent may be used to supply a replacement, subject to the maximum compensation level purchased, allowing for wear & tear and depreciation where appropriate. The lowest of the cost/sale price will be used to settle a claim exclusive of VAT;

24(3)(b) providing the item has been packaged correctly, any compensation payable for damage to the item will be limited to the repair cost.

24(4) (Deleted).

25(5) No compensation may be paid under paragraph 24(1) in respect of any parcel or its contents unless the Post Office ® is satisfied that the conditions set out in paragraph 7 have been complied with.

24(6) (Deleted).

24(7) No compensation may be paid under paragraph 24(1) in respect of any parcel or its contents if the parcel has been destroyed or otherwise dealt with or disposed of by the Post Office ® pursuant to section 8(3) of the Act or paragraph 12(1), paragraph 17 or by another Postal Administration under a provision of the law of the country or place of that Postal Administration.

24(8) No compensation may be paid in respect of any parcel or its contents unless:

24(8)(a) a claim for such compensation is received:

24(8)(a)(i) (Deleted); or

24(8)(a)(ii) in the case of an incoming parcel, from the sender or the addressee within a period of 12 months beginning with the date on which the parcel was posted;

24(8)(b) (Deleted);

24(8)(c) in a case where loss of the parcel is claimed and the Post Office ® so requires, a declaration is made by the addressee that the parcel was not delivered to him or to the place to which it was addressed.

24(9) No compensation may be paid in respect of any parcel or its contents if it contains anything the posting of which is prohibited by or under any enactment of this Scheme.

24(10) No compensation may be paid in respect of any parcel or its contents unless the address of the person to whom the parcel is to be transmitted is written fully and correctly on the cover thereof or on a label securely affixed or tied thereto.

24(11) No compensation may be paid in respect of any parcel or its contents if the parcel was lost, damaged or destroyed in circumstances beyond the control of the Postal Administration in whose service the loss, damage or destruction occurred.

24(12) If compensation has been paid to any person in respect of the loss of a parcel and the parcel subsequently comes into the possession of the Post Office ®, then upon tender of the parcel to that person (whether or not he accepts it), he shall repay to the Post Office ® the sum paid by way of compensation or such part thereof as the Post Office ® may require.

24(13) Where the Post Office ® pays compensation in respect of a parcel in accordance with the foregoing paragraphs it may additionally pay an amount equivalent to the amount of postage paid by the sender of the parcel.

24(14) (Deleted).

24(15) No compensation may be paid in respect of any parcel for the loss of or damage to the following items:

24(15)(a) any dangerous, hazardous and prohibited goods, or restricted items where the instructions have not been heeded;

24(15)(b) diamonds and other precious stones;

24(15)(c) real fur;

24(15)(d) jewellery (other than imitation);

24(15)(e) articles made largely or wholly of gold, silver or other precious metals;

24(15)(f) antiques;

24(15)(g) (Deleted);

24(15)(h) (Deleted);

24(15)(i) stamps;

24(15)(j) negotiable documents;
 24(15)(k) bearer bonds;
 24(15)(l) money or money's equivalent, meaning all or any of the following:
 24(15)(l)(i) any bank note or currency note, being current in the British postal area or elsewhere;
 24(15)(l)(ii) Coins, bankers drafts, and credit/debit cards;
 24(15)(l)(iii) any uncrossed postal order which does not state to whom it is to be paid;
 24(15)(l)(iv) any cheque or dividend warrant which is uncrossed and made payable to bearer;
 24(15)(l)(v) any bearer security (including a share warrant, scrip or subscription certificate, bond or relative coupon);
 24(15)(l)(vi) any unobliterated postage or revenue stamp valid for current use in the British postal area or elsewhere (except a revenue stamp embossed or impressed on an instrument which has been executed);
 24(15)(l)(vii) any coupon, voucher, taken, card, stamp, lottery tickets, scratch card or similar documents which can be exchanged (by itself or with any other document) for money, goods or services;
 24(15)(l)(viii) National Insurance stamps.
 24(15)(m) all tickets, including travel and events;
 24(15)(n) sim cards;
 24(15)(o) watches;
 24(15)(p) human and animal remains including ashes, other than those being sent for medical research. Those which are sent for medical research should be packaged to ensure no contamination. Limits on the type of service available and categories of claims are the same as for the perishable goods;
 24(15)(q) musical instrument hard cases and suitcases when used as external packaging;
 24(15)(r) marble or other stone derivatives;
 24(15)(s) any combination of two or more parcels strapped or in some other manner bound together, including any parcel if such an attempt to do so has been made;
 24(15)(t) any parcels where the packaging guidelines in paragraph 7 and on "www.parcelforce.com" have not been heeded;
 24(15)(u) any parcels where the claim overstates the value of the contents;
 24(15)(v) any parcels where a request made by Royal Mail Group Ltd for affirmation of the value is not fully and correctly responded to within 21 days.
 24(16) Any compensation payable for loss of or damage to a collectable(s) shall be limited to the actual price paid for the collectable(s) shall be limited to the actual price paid for the collectable(s) subject to the sender providing satisfactory written or printed evidence (e.g. a receipt for the price paid by the sender, or the price as listed in a recognised catalogue or guide) and not exceeding Parcelforce Worldwide's stated limits of compensation for the service selected.
 24(17) (Deleted).
 24(18) No compensation shall be payable for loss of or damage to an item due to latent or inherent defect, vice or natural deterioration of items where there is no evidence of external damage to the item(s) or its packaging.
 24(19) No compensation may be paid in respect of any parcel for damage to the following items:
 24(19)(a) ceramics or composites wholly or partially made of china and / or porcelain;
 24(19)(b) glassware - items partially or wholly made of glass or containing glass, for example picture frames that contain glass;
 24(19)(c) eggs;
 24(19)(d) fossils; stone or stonewear;
 24(19)(e) resin items, amber and composites.
 24(20) No compensation shall be payable for any loss of profit, revenue, opportunity, or any indirect, special or consequential loss, damage, expenses or other claims (whether caused by the negligence of Royal Mail Group Limited, its servants, agents or otherwise).
 24(21) Items which have appreciated in value either due to their scarcity or due to their being out of production are not excluded from compensation cover. However, any loss of, or damage to any collectable shall be limited to the actual price paid for the collectable and shall not exceed Parcelforce Worldwide's stated limits of compensation as set out in the compensation table subject to the customer providing satisfactory written or printed evidence.
 24(22) The maximum compensation payable in any event for loss or damage to Musical Instruments shall be £100 per parcel.

 30. REMISSION OF POSTAGE AND FEES
 31(1) The Post Office ® may remit in whole or in part any postage or other sums chargeable under this Scheme in such cases or classes of cases as it may determine.
 31. APPLICATION OF POST OFFICE INLAND PARCEL POST SCHEME
 31(1) The paragraphs specified in Schedule 5 shall apply to parcels transmitted by post under the provisions of this Scheme, to the extent and subject to the modifications specified in the said Schedule.
 32. SAVING
 32(1) Nothing in this Scheme shall prejudice, or affect the operation of, the provisions of the Postal Packets (Customs and Excise) Regulations 1975, or any regulations made by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise under any enactment for the time being in force relating to customs.
 33. ALTERATION OF SUMS CHARGEABLE, CONDITIONS, ETC.
 33(1) On and from the date when this Scheme comes into operation until such time as the Post Office ® may determine under paragraph 33(2), the sums chargeable under this Scheme shall be those set out in this Scheme as amended from time to time.
 33(2) The Post Office ® may at any time after the coming into operation of this Scheme, and from time to time thereafter, determine that different sums chargeable under this Scheme shall be substituted for all or any of such sums chargeable under this Scheme and such substituted sums shall be applicable on and after such day as may be so determined. Such substituted sums (or any of them) may be determined on such basis and subject to such conditions and limitations as the Post Office ® may think fit.

Terms and Conditions Relating to Submission of Notices

The Gazette (which includes the London, Belfast and Edinburgh Gazette) is the Official Public Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been published by Authority since 1665. The Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "The Gazette" shall include the London, Belfast and Edinburgh and any supplements to the Gazette, as well as all mediums, including the online and paper versions of the Gazette.

The Gazette is published by the Publisher (as defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office at The National Archives. Notices received for publication can fall under the following broad headings:

Church, Companies, Education and Qualifications, Environment and Infrastructure, Health and Medicine, Money, Parliament and Assemblies, People, Royal Family and State. Further information can be found at www.thegazette.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to The Gazette. By submitting Notices, howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.thegazette.co.uk (the "Website") or by email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. Where the Advertiser is acting as an agent or as a representative of a principal, the Advertiser warrants that the principal agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified terms and conditions. By submitting Notices to The Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser, including any principal, agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions: "Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has requested to place a Notice in The Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal; "Authorised Scale of Charges" means the scale of charges set out at in the printed copy of the Gazette or at <https://www.thegazette.co.uk/place-notice/pricing> as modified from time to time; "Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges; "Notice" means all advertisements and state, public, legal or other notices (without limitation) placed in The Gazette; "Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited, with registered company number 03049649.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and

1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the parties in relation to the publication of Notices in The Gazette and which every Notice shall be subject to. For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail over any other terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing which the parties agree shall not apply, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher reserves the right, to be exercised at its sole and absolute discretion, to make reasonable efforts to verify the validity of the Advertiser.

4 The Publisher may, at its sole and absolute discretion, edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser will not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions, amendments or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 subject to clause 5 below, no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1 - 4.5 above) shall be made without confirmation from the Advertiser.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Advertiser agrees and accepts that, subject to the limited rights to edit any Notice referred to above, it is the Advertiser that shall be solely responsible for the content of any Notice, including its validity and accuracy and that the Publisher shall not be responsible for, nor shall have any liability in respect of such content in any way whatsoever.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication or the timing of any publication of a Notice, such decision to be final. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legal, statutory and/or procedural requirements and accuracy relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice, in the publisher's sole opinion, may not comply with any such requirements. In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of any action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 Neither the Publisher nor The National Archives (or any successor organisation) (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and/or employees) shall be liable for any liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs (including on a full indemnity basis) and other professional costs and/or expenses) suffered or incurred, howsoever arising (including negligence), whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher, The National Archives and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party (including, without limitation, any principal of the Advertiser) or arising out of or made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's or The National Archives' negligence or the negligence of the their agents, subcontractors and/or or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 6 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error including which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon becoming aware of such error, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and full extent of the limit of the Publishers liability in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes, in its sole opinion, an Advertiser is submitting Notices in bad faith, is in breach of clause 11 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in breach of these Terms and Conditions or has breached such Terms and Conditions previously, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by the Advertiser and may, at its sole and absolute discretion, delay publication of those Notices until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in The Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of The Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading, nor does it contain potentially fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any law (statutory or otherwise) nor is it in any way illegal, defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice (as amended and updated from time to time), nor is it subject to any court order prohibiting such publication.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise, relating to the placing of any Notices.

13 The Advertiser agrees to fully indemnify and hold the Publisher and The National Archives (or any successor organisation), including any affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and employees harmless from all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including, without limitation) any direct, indirect, consequential and/or special losses and/or damage, loss of profit, loss of reputation and/or goodwill and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and/or expenses (including legal costs) suffered or incurred (including negligence) in respect of any matter arising out of, in connection with or relating to any Notice, including (without limitation) in respect of any claim and/or demand (including threatened and/or potential claims or demands) made by any third party which may constitute a breach, threatened and/or potential breach by the Advertiser (or their principal) of these Terms and Conditions or any breach and/or potential breach by the Advertiser of any law and/or any of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such applicable claims, demands or potential claims or demands are handled but the Publisher shall retain the sole, absolute and final decision on all aspects of any matter arising from the aforementioned indemnity, including the choice of instructing legal representatives, steps taken in or related litigation and/or decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall use best endeavours to provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request including in respect of any principal (if applicable) and including, without limitation, the provision of and/or access to witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents and/or any evidence, including supporting any associated litigation and/or dispute resolution process.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.thegazette.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice, as well as from any other medium in which the Notice has been placed that is controlled by The Gazette, where possible. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim, threatened or suspected claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Publisher, whose decision in respect of such matter shall be final. Other than withdrawal of a Notice following a claim or threatened claim, withdrawal of a Notice post-publication shall take place only upon the written instructions of The National Archives (or any successor organisation) or if there is a credible claim that the continuing presence of a Notice endangers an individual's personal safety or a request is received from any applicable regulatory and/or enforcement authorities.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in The Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher for and on behalf of the Crown, all rights, including but not limited to, copyright and/or other such intellectual property rights (as applicable) in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity in respect of any Notice (including any activity in the preparation of such Notice for publication in The Gazette) by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party. For the avoidance of doubt, all Notices and any content therein shall be Crown copyright and may be subject to the Open Government Licence (or any variation thereof).

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of The Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible in the public interest and that the information contained in the Notices published in The Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose and that such use may be beyond the control of The Gazette. In such instances, the Publisher accepts and the Advertiser agrees that the Publisher shall have no liability whatsoever in respect of such use by third parties.

17 The Advertiser acknowledges and agrees that the publication of any Notice is subject to any court order and/or direction of the court or such other regulatory and/or enforcement authorities including the Information Commissioner's Office, the police, the Financial Conduct Authority (and such other related regulatory organisations), the Solicitors Regulation Authority and such other authorities as may be applicable (without limitation) and that the Publisher may delay, refuse to publish or withdraw from publication if it has received evidence to that effect and may not publish such notice until it has received written evidence from the court (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) that demonstrates that any previous order and/or direction has been withdrawn and/or is no longer applicable (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) and/or, subject to any statutory and/or applicable laws, The Gazette may share information and/or data related to the Notice and/or the Advertiser's account related to such authorities and the Advertiser hereby consents to such disclosure(s).

18 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher in writing. The Charges must be paid in full by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher in respect of the payment of such Charges (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

19 If the Advertiser wishes to make a complaint, all such complaints shall be submitted in writing to customer.services@thegazette.co.uk

20 Save in respect of The National Archives (or any successor organisation), a person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

21 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
