ELECTRICITY ACT 1989

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (SCOTLAND) ACT 1997

THE ELECTRICITY WORKS (ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT) (SCOTLAND) REGULATIONS 2000

Notice is hereby given that Dulater Hill Wind Park Limited, (Company Registration Number: 6439166) whose registered office is situated at Beaumont House, 172 Southgate Street, Gloucester, Gloucestershire, GL1 2EZ has applied to the Scottish Ministers for consent to construct and operate a wind farm on agricultural grazing land north of the A923, near the village of Butterstone in Perth and Kinross (Central Grid Reference NO091482). Dulater Hill Wind Park Limited is a subsidiary of Ecotricity Group Limited. The installed capacity of the proposed generating station would be up to 57.8 MW comprising 17 turbines with a ground to blade tip height of up to 125 metres.

Dulater Hill Wind Park Limited has also applied for a direction under Section 57(2) of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 that planning permission for the development be deemed to be granted.

A copy of the application, with a plan showing the land to which it relates, together with a copy of the Environmental Statement discussing the Company’s proposals in more detail and presenting an analysis of the environmental implications, are available for inspection, free of charge, during normal office hours at:

The Environmental Statement can also be viewed at the Scottish Government Library at Victoria Quay, Edinburgh, EH6 6QQ.

Copies of the Environmental Statement may be obtained from Chris Gregg (Tel: 01453 769334) at a charge of £500 hard copy and CD’s free of charge. Copies of a short non-technical summary are available free of charge.

Any representations to the application should be made by email to The Scottish Government, Energy Consents Unit mailbox at representations@scotland.gsi.gov.uk or by post to: The Scottish Government, Energy Consents Unit, 5 Atlantic Quay, 150 Broomielaw, Glasgow, G2 8LU, identifying the proposal and specifying the grounds for representation, not later than Friday the 15th of August 2014.

Representations should be dated and should clearly state the name (in block capitals), full return email and postal address of those making representations. Only representations sent by email to the address stipulated will receive acknowledgement.

When initial comments from statutory consultees are received further public notices will give advice on how this information may be viewed by members of the public, and how representations may be made to Scottish Ministers. During the consideration of the proposal, Scottish Ministers may formally request further information to supplement the Environmental Statement and this will also be advertised in such a manner.

As a result of a statutory objection from the relevant planning authority, or where Scottish Ministers decide to exercise their discretion to do so, Scottish Ministers can also cause a Public Local Inquiry (PLI) to be held.

Following receipt of all views and representations, Scottish Ministers will determine the application for consent in one of two ways:

- Consent the proposal, with or without conditions attached; or
- Reject the proposal

Fair Processing Notice

The Scottish Government Energy Consents and Deployment Unit process applications under The Electricity Act 1989. During the consultation process letters of representation can be sent to Scottish Ministers in support of or objecting to these applications.

Should Scottish Ministers call a Public Local Inquiry (PLI), copies of these representations will be sent to the Directorate of Planning and Environmental Appeals for the Reporter to consider during the inquiry. These representations will be posted on their website with personal email address, signature and home telephone number redacted (blacked out).

Copies of representations will also be issued to the developer on request, again with email address, signature and home telephone number redacted.

You can choose to mark your representation as confidential, in which case it will only be considered by Scottish Ministers and will not be shared with the Planning Authority, the developer, the Reporter (should a PLI be called) or any other third party.

MIDLOTHIAN COUNCILREDESIGNATION OF CONSERVATION AREAS

TOWN & COUNTRY PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS & CONSERVATION AREAS) (SCOTLAND) ACT 1997, SECTION 61

Notice is hereby given that Midlothian Council, in accordance with the powers conferred on it by the abovementioned Act, has cancelled the following Conservation Area designations as made previously (either by Midlothian Council or its predecessors), and has redesignated these Conservation Areas under, and for the same purposes of, the same Acts:

- 1) Mavisbank
- 2) Lasswade & Kevoek
- 4) Eskbank & Ironmills
- 5) Penicuik

Designation of Conservation Areas

Town & Country Planning (Listed Buildings & Conservation Areas) (Scotland) Act 1997, Section 61

Notice is hereby given that Midlothian Council, in accordance with the powers conferred on it by the abovementioned Act, had designated the following Conservation Areas:

- 1) Mavisbank
- 2) Lasswade & Kevoek

- 4) Eskbank & Ironmills
- 5) Penicuik
- 6) Dalhousie

The effects of such designation is: (i) that the Council must pay special attention to the desirability of preserving or enhancing the character and appearance of the Conservation Area when exercising its powers under planning legislation; (ii) that demolition of any building in the area requires the written permission of the Council; and (iii) that all trees in the area shall be regarded as though they are protected by a Tree Preservation Order and the Council's consent is required for the cutting down, uprooting and topping or lopping of any trees.

A description of the boundaries and extent of these new conservation areas is as follows.

Mavisbank

The boundary of Mavisbank Conservation Area starts at the entrance of Braeside Road (in Loanhead) and continues east and north-east along A768 until it reaches just short of the entrance to Kevoek Road in Lasswade. It then travels south following the rear boundaries of the properties on the west side of Kevoek Road. Upon going around the boundaries of Kevoek Cottage, the boundary then joins up with the Kevoek Road before following it to the east. Upon reaching the entrance to Kevoek Vale Caravan Park, the boundary continues east and north east, with the wooded areas to the north, to meet up with West Mill Road. The boundary then continues to follow this road north-east and east until reaching the bend in the road to the north.

The boundary then cuts across to the south-east to join up with Polton Road and follows this to the south-west, south and south-west again, before stopping at the entrance of The Nursery (street name). It then travels around the houses at the Nursery (north-west, west and then south-east) before following Bonnyrigg's northern built edge (behind the houses at Farm Row and then following the roadline of Polton Bank), until reaching the eastern boundary of St Anns Mount.

The boundary then goes around the property boundaries of St Anns Mount and De Quincey Cottage (including these in the Conservation Area) before meeting Polton Bank again at the end of the tree line to the west of De Quincey Cottage. Here it follows the tree line south-west into the field. Upon reaching the access road to the south (The West) of Springfield Farm, the boundary follows it to the north until it reaches Polton Bank again, which the boundary then follows to the north into Loanhead until it reaches the junction with Polton Road. Here it continues north following the edge of Loanhead until it reaches the junction between the High Street, Fowler Crescent and Linden Place. It then follows Linden Place to the east before ending at the junction of Braeside Road.

Lasswade & Kevoek

The Conservation Area boundary runs from the entrance of Pittendrieh House on Melville Dykes Road to the south around the grounds of both Pittendrieh House and Nazareth House. Upon reaching the properties at Hillhead Court. It then follows the northern edge of this housing estate before reaching the main road. It then goes south until reaching the junction with the Wee Brae. The boundary follows this road until reaching the properties at Melville View where it travels along the rear curtilages before travelling south along Polton Road. Upon reaching 24 Polton Road, the boundary goes west along the southern boundary of Kevoek Caravan Park and along the northern boundary of the viaduct and disused railway until it reaches just beyond Kevoek Cottage. The boundary then turns north along the line of the cartilages of the properties on Kevoek Road (including these properties within the Conservation Area), until it reaches Wadingburn Road. It continues north-east along Wadingburn Road until it reaches just north of Greenhill House. It then goes east behind Greenhill House until it reaches Church Road, which it follows east until reaching the graveyard to the north of Lasswade Cemetery.

Upon reaching the boundary of Lasswade Cemetery, the Conservation Area boundary goes to the north-east, including Droman House, until it reaches the Lasswade Road. It then travels east along this road until reaching 20 High Street, Lasswade on the north side of this road. The boundary then travels north and then to the east to include this and the neighbouring property. The boundary stops travelling east upon reaching the river.

The boundary follows the North Esk River north, east and then south until it reaches the Sewage Works at Middlemills. It goes around these Sewage Works so as to exclude them from the Conservation Area, to then join the River North Esk again. The boundary continues to follow the River North Esk to the south-east (including the properties at Middlemills) until reaching the group of trees.

The boundary then heads south, following the line of trees before stopping at Melville Dykes Road. It then travels north-east along this road before reaching the entrance to Pittendreich House.

Eskbank & Ironmills

The boundary begins at the junction between Newbattle Road and Abbey Road from where it follows Abbey Road to the north-west. Upon reaching the junction with Croft Street, the boundary wraps behind the two properties on the corner and then follows Croft Street to the north-west until it reaches the junction with Eskbank Road. Here it travels north-east for a short distance until it reaches the crossroads with Buccleuch Street and High Street. Here it follows Old Dalkeith Road to the north until reaching the junction with Edinburgh Road. It then follows Edinburgh Road to the north, following the bend turning west at the junction with Lugton, until it reaches the bend. It then travels south-west away from the road, along the tree line of High Wood before heading west following the River North Esk. At the Elginhaugh Bridge, the boundary follows the Gilmerton Road to the south-east until it reaches the bridge over the cycle path at the former Telephone Exchange. Here it follows the route of the path south, until it reaches the northern tip of Hardengreen Industrial Estate, where it travels between this and the properties at Strawberry Bank, travelling south-east. The boundary then follows the access road for the industrial estate to the east and at the junction with Dalhousie Road, it follows the road north and then east following the rear boundaries of the properties on Dalhousie Crescent to the east then south-east. It then follows the access for the police station, travelling north-east where it meets the junction with Newmills Road.

Penicuik

The Conservation Area boundary begins at the corner of Bridge Street and Cairnbank Road. It then travels to the south-west until it reaches the first corner. It then travels north along the rear boundaries of the properties on Croft Street. Prior to reaching West Street, the boundary wraps around the back and side of the 30-32 West Street, following Bog Road to the north until reaching the property boundary of the Navaar House Hotel, which it wraps around. It then crosses the street to the east to wrap around the boundaries of 24 then 22 Bog Road before heading east along the boundaries between West Street and Bank Street until it reaches Lamb's Pend. The boundary follows this north until reaching Bank Street where it travels north-east along Bank Street before heading north along the rear boundaries of the properties facing onto John Street. Upon reaching 30 John Street, it goes east until reaching John Street itself where it goes south, following the front of the properties along John Street. Upon reaching the junction with High Street it goes behind the Royal Hotel to the east and continues south until reaching High Street. The boundary then follows the loop of High Street starting in an easterly direction, where upon meeting John Street again it goes north following the road.

Upon reaching the corner with Eskhill the boundary goes east past the entrance Tait Drive until reaching the end of the park to the south. It then follows the eastern edge of the park until reaching the Health Centre, where it follows the line of Imrie Place in an east then south-east direction until it reaches Kirkhill Road. It then goes south-east between the grounds of St Mungo's Church and the rear boundaries of the properties at St Mungo's View, where it continues travelling south-east along the northern edge of the wooded area in the Esk Valley. Upon reaching High Park, the boundary goes north along the eastern boundary of 2 Waulkmill Drive where it meets a path going through High Park. The boundary follows this path to the east/south-east until reaching the other side of the North Esk.

The boundary then follows the eastern edge of the Esk to the south-west. Upon reaching the rear of 22 Lower Valleyfield View it travels south until reaching the boundaries of the properties at Pomathorn Bank, where it travels around these property boundaries, going west and then south until reaching Pomathorn Road. The boundary then follows Pomathorn Road to the east and then the south until it reaches the bend in the road at Uttershill Castle.

The boundary then goes west, cutting through the field but keeping the Castle in the conservation area, and then west/south-west, cutting through the wooded valley where it meets the corner of the property of 20/22 Peebles road. It then goes west, following the boundary, then north upon reaching Peebles Road. When it is opposite the properties on the west side of Peebles Road, it travels west across the road and then follows the property boundaries going west, north, west, north then east. It then follows the western edge of the road to the north until the boundary stops at the corner of Cairnbank Road and Bridge Street.

Dalhousie

The Conservation Area boundary begins at the Dalhousie Bridge over the South River Esk. It follows this river north until reaching just south of Craigs House. It then travels north-west until reaching the Carrington Road.

The boundary then follows the Carrington Road south-east until reaching the eastern corner of the graveyard at Cockpen Church. It then follows the Church's boundary north-west before stopping at the eastern boundary of the newer cemetery next to it. It then travels north, along the eastern boundary of the cemetery, and then west, along its northern boundary, before stopping at Cockpen Road.

The boundary then follows Cockpen Road south before reaching the northern corner of The Rowans. It then follows the boundaries of The Rowans and the Glebe House before stopping at the Dalhousie Burn. It then travels west and south-west along the burn before stopping at the western corner of Dalhousie Grange. It then travels south-east along the boundary of Dalhousie Grange before reaching the Cockpen Road.

The boundary then crosses the Cockpen Road and wraps around the northern and eastern boundaries of Dalhousie Business Park, keeping the trees adjoining the park within the Conservation Area. It stops at the southern corner of the Park and at the point where the tree line stops. The boundary then follows the tree-line east and south before stopping at the Castle Dean Wood.

The boundary then goes south-east, cutting across Castle Dean Burn and Castle Dean Wood, and follows the tree line on the other side. The boundary continues to follow this tree line (cutting across the group of trees that project into the field to the south) until reaching the South River Esk.

The boundary then travels east across the river and up the slope on the other side until it reaches the tree line with the field on the other side of the valley. It then proceeds to travel north following the tree line until reaching Glenesk. The boundary then goes east and then north around this and the neighbouring property before continuing north to meet up with the B704. It then follows this road north-west until reaching the Dalhousie Bridge. (2163762)

Terms and Conditions Relating to Submission of Notices

The Gazette (which includes the London, Belfast and Edinburgh Gazette) is the Official Public Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been published by Authority since 1665. The Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "The Gazette" shall include the London, Belfast and Edinburgh and any supplements to the Gazette, as well as all mediums, including the online and paper versions of the Gazette.

The Gazette is published by the Publisher (as defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office at The National Archives. Notices received for publication can fall under the following broad headings:

Church, Companies, Education and Qualifications, Environment and Infrastructure, Health and Medicine, Money, Parliament and Assemblies, People, Royal Family and State. Further information can be found at www.thegazette.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to The Gazette. By submitting Notices, howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.thegazette.co.uk (the "Website") or by email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. Where the Advertiser is acting as an agent or as a representative of a principal, the Advertiser warrants that the principal agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified terms and conditions. By submitting Notices to The Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser, including any principal, agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions: "Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has requested to place a Notice in The Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal; "Authorised Scale of Charges" means the scale of charges set out at in the printed copy of the Gazette or at <https://www.thegazette.co.uk/place-notice/pricing> as modified from time to time; "Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges; "Notice" means all advertisements and state, public, legal or other notices (without limitation) placed in The Gazette; "Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited, with registered company number 03049649.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and

1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the parties in relation to the publication of Notices in The Gazette and which every Notice shall be subject to. For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail over any other terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing which the parties agree shall not apply, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher reserves the right, to be exercised at its sole and absolute discretion, to make reasonable efforts to verify the validity of the Advertiser.

4 The Publisher may, at its sole and absolute discretion, edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser will not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions, amendments or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 subject to clause 5 below, no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1 - 4.5 above) shall be made without confirmation from the Advertiser.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Advertiser agrees and accepts that, subject to the limited rights to edit any Notice referred to above, it is the Advertiser that shall be solely responsible for the content of any Notice, including its validity and accuracy and that the Publisher shall not be responsible for, nor shall have any liability in respect of such content in any way whatsoever.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication or the timing of any publication of a Notice, such decision to be final. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legal, statutory and/or procedural requirements and accuracy relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice, in the publisher's sole opinion, may not comply with any such requirements. In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of any action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 Neither the Publisher nor The National Archives (or any successor organisation) (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and/or employees) shall be liable for any liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs (including on a full indemnity basis) and other professional costs and/or expenses) suffered or incurred, howsoever arising (including negligence), whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher, The National Archives and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party (including, without limitation, any principal of the Advertiser) or arising out of or made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's or The National Archives' negligence or the negligence of the their agents, subcontractors and/or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 6 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error including which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon becoming aware of such error, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and full extent of the limit of the Publishers liability in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes, in its sole opinion, an Advertiser is submitting Notices in bad faith, is in breach of clause 11 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in breach of these Terms and Conditions or has breached such Terms and Conditions previously, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by the Advertiser and may, at its sole and absolute discretion, delay publication of those Notices until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in The Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of The Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading, nor does it contain potentially fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any law (statutory or otherwise) nor is it in any way illegal, defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice (as amended and updated from time to time), nor is it subject to any court order prohibiting such publication.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise, relating to the placing of any Notices.

13 The Advertiser agrees to fully indemnify and hold the Publisher and The National Archives (or any successor organisation), including any affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and employees harmless from all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including, without limitation) any direct, indirect, consequential and/or special losses and/or damage, loss of profit, loss of reputation and/or goodwill and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and/or expenses (including legal costs) suffered or incurred (including negligence) in respect of any matter arising out of, in connection with or relating to any Notice, including (without limitation) in respect of any claim and/or demand (including threatened and/or potential claims or demands) made by any third party which may constitute a breach, threatened and/or potential breach by the Advertiser (or their principal) of these Terms and Conditions or any breach and/or potential breach by the Advertiser of any law and/or any of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such applicable claims, demands or potential claims or demands are handled but the Publisher shall retain the sole, absolute and final decision on all aspects of any matter arising from the aforementioned indemnity, including the choice of instructing legal representatives, steps taken in or related litigation and/or decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall use best endeavours to provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request including in respect of any principal (if applicable) and including, without limitation, the provision of and/or access to witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents and/or any evidence, including supporting any associated litigation and/or dispute resolution process.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.thegazette.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice, as well as from any other medium in which the Notice has been placed that is controlled by The Gazette, where possible. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim, threatened or suspected claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Publisher, whose decision in respect of such matter shall be final. Other than withdrawal of a Notice following a claim or threatened claim, withdrawal of a Notice post-publication shall take place only upon the written instructions of The National Archives (or any successor organisation) or if there is a credible claim that the continuing presence of a Notice endangers an individual's personal safety or a request is received from any applicable regulatory and/or enforcement authorities.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in The Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher for and on behalf of the Crown, all rights, including but not limited to, copyright and/or other such intellectual property rights (as applicable) in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity in respect of any Notice (including any activity in the preparation of such Notice for publication in The Gazette) by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party. For the avoidance of doubt, all Notices and any content therein shall be Crown copyright and may be subject to the Open Government Licence (or any variation thereof).

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of The Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible in the public interest and that the information contained in the Notices published in The Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose and that such use may be beyond the control of The Gazette. In such instances, the Publisher accepts and the Advertiser agrees that the Publisher shall have no liability whatsoever in respect of such use by third parties.

17 The Advertiser acknowledges and agrees that the publication of any Notice is subject to any court order and/or direction of the court or such other regulatory and/or enforcement authorities including the Information Commissioner's Office, the police, the Financial Conduct Authority (and such other related regulatory organisations), the Solicitors Regulation Authority and such other authorities as may be applicable (without limitation) and that the Publisher may delay, refuse to publish or withdraw from publication if it has received evidence to that effect and may not publish such notice until it has received written evidence from the court (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) that demonstrates that any previous order and/or direction has been withdrawn and/or is no longer applicable (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) and/or, subject to any statutory and/or applicable laws, The Gazette may share information and/or data related to the Notice and/or the Advertiser's account related to such authorities and the Advertiser hereby consents to such disclosure(s).

18 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher in writing. The Charges must be paid in full by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher in respect of the payment of such Charges (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

19 If the Advertiser wishes to make a complaint, all such complaints shall be submitted in writing to customer.services@thegazette.co.uk

20 Save in respect of The National Archives (or any successor organisation), a person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

21 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
