HORSE-GUARDS—FEBRUARY 1, 1820.

Orders for Mourning for the Army, for his late Majesty King George the Third.

His Majesty does not require, that the Officers of the Army should wear any other mourning, with their uniforms, on the present melancholy occasion, than black crape over the ornamental part of the cap or hat, the sword-knot, and on the left arm, with the following exceptions, viz.

Officers on duty are to wear black gloves, black crape over the ornamental part of the cap or hat, the sword-knot, and on the left arm; the sash covered with black crape: black gorget ribbon; and a black crape scarf over the right shoulder.

The drums are to be covered with black, and black crape is to be hung from the pike of the colour staff of infantry, and from the standard staff and trumpets of cavalry.

When Officers appear at Court in their uniforms, they are to wear black crape over the ornamental part of the cap or hat, the sword-knot, and on the left arm; a black crape scarf over the right shoulder; black waistcoat, breeches, stockings, and buckles.

By command of his Royal Highness the Commander in Chief,

HARRY CALVERT, Adjutant-General.

ADMIRALTY OFFICE—FEBRUARY 1, 1820.

His Majesty does not require, that the Officers of the Fleet should wear any other mourning on the present melancholy occasion, with their undress uniforms, than black crapes on their left arms, hats, and sword-knots; nor with their dress uniforms, than black gloves, and black crapes on their left arms, hats and sword-knots; except at Court, when they are to wear also black waistcoats, breeches, stockings, and buckles: nor that the Officers of the Royal Marines should wear any other mourning with their uniforms, than black crapes on their left arms, hats, and sword-knots; except on duty, when they are to wear also black gloves, and the sash covered with black, black gorget ribbons, and black crape scarfs over their right shoulders; and except at Court, when they are to wear black crapes on their left arms, hats, and sword-knots, black crape scarfs over their right shoulders, and black waistcoats, breeches, stockings, and buckles.

The drums of the Royal Marines are to be covered with black; and a black crape is to be hung from the pike of the divisional colour-staff.
