FIFE COUNCILTHE PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) (SCOTLAND) ACT 1997*NOTICE OF CANCELLATION AND RE-DESIGNATION OF ABERDOUR, CHARLESTOWN, CULROSS, INVERKEITHING, KINCARDINE, LIMEKILNS, NORTH QUEENSFERRY AND PATTIESMUIR CONSERVATION AREAS

NOTICE is hereby given that in accordance with Section 61 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) (Scotland) Act 1997 the Fife Council has cancelled the existing Aberdour, Charlestown, Culross, Inverkeithing, Kincardine, Limekilns, North Queensferry and Pattiesmuir Conservation Areas and simultaneously re-designated them with altered boundaries.

The effect of the designation is that planning applications in all conservation areas, including the amended areas outlined above, will be required to conform to Fife Council Policy on development in conservation areas. All buildings within Conservation Areas, whether or not they are listed buildings, are protected by law and may not be demolished without consent from the Council. Certain alterations and other developments will also require consent. Trees are also protected by law and the written consent of the Council must be obtained before lopping, pruning, pollarding, felling or uprooting any tree. Any proposed development in, or adjacent to, a Conservation Area which could affect its character must be advertised. Only applications for full planning permission will be accepted for any development. In assessing development proposals, special consideration will be given to the preservation or enhancement of the character of the Conservation Area.

Copies of these amended boundaries and guidance relating to development in conservation areas can be viewed online at www.fifedirect.org.uk/ConservationAreas. The new conservation area boundaries are as follows:

Aberdour Conservation Area

Commencing at a point at the north-west corner of St Columba's Church, the Conservation Area boundary runs along Inverkeithing Road towards the north-west corner of the Countess of Moray Hospital plot. From there, it turns left and continues towards the front of No.4 St Colme Crescent, where it turns right and runs along the rear of Westend Cottage and Reneville before stopping at the north-eastern corner of Brooklyn plot. From there, the boundary turns left and runs directly towards the eastern rear of No.16 St Colme Crescent, turning right at this point towards the middle of the western boundary of Holly Hill, before turning right again and stopping at the south-western corner of Holly Hill plot. From there, the boundary line extends towards 92a High Street and curves round the southern boundary of this plot and continues towards the north-western corner of Woodside Hotel, turning left and stopping at the south-west corner of Sand Dollar House plot. The boundary line takes a right turn and cuts through the dividing line between Ashley and Sub Station plots, stopping at the south-eastern corner of the Ashley plot before turning right again and extending towards the northern tip of No.72 High Street. From No.72 High Street, the boundary line runs along the rear properties of No.68 and No.40 High Street, cutting across the heart of the Aberdour Hotel plot and stopping at the centre point of the Grave Yard west boundary. From there, the boundary meanders around the Grave Yard by turning left and right, running along the rear of properties towards the Station Place Bridge. The boundary line crosses the bridge and runs along the northern periphery of the railway line eastbound before turning right and extending towards No.12 Hewitt Place, sitting south of the Aberdour Station car park. At this point, the boundary turns left and continues in a north-easterly direction along the path adjacent to Aberdour Castle and stops at Hawkcraig Road, next to the bridge that crosses the railway track. From the Hawkcraig Road bridge, the boundary line turns right and meanders around the plot of St Fillan's Church, before stopping at the south-eastern corner of the Alwyn House plot. Continuously, the boundary line runs along the rear of properties from Alwyn House to No.35 Hawksraig Road, turning right towards the starting point of the Aberdour Harbour Slipway and takes another turn left, running along the Hawks Craig path next to the harbour. The boundary line turns right and cuts across the harbour towards Dour Burn, turns left again and runs along the Mean Low Water Springs towards the Club House. From there, the boundary line runs northbound along the periphery of the Aberdour Golf Course and stops at Dovecot Park. The boundary line continues north along the frontage of plot No.2

Charlestown Conservation Area

Commencing at a point at the end of the disused pier at Charlestown, the Conservation Area boundary extends along the southern periphery of the sloping masonry and Mooring Posts, before turning right along the rectangle-shaped dock until it reaches Eastbourne Road. From there, the boundary line turns left and continues towards West Harbour Road where it diverts off the road and runs along the rear of plots No.2 to No.8 West Harbour Road and carries on northbound towards West Road at the north-western corner of the Cricket Ground. At the Cricket Ground, the boundary turns right and runs along West Road towards the south-eastern corner of Ardshiel plot, where it turns left and follows the rear boundaries of all the plots on Rocks Road, North Row and Queen's Hall, turning right near the north-eastern corner of the Bowling Green until it meets Main Road. From there, the boundary line turns left and continues towards the Shelter at Main Road, where it turns right and continues along the harbour coast until it reaches the starting point in this description at the tip of the disused Pier.

Culross Conservation Area

Commencing at a point at the tip of Culross Pier, the boundary continues along the western periphery of this structure towards the sloping masonry of the Culross waterfront. From that meeting point, the boundary turns left and extends towards the Rock, before turning right and cutting through Balgowrie West and meeting the woodland next to Balgowrie Stables. The boundary line continues northbound by going up the track adjacent to the woodlands and stops where two tracks intersect. At this point, the boundary turns right and continues eastbound up the path until it reaches the junction next to Park Lodge, where it turns left and proceeds up Gallows Loan for approx. 100m where a cross junction is found. From the cross junction, the conservation area boundary turns right and moves to the northern side of the path where it follows the southern boundary of the plot, situated north of this path, in a south-easterly direction. The boundary stops again directly north of the cattle grid that is situated on the road to Abbey Mansion House, and crosses this cattle grid meandering in a south-easterly direction until it reaches the junction of Low Causeway and Veere Park. At this junction, the boundary extends southbound along the eastern periphery of Dochart Cottage and Tigh Ansteisein before crossing the railway tracks thence turns right and proceeds along the sloping masonry of the harbour westbound. The boundary line runs along the waterfront towards Culross Pier, where it turns left and meets up with the starting point of the CA boundary at the tip of Culross Pier.

Inverkeithing Conservation Area

Commencing at a point at the south-eastern corner of the car park next to Inverkeithing Baptist Church, the boundary line extends eastbound towards the western periphery of the railway tracks, next to the street end circular turning area of Boreland Road. The boundary line continues along the periphery of the railway track, southbound, where it turns left at No.3 Heriot Street and goes around the plot of No.2 Heriot Street, before turning right and running along the path in front of No.6 to No.8a. From No.8a, the boundary line turns right and in a south-easterly direction extends along the eastern boundary of Whites Lodge where, at the south-eastern point of the plot, meets the western periphery of the railway track again and continues along this boundary until it reaches the south-eastern corner of Friary Gardens, where it turns right and continues along Abbot Place. Where the boundary line reaches the centre point of the Abbot Place, it turns right and cuts across the car park and runs above the tunnel that shelters the railway tracks before turning left and running along the northern boundary of the Inverkeithing Civic Centre towards the Museum. At the Museum, the CA boundary cuts across the High Street and runs south of No.89 and No.91 High Street, turning right onto Greig Court and turning right again onto the north of No.91, and from there runs behind all of the properties that stand on the High Street until plot No.33, where it turns left and runs along the front of plots on the eastern side of Back O'Yards. Next to the electricity sub-station, the boundary line turns right and runs towards the Queen's Hotel, turning left towards Fordel's Lodging and meandering around this plot to get to the north-eastern point of the Church Hall. From there, the boundary line runs northbound up the High Street towards the starting point at the Baptist Church car park.

Kincardine Conservation Area

Commencing at a point at the south-eastern corner of No.51 Hawkhill Road, the boundary extends north for approx. 30 metres before turning right and running along to the north-eastern point of land north of No.34 Hawkhill Road. From there, the boundary extends towards the north-eastern point of No.28 Hawkhill Road, before turning left to the most northerly point of No.25 Chapelhill Street and turning right and then left towards Chapelhill. The boundary meanders round Chapelhill and directly extends southbound along the front of properties situated to the west of Kilbagie Street. At No.99 Kilbagie Street, the boundary turns left and extends along the path to the north of No.100, turning around this plot and extending along the rear of properties on the eastern side of Kilbagie Street until it reaches Windrush, on Ramsay Lane. At Windrush, the boundary turns right towards the Ramsay Lane junction with Kilbagie Street and turns left, meandering towards the Elphinstone Street and Station Road junction. At the mouth of Elphinstone Street, the boundary turns left and extends around the rear of No.24 and 22. Elphinstone Street along the rear of No.26 and No.28 Ramsay Lane, stopping at the south-eastern corner of Plot No.28 and turning left towards the turning area of Ramsay Lane. From there, the boundary turns right and moves in between plots No.19 and No.33 towards the A977. After crossing the A977, the boundary carries on northbound along the rear of properties between No.7 and No.23 Kirk Street, turning right and then left along the western periphery of Kirk Street and turning left at Sir Robert Maule Place where it continues towards No.63 Glebe Road. From the south-western point of No.63 Glebe Road, the boundary line turns right and runs along the northern boundary of the Church and turns left, only to extend to the northerly tip of Burnbrae Farmhouse plot. From there, the boundary line extends northbound along the western edge of Kirk Brae, turning left before plot No.19 and turning right at the south-western point of this plot, extending towards the north-western point and turning right to the centre of the northern plot boundary. The boundary turns left and extends along the rear of No.25 Kirk Brae and turns right at the north-western corner and moves towards plot No.28. From the front of No.28 Kirk Brae, the boundary moves northbound and turns right at the north-western corner of plot No.30, goes around it and moves southbound along the rear of all the properties on the eastern side of Kirk Brae towards No.2, where it joins Woodlea and moves southbound towards the Sandeman Court junction. From there, it turns left and at the north-eastern corner of the Hall, turns right and move southbound again along the rear of properties between No.66 and The Loan, where it turns left to go round the Community Centre plot towards the A977. Crossing the A977 next to No.23 Anderson Lane, the boundary line turns left and continues eastbound towards the Regent Street junction where it turns right and extends towards the frontage of No.25 Regent Street, turning left and running towards the most easterly corner of Parklands at Mill Lane. From that point, the boundary continues westbound along Mill Lane and turns right towards the north-eastern corner of Thane Stone Cottage, turning left towards George Street before turning right towards the north-western corner of No.2 Regent Street and left again towards the Nursing Home. The boundary moves up the eastern periphery of the Nursing Home, turning left along the rear of properties from No.20 to No.12 Mercer Street and continues along the southern boundary of the Silver Street Car Park until it reaches the A876. From the A876, the boundary turns left and crosses the railway tracks towards the south-western corner of the jetty, before turning right and reaching the tip of the pier to the north of Kincardine Bridge. The boundary meanders round the pier and moves in a north north-easterly direction towards the level crossing, before running along the rear of properties on the eastern side of Ochilview from No.16 to No.1. From the north-eastern corner of plot No.1 of Ochilview, the boundary moves towards the north-eastern corner of No.43 Kilbagie Street, taking a left turn and going round No.45 before moving along the rear of properties on the western side of Kilbagie Street from No.51 to the north-western corner of No.97. From No.97 Kilbagie Street, the boundary turns left and moves along the rear of properties to the western side of Hawkhill Road until it reaches No.51, where it turns right and meets the south-eastern corner of the plot where the conservation boundary starts.

Limekilns Conservation Area

Commencing at the end of the path to the west of the War Memorial, the boundary line extends in an easterly direction just north of the War Memorial towards the dwelling at No.22 Promenade. From there, it turns left and moves to the north-western corner of No.22 plot, turns right and extends along the rear of every plot between No.22 and Robert The Bruce Arms Hotel. From the north-eastern corner of the Robert The Bruce Arms Hotel plot, the boundary line moves up slightly to the south-west corner of No.14 The Old Orchard, where it turns right and moves along the frontage of plots between No.14 The Old Orchard and Dovecot, where it turns left to go round Dovecot and move further down back towards The Old Orchard where it carries on eastbound towards No.1 The Old Orchard. From plot No.1 The Old Orchard, the boundary line extends southbound along the rear of all the properties between No.2 and No.36 Upper Wellheads, turning right and moving along the southern periphery of Orchard Square until it reaches The Wellends, turning right in front of No.26 and extending towards the north-eastern corner of plot No.6. From there, the boundary line turns left behind Forth Cottage and moves along the rear of plots No.4 and No.3 Capernaum Court, including No.4 to No.10 Mylneburn Gardens until it reaches Brucehaven Road. The boundary continues southbound along the eastern side of Brucehaven Road until it reaches the waterfront, turning right and going around the whole of Capernaum Pier and along the waterfront until it reaches the Promenade Pier where it moves towards the tip of this structure. From the tip, the boundary line extends north along the western periphery of the pier and the car park adjacent to it, returning to the Promenade and moving westbound along the waterfront towards the path west of the War Memorial where the conservation area started.

North Queensferry Conservation Area

Commencing at a point on the opposite side of the junction between Ferry Barns Court and Ferry Road, the boundary extends eastbound along Ferry Road towards the ESS, turning left and running through Ferry Lane to the rear of No.29 Inchcolm Drive. From there, the boundary line turns right and extends towards the north-eastern corner of Hope View plot, turning left and moving northbound along Main Road where it meanders around the Lodge and moves eastbound towards the south-western corner of plot No.2 Whinneyknowe. From this point, the boundary line turns right and extends southbound and along the rear of all the plots between No.1 Bridgeview and No.19 Mount Hooly Crescent and carrying on northbound along the western periphery of the railway tracks. Before it reaches the mouth of the tunnel, the boundary line turns right and crosses the railway tracks, then moves southbound along the eastern periphery of the tracks past North Queensferry Station until it reaches the path behind Helen Lane down to the coastal peninsula. From there, the boundary goes across the bay towards the tip of the Wharf, continuing along the waterfront until it reaches Taigh an Rubha. Continuing from the south-west corner of Taigh an Rubha plot, the boundary goes around the Slips and landing stage before going round two of the piers holding up the Forth Rail Bridge and crossing the Forth towards the tip of the West Pier. The boundary runs along the western side of this structure before turning left along the low water springs until it meets Craigdhu Cottage, where it extends alongside the western elevation of this property before stopping at the junction between Ferry Barns Court and Ferry Road, the starting point of the Conservation Area boundary.

Pattiesmuir Conservation Area

Commencing at the north-west corner of plot No.2 Hilton View, the boundary line extends eastbound along the rears of every property between No.2 Hilton View and White Lodge, turning right at the north-eastern corner of White Lodge and moving southbound towards the south-eastern corner of Roseville Cottage plot. From there, the boundary extends along the rear of every property between Roseville Cottage and Westend Cottage, turning right again and moving northbound to the north-west corner of No.2 Hilton View, the starting point of the conservation area boundary. Nature of Business: Retail sale via mail order houses or via internet.

Type of Liquidation: Creditors' Voluntary.

Date of meeting: 18 December 2018.

Time of meeting: 2:00 pm.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to Rule 15.13 of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016, that a virtual meeting of the creditors of the above named Company will be held on the date and time specified in this notice for the purposes mentioned in Section 100 of the Insolvency Act 1986. The Insolvency Practitioner named below is qualified to act in this matter. A list of names and addresses of the Company's creditors may be inspected, free of charge, at the address given below, between 10.00am and 4.00pm on the two business days preceding the date of the meeting.

Resolutions to be taken at the meeting may include a resolution specifying the terms on which the liquidator is to be remunerated, and the meeting may receive information about, or be called upon to approve the costs of preparing the statement of affairs and convening the meeting.

Creditors entitled to attend and vote at the virtual meeting may do so either in person or by proxy. A creditor can attend the virtual meeting in person and vote, and is entitled to vote if they have delivered proof of their debt by no later than 4 pm on the business day before the meeting. If a creditor cannot attend in person, or does not wish to attend, but still wishes to vote at the virtual meeting, they can either nominate a person to attend on their behalf, or they may nominate the Chairman of the virtual meeting, who will be a director of the Company, to vote on their behalf. Such creditors must still submit the proof of their claim by no later than 4 pm on the business day before the meeting but proxies will be accepted by the Chairman up to the commencement of the virtual meeting. For the purposes of voting, any secured creditors are required (unless they surrender their security) to lodge a statement with the Insolvency Practitioners prior to the Meeting, giving particulars of their security, the date when it was given and its assessed value. Creditors must deliver proof of their claim and their proxy using the details provided below.

Terms and Conditions Relating to Submission of Notices

The Gazette (which includes the London, Belfast and Edinburgh Gazette) is the Official Public Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been published by Authority since 1665. The Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "The Gazette" shall include the London, Belfast and Edinburgh and any supplements to the Gazette, as well as all mediums, including the online and paper versions of the Gazette.

The Gazette is published by the Publisher (as defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office at The National Archives. Notices received for publication can fall under the following broad headings:

Church, Companies, Education and Qualifications, Environment and Infrastructure, Health and Medicine, Money, Parliament and Assemblies, People, Royal Family and State. Further information can be found at www.thegazette.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to The Gazette. By submitting Notices, howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.thegazette.co.uk (the "Website") or by email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. Where the Advertiser is acting as an agent or as a representative of a principal, the Advertiser warrants that the principal agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified terms and conditions. By submitting Notices to The Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser, including any principal, agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions: "Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has requested to place a Notice in The Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal; "Authorised Scale of Charges" means the scale of charges set out at in the printed copy of the Gazette or at <https://www.thegazette.co.uk/place-notice/pricing> as modified from time to time; "Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges; "Local Newspaper Notice" means any notice placed in a local newspaper rather than The Gazette; "Notice" means all advertisements and state, public, legal or other notices (without limitation) placed in The Gazette, save in respect of any Local Newspaper Notice, to which other terms may apply where indicated in these Terms and Conditions; "Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited, with registered company number 03049649.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and

1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which, unless stated otherwise in these Terms and Conditions, represent the entire terms agreed between the parties in relation to the publication of Notices in The Gazette and which every Notice shall be subject to. For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail over any other terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing which the parties agree shall not apply, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher reserves the right, to be exercised at its sole and absolute discretion, to make reasonable efforts to verify the validity of the Advertiser.

4 The Publisher may, at its sole and absolute discretion, edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser will not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions, amendments or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 subject to clause 5 below, no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1 - 4.5 above) shall be made without confirmation from the Advertiser.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Advertiser agrees and accepts that, subject to the limited rights to edit any Notice referred to above, it is the Advertiser that shall be solely responsible for the content of any Notice, including its validity and accuracy and that the Publisher shall not be responsible for, nor shall have any liability in respect of such content in any way whatsoever.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication or the timing of any publication of a Notice, such decision to be final. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legal, statutory and/or procedural requirements and accuracy relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice, in the publisher's sole opinion, may not comply with any such requirements. In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of any action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 Neither the Publisher nor The National Archives (or any successor organisation) (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and/or employees) shall be liable for any liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs (including on a full indemnity basis) and other professional costs and/or expenses) suffered or incurred, howsoever arising (including negligence), whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher, The National Archives and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party (including, without limitation, any principal of the Advertiser) or arising out of or made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's or The National Archives' negligence or the negligence of the their agents, subcontractors and/or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 6 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error including which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon becoming aware of such error, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and full extent of the limit of the Publishers liability in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes, in its sole opinion, an Advertiser is submitting Notices in bad faith, is in breach of clause 11 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in breach of these Terms and Conditions or has breached such Terms and Conditions previously, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by the Advertiser and may, at its sole and absolute discretion, delay publication of those Notices until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in The Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of The Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading, nor does it contain potentially fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any law (statutory or otherwise) nor is it in any way illegal, defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice (as amended and updated from time to time), nor is it subject to any court order prohibiting such publication.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise, relating to the placing of any Notices.

13 The Advertiser agrees to fully indemnify and hold the Publisher and The National Archives (or any successor organisation), including any affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and employees harmless from all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including, without limitation) any direct, indirect, consequential and/or special losses and/or damage, loss of profit, loss of reputation and/or goodwill and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and/or expenses (including legal costs) suffered or incurred (including negligence) in respect of any matter arising out of, in connection with or relating to any Notice, including (without limitation) in respect of any claim and/or demand (including threatened and/or potential claims or demands) made by any third party which may constitute a breach, threatened and/or potential breach by the Advertiser (or their principal) of these Terms and Conditions or any breach and/or potential breach by the Advertiser of any law and/or any of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such applicable claims, demands or potential claims or demands are handled but the Publisher shall retain the sole, absolute and final decision on all aspects of any matter arising from the aforementioned indemnity, including the choice of instructing legal representatives, steps taken in or related litigation and/or decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall use best endeavours to provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request including in respect of any principal (if applicable) and including, without limitation, the provision of and/or access to witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents and/or any evidence, including supporting any associated litigation and/or dispute resolution process.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.thegazette.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice, as well as from any other medium in which the Notice has been placed that is controlled by The Gazette, where possible. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim, threatened or suspected claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Publisher, whose decision in respect of such matter shall be final. Other than withdrawal of a Notice following a claim or threatened claim, withdrawal of a Notice post-publication shall take place only upon the written instructions of The National Archives (or any successor organisation) or if there is a credible claim that the continuing presence of a Notice endangers an individual's personal safety or a request is received from any applicable regulatory and/or enforcement authorities.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in The Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher for and on behalf of the Crown, all rights, including but not limited to, copyright and/or other such intellectual property rights (as applicable) in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity in respect of any Notice (including any activity in the preparation of such Notice for publication in The Gazette) by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party. For the avoidance of doubt, all Notices and any content therein shall be Crown copyright and may be subject to the Open Government Licence (or any variation thereof).

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of The Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible in the public interest and that the information contained in the Notices published in The Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose and that such use may be beyond the control of The Gazette. In such instances, the Publisher accepts and the Advertiser agrees that the Publisher shall have no liability whatsoever in respect of such use by third parties.

17 The Advertiser acknowledges and agrees that the publication of any Notice is subject to any court order and/or direction of the court or such other regulatory and/or enforcement authorities including the Information Commissioner's Office, the police, the Financial Conduct Authority (and such other related regulatory organisations), the Solicitors Regulation Authority and such other authorities as may be applicable (without limitation) and that the Publisher may delay, refuse to publish or withdraw from publication if it has received evidence to that effect and may not publish such notice until it has received written evidence from the court (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) that demonstrates that any previous order and/or direction has been withdrawn and/or is no longer applicable (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) and/or, subject to any statutory and/or applicable laws, The Gazette may share information and/or data related to the Notice and/or the Advertiser's account related to such authorities and the Advertiser hereby consents to such disclosure(s).

18 In respect of any Local Newspaper Notice, this clause 18 shall apply. For the avoidance of doubt, all other terms of the Terms and Conditions shall apply to Local Newspaper Notices only to the extent that they do not conflict with the terms set out below. In the event of any conflict, the terms set out in this clause 18 shall prevail:

18.1 The Local Newspaper Notice may be placed in a local newspaper by any subcontractor and/or a third party organisation at the Publisher's sole and absolute discretion and the Advertiser hereby consents to such use (including any activity that is ancillary and/or reasonably necessary to such use). For the avoidance of doubt, this may include the processing of personal data in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998, as amended ("DPA"), by the Publisher, any subcontractor and/or third party organisation, together with the local newspaper and related organisations;

18.2 The placement of a Local Newspaper Notice shall be upon the standard terms and conditions of the local newspaper in question in addition to these Terms and Conditions. The Advertiser expressly agrees to such local newspaper terms and by submitting a Local Newspaper Notice to The Gazette, expressly consents to the Publisher, its subcontractors and/or any applicable third party organisation agreeing to such terms on behalf of the Advertiser;

18.2.1 To the extent that such local newspaper and the applicable terms allow, where the Publisher, any subcontractor, any third party acting on behalf of the Publisher and/or the local newspaper is responsible for any error including (without limitation), the Publisher, the Publisher shall arrange for the local newspaper to publish the corrected Local Newspaper Notice at no additional cost to the Advertiser. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and the full extent of the limit of liability in these circumstances;

19 In the event that a corrected Local Newspaper Notice is not published for whatever reason, the total aggregate liability of the Publisher and The National Archives, whether direct or indirect, and including (without limitation) all liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs and/or other professional costs and/or expenses) suffered or incurred, howsoever arising (including negligence), whether arising from the acts and/or omissions of the Publisher, The National Archives and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party (including, without limitation, any principal of the Advertiser) or arising out of or made in connection with the Notice or otherwise shall be limited to the value of the Local Newspaper Notice placed through The Gazette except that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's or The National Archives' negligence or the negligence of their agents, subcontractors and/or employees or third parties acting on behalf of the Publisher.

20 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher in writing. The Charges must be paid in full by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher in respect of the payment of such Charges (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

21 If the Advertiser wishes to make a complaint, all such complaints shall be submitted in writing to customer.services@thegazette.co.uk

22 Save in respect of The National Archives (or any successor organisation), a person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

23 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
