A PROCLAMATION,

Appointing a Day for the Solemnity of the Coronation of his Majesty.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the 6th day of May 1820, we did (amongst other things) publish and declare our Royal intention to celebrate the solemnity of our Royal Coronation upon Tuesday the 1st day of August then next ensuing, at our Palace at Westminster: and whereas by our Royal Proclamation, bearing date on the 12th of July following, we thought fit to adjourn the said solemnity until our royal will and pleasure should be further signified thereon: and whereas we have resolved, by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the said solemnity upon Thursday the 19th day of July next, at our said Palace at Westminster; we do by this our Royal Proclamation give notice of and publish our resolution therein; and we do hereby strictly charge and command all our loving subjects whom it may concern, that all persons of what rank or quality soever they be, who either upon our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices and tenures, or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of our Coronation, do duly give their attendance at the said solemnity on Thursday the 19th day of July next; in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the dignities and places which every one of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth; and of this they or any one of them are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their perils, unless upon special reasons, by ourself under our sign manual to be allowed, we shall dispense with any of their services or attendances.

Given at our Court at Carlton-House, this 9th day of June 1821, in the second year of our reign.

GOD save the KING.

Price Sevenpence.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS John Earl of Stair was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, we do, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the 2d day of August next; between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said John Earl of Stair, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being qualified according to law); and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the principal clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And we strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns in Scotland, 25 days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at our Court at Carlton-House, this 9th day of June 1821, in the second year of our reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Carlton House, the 9th June 1821.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an act, passed in the 56th year of his late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled, "An act to empower his Majesty to suspend the ballot or inrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by any order in Council, to direct that no ballot or inrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and inrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such order of Council, and from time to time, by any like order or orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as his Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any act or acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an order in Council, made the 7th of June past, it was ordered by his Majesty in Council, that no ballot or inrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the 27th of June last, but that the ballot and inrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said 27th of June last: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and inrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the 27th day of this instant June; it is, therefore, ordered by his Majesty, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, that no ballot or inrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the 27th day of this instant June, but that the ballot and inrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said 27th day of this instant June.

JAS. BULLER:

WHITEHALL—JUNE 8, 1821.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable William Dundas, Keeper of the Signet, to the place and office of Clerk of his Majesty's Registers and Rolls in Scotland, in the room of Archibald Colquhoun, Esq. deceased.

WESTMINSTER—JUNE 8, 1821.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by his Majesty, for declaring his Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An act for making further regulations in respect to the payment by remittance bill of the wages of petty officers, seamen, and marines in the royal navy, and for extending the provisions of an act, made in the 55th year of his late Majesty, relating to the execution of letters of attorney and wills of petty officers, seamen, and marines in his Majesty's navy.

An act to exclude the borough of Grampound, in the county of Cornwall, from sending Burgesses to serve in Parliament, and to enable the county of York to send two additional Knights to serve in Parliament in lieu thereof.

An act for more effectually enlarging, deepening, improving, and maintaining the harbour of Saltcoats, in the county of Ayr.

An act to alter, and amend three acts, of the 53d, 54th, and 56th years of his late Majesty, for enabling Commissioners to erect and maintain a new gaol and other buildings for the county of and city of Edinburgh, and for opening communications with the same; and to enable the Trustees for turnpike and other high roads, in the said county of Edinburgh, to advance further sums of money to the said Commissioners.

And to several English road, &c. acts, and fourteen private bills.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ROBERT M'FARLANE & COMPANY, Merchants and Agents in Glasgow, and carrying on business under the same firm in Basing Lane, London, and of Robert M'Farlane and John M'Arthur, the individual partners thereof.

UPON the 16th June current, the Court of Session, on the application of the said Robert M'Farlane & Company, and of Robert M'Farlane and John M'Arthur, the individual partners thereof, with concurrence of Creditors to the extent required by law, sequestrated the whole estate and effects, heritable and moveable, real and personal, belonging to the said Robert M'Farlane & Company, and to the said Robert M'Farlane and John M'Arthur, within the jurisdiction of the Court, individuals; and appointed their Creditors to meet at Glasgow, within the Lyceum Rooms there, on Saturday the 30th June current, at one o'clock afternoon, to name an Interim Factor, if they think proper; and also to meet, at the same place and hour, on Monday the 16th July, for the purpose of electing a Trustee upon the said sequestrated estate.—Of all which intimation is hereby given, in terms of the statute.
 Edinburgh, June 18, 1821.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES RAE, Cattle-Dealer and Grain-Merchant at Uddingston.

MR JOHN REID, the Trustee, hereby intimates, that at a meeting held on the 15th June current, the bankrupt offered a composition of 5s. per pound sterling of the debts due by him at the date of the sequestration, with security, besides paying the Trustee's commission and whole other expenses; and another meeting is to be held in the writing-chambers of Mr John Ferguson, writer, 107, Nelson Street, Glasgow, on Monday the 9th day of July proximo, at 12 o'clock noon, for deciding thereon.
 Glasgow, June 15, 1821.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ANDREW CRAWFORD, Plasterer in Glasgow.

ANDREW BLAIR, Merchant in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that he has been elected and confirmed Trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said Andrew Crawford; and that upon his application the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed the 28th day of June current, and 12th day of July next, within the office of Buchanan and Todd, writers, Buchanan's Court, Trongate, at 12 o'clock noon each day, for the public examination of the bankrupt and others connected with his affairs.

The Trustee farther intimates, that two general meetings of the Creditors will be held within the office of the said Buchanan and Todd, the one on the 29th day of June current, and the other on the 13th day of July next, at 12 o'clock noon each day, for the purpose of choosing Commissioners and instructing the Trustee, in terms of the statute.

The Trustee hereby requires such of the Creditors as have not already lodged with him their grounds of debt, with oath of verity thereto, to do so at or previous to the first-mentioned meeting; certifying, that such of them as neglect to do so betwixt and the 11th day of February next, (being ten months after the date of the sequestration), will be cut off from any share in the first distribution of the bankrupt's estate.

Glasgow, June 14, 1821.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN WATSON, Plumber and Tinplate-Worker in Dundee.

ALEXANDER LAWSON, Ironmonger in Dundee, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John Watson, hereby intimates, that at a meeting of the Creditors of the said John Watson held within Morren's Hotel, Dundee, on the 8th day of March last, an offer of composition was made, with security, which was entertained by the Creditors present; and at an after meeting, held on the 22d March, for deciding on the said offer, it was agreed to adjourn the same. The Trustee, therefore, appoints another general meeting of the said Creditors to be held within the writing-office of James Hunter, writer in Dundee, on Wednesday the 4th day of July next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of finally deciding on the said offer, with or without amendment.
 Dundee, June 18, 1821.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN PATERSON, Merchant in Edinburgh, and ROBERT KERR, Merchant in Leith, who, in 1810, were sequestrated, as copartners carrying on a joint trade or concern together, as a company, and also as individuals.

WILLIAM MYLNE, Merchant in Leith, the Trustee on said sequestrated estates, intending to resign his office of Trustee, hereby intimates, that a full state of his accounts, and of the situation of the estate, lies in his counting-house, Leith, for the inspection of the Creditors; and that a meeting of the Creditors is to be held within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Monday the 18th day of July next, at two o'clock afternoon, to receive his resignation.
