MILL AND MILL-LANDS IN FIFE FOR SALE.

Part of the entailed estate of Balbedie.

To be Sold, by public auction, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 22d August 1821, between the hours of two and four afternoon, under the authority of the Court of Session, for the purpose of redeeming the land-tax payable out of said estate, in terms of the acts of Parliament made in that behalf, and paying off certain debts affecting the same.

ALL and whole the MILL and MILL-LANDS of INCH-GALL, with the Miltures and Sequels of the said Mill, and whole parts, privileges, and pertinents thereto belonging, the property of Sir Michael Malcolm of Belbedie and Grange, Bart., lying within the parish of Ballingry, and county of Fife, all as presently possessed by William Blyth, upon a lease current for 19 years from Martinmas 1819, at a rent of L.140 for the first three years, and L.145 yearly for the remainder of the lease.

The lands, which extend to about 140 acres, are mostly arable.

The thirl belonging to the mill is extensive; and there being no other mill in the neighbourhood, she is almost constantly employed.

There is abundance of coal and lime in the immediate neighbourhood, to which there is easy access by the public road leading from Lochgelly to Kinross, which runs close past the property. The public burdens are moderate.

For particulars apply to Martin and Stevenson, 12, James's Street, Edinburgh; or to James Webster, writer, Cupar-Fife. Mr Russell, at Inchgall Mill, will point out the boundaries of the farm.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOSEPH ASTLEY, Chemical Manufacturer at Portobello and Borrowstownness, &c.

At a meeting, held on the 17th July 1821, the said Joseph Astley offered a composition of 2s. in the pound to his personal Creditors, payable in twelve months from the date of approval thereof, and to find security to their satisfaction.

This offer the meeting were unanimously of opinion was just and reasonable; and the Trustee, as recommended by the meeting, hereby appoints another meeting of the Creditors, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Tuesday the 21st August 1821, at two o'clock afternoon, to decide upon the said offer, and to fix the allowance to be made to the bankrupt.—Of all which intimation is hereby given.

DON. M'CRUMMEN, Trustee.

Edinburgh, July 24, 1821.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN PETTIGREW, Merchant and Agent in Glasgow.

JOHN LEADBETTER, Merchant in Glasgow, Trustee

upon the sequestrated estate of the said John Pettigrew, hereby intimates, that states of the affairs of the bankrupt, with the accounts of his intrusions and disbursements as Trustee foresaid, doctetted by the Commissioners, lie at his counting-house, for the inspection of the Creditors and all others concerned in the said estate; and that upon Wednesday the 22d of August next, being the statutory period, he will pay a dividend to all the Creditors of the bankrupt who have proved their debts, in terms of the statute.

Glasgow, July 21, 1821.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN ROBERTSON, Merchant and Agent in Glasgow.

ON the application of the said John Robertson, with concurrence of a Creditor to the extent required by law, the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills this day sequestrated the whole estate and effects of the said John Robertson; and appointed his Creditors to meet within the Lyceum Rooms, Glasgow, upon Monday the 6th day of August next, at 12 o'clock noon, to choose an Interim Factor; and again, at the same place and hour, upon Tuesday the 21st day of the said month of August, to elect a Trustee.—Of all which intimation is hereby given, in terms of the statute.

Edinburgh, July 26, 1821.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN PATERSON, Merchant in Edinburgh, and ROBERT KERR, Merchant in Leith, (who, in 1810, were sequestrated), as copartners carrying on a joint trade or concern together, as a company, and also as individuals.

UPON an application of the requisite number of Creditors of the said John Paterson and Robert Kerr, the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, on the 25th day of July current, appointed a meeting of the said Creditors to be held within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 5th day of September next, at two o'clock afternoon, in order to elect a new Trustee on the said estate, in room of William Mylne, merchant in Leith, resigned.

Edinburgh, July 27, 1821.
