

NOTICE

TO THE RESIDUARY LEGATEES OF
The deceased WILLIAM YOUNG, Senior, formerly Merchant in Aberdeen.

BY the settlement of the said William Young, he ordered, that after the death of certain annuitants, who are now all dead, the residue of his estate should be divided among the following persons, viz. one-ninth part thereof to the fourth son of the now deceased Dr John Stuart of Inchbreck, and his heirs; another ninth part to the descendants of the deceased Richard Lawson, son of Richard Lawson, sometime in Mill of Garvock, and the remaining seven-ninths to the children of the deceased George Milne, formerly in Mill of Garvock, and their descendants. The Trustees acting under Mr Young's settlement now intimate, that a division of the residue of said estate will be made at the house of Duncan Davidson, advocate in Aberdeen, on the 27th day of August 1822; and, in the meantime, the persons interested are requested to lodge their claims with Mr Davidson. The Trustees farther intimate, that it is declared by the settlement, that if any person or persons entitled to a share of this residue shall not appear at Aberdeen in person upon the day and at the place fixed for the division, "he, she, or they shall receive no part or portion thereof."
